JUST BOOKED –NOVEMBER 2002
WEST COAST LEVEL I LSM
TEACHERS' CERTIFICATION TRAINING SEMINAR!

LEVEL I: November 6-9, 2002.

We are delighted to have just been able to schedule a special Level I LSM Teachers' Certification Training in Coos Bay, Oregon in November 2002! This special teachers' training is a one-time-only opportunity this year to attend this popular training for just $100! The usual registration fee is $275.00.

We will accept 50 paid registrations for this school. The special price has been made possible by the volume of the school and special help and support for LSM staff by the hosting church. This training will be held November 6th-9th at the Church of the Open Bible in Coos Bay OR, Pastors Ron and Bev Karsen.

All students desiring to register for this Level I Training MUST have read each of the three books in the Trilogy to attend and test to be a Certified LSM Teacher. If you desire to attend in a non-certification capacity, you are not required to read all three books, but it is highly recommended that you do. Students wishing to be certified as official LSM Teachers will immediately be sent a set of teaching tapes, a manual, and a pre-test that must be completed before attending.

So we recommend that you get your registration in immediately so you can get your pre-testing material in time to complete it before the school. This is doable, especially if you are already working with these principles.

This will be a full school, complete with our special Video Facilitation training by the terrific Carla Clark, Eagle Teacher Level II, from Atlanta GA. Don't miss out on this great opportunity!

You can register online on our website <http://www.libertysavard.com> or you can call our office and register by phone – 916-721-7770. Or, you can call our office, request the registration form, and quickly return it with your $100 registration fee. Time is of the essence so that you can get your pre-testing material. Also, we cannot take more than 50 students for this school. Hope to see you there!

NOTE: The Level II Teachers' Certification Training has been cancelled for this year. We regret any inconvenience this may have caused any students, but next year will be bigger and better, so get ready for it!

A WORD FROM LIBERTY

Time is truly flying these days. It seems like I go to work on Monday morning, go out to lunch and when I get back to the office, it is Thursday afternoon. There are so many things that we all need to get done, but it seems that we have less and less time. Yet issues that demand attention still seem to increase every day.

As my responsibilities grow, I find myself feeling that because I have so much to do, I should focus on getting my day started at the office. Then I promise myself that I will read the Word of God later in the day. Let me offer a small excerpt here from my newest book, "The Unsundered Soul" to explain why this is a foolish thing to do. This is from the chapter on leadership, but it applies to us all:

I heard from Michael Lenhart, my Board Director, again. Michael, the one who wades right into my life where others fear to tread. He said, "You can't do everything you're trying to do and still have the time you need to have with the Lord. Something is going to suffer." I began to think about how many times I hurry through my reading of the Word to get to work because there are so many things to do "for God." I began to think about how often I find myself praying while I'm driving to utilize my time productively, rather than just sitting down and talking to God. Ouch, that hurts to reread that confession.

All ministers (and every Christian) should ask themselves, "Has my ministry (or my work for God) helped me get closer to God? Or, do I have less time to spend with Him and less time to pray because I am too busy fulfilling my ministry (my plans)?" Often, the work of the ministry leads to us praying less, isolating ourselves more, and pursuing causes. Even though everyone may tell us that what we are doing is great and wonderful, success and affirmation in what you are doing for God can strengthen your soul's resistance to surrendering that attention to God.

Perhaps we should all stop and pray this prayer from time to time: Lord, am I really doing what you want me to do? Do I rely upon you every day to help me make decisions, or am I making decisions based upon my prior successful experiences? I bind my will to your will, Lord, and I bind my mind to the mind of Christ. I loose all of my soul's desires to be on top of everything.

If I need a reminder that I must rely on you for everything, then put me into circumstances and situations where I do not know what to do, where I do not have any prior experiences to call upon. Put me into circumstances where no one cares or is impressed by my credentials, my licenses, my accomplishments, or my personal style—put me into circumstances where my self-confidence is severely shaken.

*I must be confident only in having you in me, Jesus. Make me need your guidance once again. Help me rediscover who I am in you and who You are to me before returning me to circumstances where I can use my skills, experience, and natural abilities.
Thank you, Lord.*

Why does it take us so long to learn that everything goes better with the Word and prayer? Whenever I try to "wait" until later in the day to read the Word, things are always a struggle. Whenever I try to go to bed at night without having spent time in the Word and in prayer (just too busy for God!), sleep is always difficult and miserable. Remember this, you are only able to give out to others what you have within you. Make sure your spiritual tank is filled up and your soul is bathed in the Word and prayer before you take on the world!

