A WORD FROM LIBERTY

Greetings and may the God of all that has been, now is, and ever will be from this moment forward let His grace and mercy rest on you and yours. May God's strength, encouragement, and wisdom rest upon the world leaders around us who are making decisions in these days that will impact the lives of so many people.

Regardless of the devastating images you are seeing on the television, what you are reading in the paper, or hearing on the radio, our God is still in control. He knows exactly what is taking place everywhere on earth. Nothing has taken Him by surprise, nor ever will.

Do not be tempted to believe that if it were not for the wickedness in America, those in power in Iraq, or the terrorists, that there might be peace for all of us. Was it not these very sinners, others would rise up to take their place because the spiritual condition of our world today has allowed them to.

America and her allies are at war with Iraq because God's people have not stopped the flood of evil being poured out over our land by Satan. In Second Chronicles 7:14, God clearly tells us that if we, His people, would humble ourselves, pray, seek His face, and turn from our own wicked ways, then He would hear from heaven and heal our land. I often think that God must sometimes look down upon His children and wonder, "What part of Second Chronicles 7:14 don't they understand that I might heal their land?"

Because we are at war and innocent men, women, and children are dying, American Christians are suddenly interested in praying again—within reason, of course. Not many want to give up large chunks of their time to do nothing but pray, but some praying (within reason) is acceptable to most Christians.

I've just returned from participating in a three-day prayer conference at Arcade Baptist Church in Sacramento where I was impressed at the number of people (over 450) who came out to not only learn about prayer, but to actually pray. There was repentance, humbling of self, worship-based prayer, singing, seeking, and everyone stayed for the full three days from early in the morning to late at night.

The pastor spoke of this church's occasional three-day prayer retreats with no agendas and no speakers—just a few guidelines and prayer. What a concept—a few simple guidelines and then praying for three days!

On March 17th, the Lord gave Linda Cady, one of our LSM Staff members, a mandate. We agree with this Call To War:

*If you will come together each day in prayer for your nation, I will show you My favor. Do not forget those nations who have joined the side of right. Remember in My Word that I spoke of 'wars and rumors of war.' This is one of those wars. Do not be deceived—time for complacency in matters of prayer is at an end. I AM is calling you to war.

*Never before has this nation encountered the forces of darkness on the battlefield as you are about to in this hour. This time has been predetermined in heaven. I have put all of the leaders into position for this time and season. Each of you have the opportunity and the obligation to come into agreement with My plans and My purposes for this time. Today you are called to put on the armor of God and engage the real enemy

The real enemy is the same territorial spiritual authority over Iraq (formerly Persia) that has been there since the time of the prophet Daniel. In Daniel 9:3-19, Daniel was praying and confessing his sin and the sins of his people. He was presenting his prayers to God when Gabriel flew swiftly to him to speak words from the Lord to give him wisdom and understanding. Daniel went into mourning and fasting for three weeks as he pondered the understanding he had been given.

At the end of the three weeks, he was approached again by the angel who said, “Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days” (Daniel 10:12-14, KJV). This territorial power, the prince of Persia, is still spiritually active over Iraq and will only be brought down once and for all by the prayers of God’s people.

Right after September 11, 2001, I wrote a book called Fear Not America. While the book was written with particular emphasis on what America was going through in the last part of 2001 after 9/11, it was also aimed at prayer that would break the ongoing cycles of wrong agreements that Satan’s demonic forces feed off of in America as well as overseas. Now in 2003, we at LSM believe God has given us a special plan and purpose for this book—OPERATION FEAR NOT SOLDIER!

On the radio one recent morning, someone asked a talk show host what Americans could sacrifice in their daily lives to benefit the troops. The host replied, “Nothing. There is nothing you can sacrifice in your daily lives that will change what our troops are going through. So what if you give up television on Fridays or don’t go out on Saturday? That won’t change a soldier’s situation a bit.”

I thought how true that was in the natural realm of things. But the one thing Christians can “sacrifice” to change things for the troops is in the supernatural, spiritual realm: We can give up personal time for more prayer for God’s will to be done around the world. This is what God’s people must do. Here is a short prayer that we would ask you to pray every day with us, as often as you can, to help change spiritual things for our land and our troops and others. A much longer version of this prayer is now available in a new laminated prayer chart called Our Leaders & Our Troops (see Order Blank).

Lord, you have said that if we, your people, would humble ourselves, pray, and turn from our wicked ways, you would heal our land. Forgive me for my sins—both those I have committed and those of not doing what you have told me to do. I want to be a Christian soldier, part of your prayer troops who will go right to the front lines in the realm of the supernatural.

I bind every government leader involved in the current conflict to your will and purposes for their lives. I loose personal agendas, wrong agreements, and wrong counsel from them. I bind their minds to the mind of Christ that they will hear His words. Please get their attention and help them see that your will alone must be done on earth as you have so set it in heaven.