THE POWER OF THE BLOOD!

One night in a church service a young woman felt the tug of God at her heart. She responded to God's call and accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior. This young woman came from a very rough past, involving alcohol, drugs, and prostitution. But, the change in her life was very evident after she accepted Christ.

As time went on she became a faithful member of the church. She eventually became involved in the ministry of teaching young children. It was not very long until this faithful young woman had caught the eye and heart of the pastor's son. Their relationship grew and they began to make wedding plans. This is when the problems began.

Half of the church did not think that a woman with a past like hers was suitable for a pastor's son. The members of the church began to argue and fight about the matter. Finally they decided to have a church meeting. As the people made their arguments against such a marriage and the tension increased, the meeting began getting completely out of hand.

The young woman became very upset about all the things being brought up about her past. As she began to cry, the pastor's son stood to speak. He could not bear the pain it was causing his wife-to-be.

He said, "My fiancée's past is not what is on trial here. What you are questioning is the ability of the blood of Jesus to wash away sin. Today you have put the blood of Jesus on trial. So, tell me jury, does it wash away sin or not?"

The whole church began to weep as they realized that they had been slandering the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Forgiveness is a very foundational part of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. If the blood of Jesus cannot cleanse us completely and make us a new creature, then we are all in a lot of trouble! What can wash away my sins? Nothing but the blood of Jesus! End of case!

THE UNSURRENDERED SOUL – LIBERTY'S NEWEST BOOK

We are having a very good response so far to the release of The Unsundered Soul. Many people have really liked Dr. Soul Care ("he" was introduced to me by the very fertile imagination of Nancy Rankin, Level II LSM

Certified Teacher. People also feel they are finally understanding the Unsundered Soul chart's colored graphics. Praise the Lord!

The book has the actual Unsundered Soul chart printed inside both covers in color. Throughout the book itself, there are graphics from this chart as well as other new graphics to help explain the Text. Let me introduce you to Dr. Soul Care right here, spending a few minutes with him in his virtual-reality office:

Come with me now to the virtual-reality office of Dr. Soul Care. He is about to read an x-ray of your unsundered soul and discuss it with you. Dr. Soul Care begins to speak, "We need to go over your x-ray today," as he holds a film of it up. You can follow along with your own personal X-Ray of the Unsundered Soul on the inside cover of this book.

"It appears that there are several areas in this x-ray that we need to discuss immediately. I see some fairly significant areas of 'soul-disease' and many old wounds here. You've been through some things that happened long before you had any idea of how to deal with them, haven't you? It is always so sad when these things work out this way. So much brokenness occurs in the soul when you don't get all of the 'soul nutrients' that are necessary to make you strong and whole so that you can resist such wounding.

"Because of so many Traumatic Facts happening to you, you probably didn't get all the love nutrients and nurturing nutrients that your soul needed. I also suspect that you didn't get any affirmation nutrients or security nutrients from the looks of all the other weaknesses I see here. No one ever told you how valuable you were as a person, did they? That would certainly account for such a breaking down of your soul's stability. This kind of early wounding in a soul causes three kinds of Sources to form nasty holes in the soul. See, here they are right here," and Dr. Soul Care invites you to take a closer look.

"Yes, I see some serious unhealed hurts. I also see some throbbing unresolved issues. Then over here on the right are some significant unmet needs still festering, although it does look as though there may have been some healing here—but it was very temporary."

Dr. Soul Care looks at you to see if you are agreeing with what he is saying, "Until recently, we didn't have this technology to 'see' into the unsundered soul. But there is a Doctor Liberty out on the West Coast who has discovered a revelation breakthrough in this area, and we are able to do a much better job at diagnosing the soul's problems now. Tell me, have you been experiencing any symptoms of restlessness, dissatisfaction, discontent, some fear and anxiety, perhaps even insomnia? Hmmmmmm?"

Dr. Soul Care peers at your face again, then says, "I understand that you gave my Soul Care Nurse a copy of a spiritual insurance policy that says you cannot be sick, you cannot be hurt, you cannot be upset, and you cannot be frightened." Dr. Soul Care studies at a piece of paper in his hand, "She gave me your insurance paperwork. I see that your policy says that you will not experience any personal problems as long as you keep your 'good works' clauses active. Let's see here, your good works clauses that are in force are: You're born again. You're filled with the Holy Spirit. You pray every day. You regularly attend church. You participate in praise and worship. You tithe regularly. You study your Bible. You help out at the homeless food bank.

"Your spiritual insurance policy says that if you keep these 'good works' clauses in force, nothing bad can happen to you. Interesting, but you can't get such guarantees in writing, you know. I hate to have to tell you this, but this so-called spiritual 'insurance policy' is just a deception of your own soul. 'Good works' clauses or not, it is pretty obvious that some pretty bad things have happened to you even since you got your so-called policy in place. So, why don't we get on with the truth of your actual x-ray now."

EXCERPTS FROM NEW PRAYERS

This prayer is taken from the end of the two chapters in The Unsundered Soul which deal with the story of a mother who used the binding and loosing prayers message to help survive her born-again daughter's suicide. This is part of the prayer to pray for those who do not know how to pray for themselves when they are sinking into depression and suicidal thoughts.

Let Them Choose Life Prayer

Lord, help me to be a light, a hand outstretched, an intercessor for those who can no longer hear their born-again spirits crying, "Choose life! Choose life!" Help me speak life into the orphaned souls of those who do not yet know that Jesus died for them that they could CHOOSE LIFE. Help these souls, believers and not-yet-believers alike, to hear your voice encouraging them to surrender to you and come out of the barren and howling waste they are in right now. Those who have lost their hope, their courage, their faith, and those who have no faith yet, please shield them, care for them; and guard them. Those whose heads are bowed with pain, I bind their wills to your will, Lord, so that each one can be stabilized and steadied as they are held by you. I bind their tossed and torn minds to the mind of Christ so that they can hear His thoughts instead of the dark thoughts of their own soul/hearts. I bind their battered and negative emotions to you, Holy Spirit—they need your comfort so much. I bind them, believers and yet to-be-believers alike, to an awareness of your blood, Jesus, that you shed for them that they could live. I want them to want to live.

This next prayer excerpt is from our new prayer chart on Wrong Mind/Body Agreements:

Lord, I know that fighting or trying to outrun a symptom will never create a way for you to heal the source of that symptom. Even if I manage to overcome the behavioral symptom, my soul will engage another form of coping mechanism to deal with its still existing source of distress. I loose the stronghold in my soul that protects the lie that my body has to indulge in a wrong behavior to comfort itself. My soul is only laying down tracks that my mind uses to send its demands for a physical fix. Whenever my pain and needs well up again, I will loose the strongholds keeping you out of my soul—because only you can permanently fix the pain and the neediness that I feel. I loose the guilt that I feel over these wrong behaviors, because stressing about guilt will never set me free.

I want to be free! The best way I know to get close to your strength to overcome these wrong mind/body agreements is to bind my will and body to your will and my mind to the mind of Christ. I choose to do this, I choose to place myself close to your will that I would be stronger.

I loose all wrong mind/body agreements that I have made knowingly or accepted ignorantly. I loose, strip, and tear up the psychological and physiological tracks that my brain has laid down, even deeply etched into itself, turning back to them every time I long to physically console myself. I loose wrong patterns of thinking and wrong beliefs that I deserve to be comforted in this manner to make up for other forms of comfort and love that I have never had. I loose all layering and stronghold thought-pattern building that my soul has put in place to protect its right to try to appease my unmet needs and unhealed hurts however it wants.

Lord, thank you for these keys that give me something to hold onto in prayer when I am seeking to change. I want to change, Father, and I am asking for your divine help as I make the transition to being free from these thoughts and behaviors. I want to stop all wrong behaviors and I want to be healed. You are my Healer and you are my Lord, and I thank you for always being there to help me, never to condemn me.

Please pray for us here at LSM as often as you can. We sometimes only survive the battle just because you do.

NEW SINGLE TAPES AVAILABLE!

We have already released a new 2001 ninety-minute tape for Soul Ties. We have just finished a new 2002 single tape Healing from our last LSM Teachers' Certification School. We have put together three more new single tapes: 2002 Forgiveness Issues, 2002 Leadership Issues, and 2002 Basics of Binding and Loosing.