I bind every soldier involved in the war with Iraq, and his or her family members, to your will and purposes for their lives. Please pour out grace and mercy and protection upon them. Please let your mantle of peace rest upon them. I bind their minds to your mind, Jesus, and I loose the fearful thoughts that frightened minds, wills, and emotions are so prone to recycling over and over. Please protect the innocent Iraqis who are caught in the middle of this conflict. Lord, your arm is not shortened, and we ask that you would bring this conflict to a quick resolution in alignment with your will. Amen

Operation Fear Not Soldier

We believe the Lord has asked us to put a free copy of Fear Not America into the hands of as many of our soldiers in Iraq as we are able. There are many chapters in this book that were written to inform and comfort believers regarding God’s plans and protection for them when they are following His will, such as Antidote to Fear; Courage and Comfort; Praying For Others; and Turning Back to You, Lord. But this was not enough, as Fear Not America does not give personal prayers for soldiers to pray when they are crouched behind sand dunes or in foxholes with gunfire and bombs bursting around them. So, the following Operation was born!

In addition to sending soldiers a copy of Fear Not America, we want to also send them a colored, 3x5” laminated prayer card—a “pocket prayer” to fit into a pocket of a uniform. The prayer, entitled Fear Not Soldier, will be filled with scriptural military terms (i.e. soldier, troops, armor, war, etc.) together with words of comfort, encouragement, hope, and an understanding of how to break the recycling of fear that the worried soul perpetuates. The prayer will give each soldier words of comfort and encouragement to pray wherever they are.

We will send an Operation Fear Not Soldier packet to your soldier (APO only, please) if you copy the next page, fill in the form, and mail it to our office. Please be very careful to give us the exact APO mailing address of your soldier. Each Operation Fear Not Soldier packet will also include a prayer request form and LSM-addressed, stamped envelope so these soldiers can send their concerns back to our stateside "prayer troops."

Breaking Soul Ties From Former Relationships

Question to Liberty: At the time that I got saved, I was sexually involved with someone I felt I was in love with and wanted to marry. Shortly thereafter, God removed him from my life. Just when I think I'll forget him, he contacts me. He's confided things to me he said he could never tell anyone else, though he has married. I so desire for him to be happy. Every time I hear from him, it hurts so much. But he is so special to me, I cannot bear the pain of losing him again. What should I do? Bonnie Anne

Answer to Bonnie Anne: You have a soul tie to this man that needs to be broken. Any time you enter into wrong agreements with someone that promise some sort of personal benefit for you, you are immediately vulnerable to forming a soul tie to that person. Fornication fits this category. Ending a relationship does not automatically sever the soul ties that you may have formed—especially when your soul has memories of a person comforting and satisfying your unmet needs and unhealed hurts.

You need to pray and bind your will to the will of God, bind your mind to the mind of Christ, and loose any and all effects and influence of wrong agreements you have entered into and the resulting soul ties that were formed. You need to pray this regarding anyone you may have entered into a wrong agreement with seeking mutual benefit, support, or satisfaction. You may need to pray this way more than once—especially if he contacts you right after you pray to break soul ties with him. He may sense he has lost something that is comfortable to him. That is what you are to him, Bonnie Anne—a comfortable soul tie he can draw on whenever he wants comfort. If he contacts you, tell him that you are praying for his marriage but you cannot converse with him any longer. Do not maintain this relationship, even in your mind!

God has much more for you, but He won't give it to you if it has to compete with a soul tie from your past. When you allow your past to keep invading your present, you are compromising your future. These old memories will retreat into the archives of your mind when you stop tending and nurturing them in your thoughts and through this soul tie you have with him. I will be praying. Liberty

TESTIMONIES!

I have no words to describe how desperate I have felt at times, but thanks to your books and the prayers, I have stayed on track!!! Cape Town, South Africa. T.S. Your books just keep getting better and better. Thank you, dear sister, for being faithful to the word God has given you. It is marvelous and life changing. I am currently dealing with my major issues of unforgiveness (again), but this time I have tools to work with. WOW, what a difference!! This is wonderful stuff. Lisa I ran through Shattering Your Strongholds because I discovered that this book was exactly what I needed! I'll now go back through it to allow your teachings to become part of my inner man. Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES INC.

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President of Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc., was born again in 1972. She is an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915). Rev. Savard has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor, and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (Gainesville FL) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Publishing), Breaking the Power ((1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Producing the Promise (1999 Bridge-Logos Pub.), and several mini-books and workbooks. With The Unsundered Soul (2002 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Apples of Gold In Baskets Of Silver (2003 Bridge-Logos Pub.), there are now 13 Liberty Savard books in print.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and the work of spiritual renewal by the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry teaches forgiveness, love, grace, mercy, and redemption for all who would accept this sacrifice so that they might understand how to joyfully live by the power of Christ within them. This ministry works to teach God's people how to cause their unsundered souls to surrender to God's will as He has already established it in heaven, and to make room within their souls to receive all God has promised them so that they could live lives that would bring glory and honor to God the Father here on earth! This ministry also works to teach God's people how to destroy the effects and influences of all wrong agreements made over lives, geographic territories and circumstances, and how to occupy those territories taken for the Kingdom of God. This ministry is dedicated to training Christians to both implement in their own lives as well as to teach others how to pray with effectiveness and pure motives to declare that God's will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