This last tape, 2002 Basics of Binding and Loosing, is designed for you to give to a friend or to your pastor. It is a very easy to listen to tape with the basic explanation of the Keys of the Kingdom message. This is the tape you want to give to people you think would be interested in knowing what this message and ministry is all about. The tape will serve as a springboard for you to then share further from your experience with the Keys of the Kingdom.

NEW DEVOTIONAL AND PRAYER REQUESTS FOR LIBERTY'S PARENTS

Liberty's new devotional, Apples of Gold in Silver Baskets, has been put on hold. We will not be pre-selling advance copies of this book as its actual press date is still unknown. Liberty has struggled with some health issues this year, including viral pneumonia, and her parents have not been well. Please pray for Liberty's mother who is currently in the hospital with a bad infection in her foot. She is diabetic. Also, Liberty's father is very worried and nervous about Liberty's mother. They are both nominal Christians, declaring their faith in God, but struggling with the reality of that faith in the face of difficult times. Also, pray for Liberty to have inspiration and time to work on this exciting new devotional.

GREAT NEW BOOK COMING OUT NEXT YEAR! KINGDOM KEYS FOR KIDS

I'm very excited to share with you that Carla Clark, LSM Level II Teacher, who wrote the Teaching Kids Appendix for The Unsundered Soul, and I will be co-authoring a book on teaching children how to use the Keys of the Kingdom. That is a project that I'm very excited about. I also plan on releasing two children's books at the same time that I have long wanted to publish. So, next year will be the Year of the Kids for LSM!

I recently was conversing with a businessman who showed some interest in my new Children's and Teen prayer charts. He looked at the chart's lowest age level, 7 years old, and asked, "Why don't you have one for 3-5 year olds?" I laughed and said, "Because they can't usually read a prayer chart. But we are writing a book for teaching them by skits and stories how to pray these prayers for next year." He was quite pleased with that answer.

NEW POLICY ON SHIPPING COSTS

We have finally had to begin passing on the shipping costs to our customers. For years we tried to absorb those costs, but we no longer can. We hope you will understand. We have structured our new order blanks to achieve an average of costs by amount of the order. If we find for some reason that your actual shipping costs were considerably lower than what you were charged, we will credit you with that amount for a future order. We have lowered the prices on all of our tapes considerably in an attempt to help offset some of this increase in costs to you as the customer.

CAN YOU HELP US WITH "DAT"?

This has been quite a year for finance struggles for LSM. We have hoped all year to be able to get a new DAT recorder to make more single tapes on specific issues. Our present recording equipment is quite antiquated.

We would like to purchase a new DAT recorder (Digital Audio Tape) to produce high quality tape masters. Some of these professional DAT recorders run up to $2,000.00, but SONY has a portable one for $800.00 that would work quite nicely for us. We have not felt we could find this $800 anywhere in our strained budget. So, having a strong desire to make more original individual tapes, we are coming to you and asking for your help. If you feel that you could donate any funds to this project, please mark your donations: 'Dis Is For DAT. Thank you for your prayers.

2002 LSM INTERCESSORS

Just a word of thanks and a bundle of appreciation for our faithful LSM Intercessors. We have a list of e-mail intercessors, a list of phone intercessors, and mail intercessors who are holding up our specific needs in the ministry for us. Thank you!!! We are praying for you as well. If you would like to become a part of this very important ministry to LSM, please let us know by e-mail, snail mail, or phone. All are listed on first page.

THANK YOU, LSM PARTNERS!

How wonderful it has been to experience the gifts, love, and prayers of our partners. We are still working to try to get monthly communications going with our partners, and it will be coming soon. It has been great fun to go online on Thursday nights when I can, talking in our LSM Partner chat room with the partners and sharing prayers with each other. When I am on the road or otherwise tied up, several times the Partners themselves have prayed for and ministered to each other.

Please know, LSM Partners, you are prayed for often by the LSM staff. Also know that I (Liberty) pray over each of you when I write a personal note to you on your giving receipts each month. It is a blessing when God sometimes gives me personal words for you, as well as just getting to tell you personally how much you encourage us. Thank you again, so much. Whenever I am speaking around the nation and you are there, please come up to me and introduce yourself. Just tell the people with me that you are an LSM Partner and you want to say hello. You will bless me if you do.

EXCERPTS FROM AN EXCELLENT TEACHING BY DAVID WILKERSON

I don't believe I have ever spoken about anyone else's newsletter in my own newsletter, but David Wilderson's newsletters are profound and touching. I want to briefly recap and condense part of his August 19, 2002, newsletter and encourage you to write to him and request a full copy of it. I was so touched by this particular newsletter with regard to people who have unsaved or backslidden children, or just have a burden for the young people of today. Condensed from David Wilkerson's writings:

"Departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed and he spake plain" (Mark 7:31-35).

Who was this man brought to Jesus, "the one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech"? We're not given his name, however, I know who he represents to us today. He's an example of those who "have ears, but they hear not" (Psalm 115:6). This describes a state of spiritual deafness, an inability to hear and comprehend the truth of God.

I'm deeply impressed that this deaf, tongue-tied man is like the great majority of young people today. I believe this is especially true of children from Christian homes. I'm talking about good kids, not caught up in drugs, alcohol, sex, or immorality, but they are extremely passive about the things of God. Christ himself warns that good people end up in hell if they stay lukewarm (Revelation 3:16).

These are good kids who have not rejected Jesus, they simply don't have a passion for Him. I see the same condition in many Christian husbands. (They may) attend church with their praying wives, but afterward, the husbands just smile and say, "I enjoyed that today. I'll go with you again sometime." These men aren't Christ-rejecters. These are good men, faithful husbands, loving father, responsible providers. But if they continue to just admire Christ, they are lost.

The deaf, tongue-tied man's only hope was to get to Jesus. He had to have a personal encounter with him. (This passage of Scripture) tells us that he didn't get to Jesus on his own. He had to be brought. He never made an effort to come on his own. "They" had to bring him. Who were "they" in this verse? I can only speculate they were the man's family and friends, people who cared enough to bring him to Jesus. We also must "bring" our young people to Jesus through daily, believing prayer.

I believe this situation says much about our young people today. They won't make an effort to come on their own, they will have to be brought to Him by their parents, friends, their church family. This deaf and tongue-tied man needed a personal encounter with Jesus. He needed to be brought to Him.

It would have been foolish for the parents to plead with this young man or to berate him for not being able to hear their pleas or to tell them why he couldn't get to Jesus himself. Yet many Christian parents, myself included, get upset with them because they can't tell us why they won't come to Jesus. We can't comprehend why they're not able to put into words the cry of their hearts. The truth is, they're spiritually tongue-tied.

It doesn't matter how our children came to this condition. It's useless to try to figure out why they're so deaf to God's Word, so unable to express their heart's cry. It serves no purpose for Christian parents to figure out what they might have said or done wrong earlier in their child's life. No parent can counsel a deaf child into hearing. You can't love a tongue-tied person into speaking plainly. They can't be loved into hearing and speaking, they can't be condemned into it, they can't be counseled into it. They can only be "brought" to Jesus for a personal encounter with Him.

We have to ask Christ to give them their own experience with Him. Our experience isn't enough. Pray, "Lord, take my child, my unsaved loved one, apart from the multitude. Isolate them alone with you. Give them your touch. Let them have a private, personal awakening. May it be a deep, miraculous experience with you."

I, Liberty, do urge you to request this entire four-page newsletter. It is quite long and filled with encouragement and instruction. When you realize that you cannot love, condemn, or counsel a spiritual deaf child into hearing, it takes the pressure off you. Then you can begin to use the Keys of the Kingdom with more faith in God's ability to bring these children to a personal encounter with Jesus. "Lord, I bind my children to your will, I bind their minds to the mind of Christ. I ask that you isolate them with Jesus, that they can know He's real and He loves them. I loose apathetic thought patterns, self-protective thought patterns, and stronghold thinking off them. I thank you, Lord, that you know what to do. So do it, as I pray and trust you. Amen."

TESTIMONIES

I began Shattering Your Strongholds a year ago, then Breaking the Power, and recently Producing the Promise. I'm anxiously awaiting your newest book. To say that these books, as well as you, have changed my life is not an exaggeration!

Approximately 21 years ago, the Lord called me to be a writer and a speaker. Shattering strongholds right and left for the last year has finally brought me to tonight in August 2002. The fear of the Lord has won out over years of procrastination, perfectionism, and fears of rejection, failure, and of man! I sat down tonight to begin writing "officially."

There have been many wonderful women I have been inspired by, but you are the first one I have ever written to. I believe that without having studied your books and binding and loosing for a whole year now, I still wouldn't have begun! Thank you for who you are, what you have done, and for who you have become. I know what is being birthed in me is only the beginning. Pam K. S.

There have been so many times I wanted to thank you and express my thought about much I appreciate your work. I consider it an honor and privilege to be a partner with you. I believe through you, Christ will do a good work. After reading Freedom Here and Now I have been set free from the bondage of smoking and coffee addictions. I have not smoked a cigarette in over a year! The coffee thing is still a little bit of a struggle, but Paul said "we must work out our own salvation with fear and trembling." I find that so true!

You may break one bondage only to find another one beneath it, but it is good to finally know that they can be taken apart one by one. Thank you so much for teaching me how to be free. Joyce E.

Dear Rev. Savard: Thank you for your recent donation of training materials to Teen Challenge. For so long, we couldn't seem to get our women down to deeper levels, but with your material, we can help them do it. Overall, we have seen some real progress.

One student has been encouraged just by the fact that she now knows what is "wrong." She now has answers to questions she had no answers to for over 15 years. Answers she wasn't able to get through psychiatric counseling, hospital stays, drug therapy, or group meetings with her "higher power." Thank you again, Rev. ----, Executive Director

Dear Liberty Savard Ministries: Your books and workbooks are magnificent and will break the bondages that so many women in our prison find themselves trapped with. I cannot tell you how much the Church of Hope ladies inside the walls here at the ---- State Women's prison appreciate your ministry. Thank you again, Pastor ----

I am the pastor who came into your office and told you that even though I had been in ministry for over 40 years, I am married to a wonderful wife, I had struggled with wrong thought patterns, sexual thought patterns almost all of my life. I tried to argue with you intellectually, I tried to argue you with you scripturally, but you just asked me to pray the binding and loosing prayer with you from the back of your Unsundered Soul chart. I thought that was a poor excuse for counseling when I had come so far to see you. But I prayed the prayer after you as you asked, and I felt God touch my heart. I was overwhelmed with that feeling for a short period of time, and then I said, "I see you, soul, and now I know that you have been playing hide and seek with me all this time. No more!" Thank you for your obedience. I know God has set me free. Pastor ---

The leader of my home cell group recommended your book when I confessed in a meeting that I didn't feel I had ever become the "new creature" we are promised we will be when in Christ. After reading your book, I have come to realize that we don't become this at time of salvation, but only BEGIN this process! I am NOT a failure as I had so long believed! I also discovered that God has not withheld from me, but that it is me who has prevented His blessing from coming to me. I've always been a very pessimistic and negative person. I have always blurted out the first things that come to my mind and have often cut others off because I couldn't wait to get my "two cents worth" in. I now find that I am more slow to respond, more thoughtful of what and how I say something. Thank you so very much for taking His Word upon yourself and to share it with others. I pray God is blessing you richly..

Dear Liberty: Thank you so much! I have recently bought all 3 of your books and am in the process of reading them. I looked through your web site and am very encouraged. I found out about you through a pastor friend who said they've seen dramatic changes in the people they've prayed for using the principles you're teaching - so I'm excited. I must also confess that I'm encouraged that I am not praying alone! Again, thank you for your prayers and God bless you! Kristan

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES, INC.

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President, an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915), has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor, and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (Florida) and is the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Producing the Promise (1999 Bridge-Logos Pub.), and The Unsundered Soul (2002 Bridge-Logos Pub.). Liberty was born again in 1972.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to tear down their own (self-constructed) inner strongholds by using the keys of the Kingdom found in Matthew 16:19 (binding and loosing) to strip their old natures' (soul) power over their lives and make room within themselves to receive all God has promised! Also, 1) To loose, shatter, crush, and break the power and effects and influences of all wrong agreements made over lives, geographic territories, and circumstances, 2) And to occupy and hold the territories taken for the Kingdom for God.

This ministry is also dedicated to training teachers to teach others how to prayer with effectiveness and pure motives to cause their own souls to surrender to the will of God.
