WORDS FROM

Lack of understanding strongly affects your ability to hope. Hope is like a telescope—sort of a powerful “hopescope”—that allows you to see what the future can hold. Ignorance of God’s will and God’s ways (together with your unsundered soul’s self-desires and stronghold thinking) is like a lens cover on that telescope.

Unless you make an effort to get understanding and knowledge about God from His Word, you won’t be able to “see” what you have the right to expect and hope for. The Word reveals the truth of who He is, how He loves you, and what He wants to do for you. When you have laid hold of those truths, you literally remove the cover off the lens of your “hopescope”!

Mark 4:24 tells us Jesus “said to them, Be careful what you are hearing. The measure of thought and study you give to the truth you hear will be the (same) measure of virtue and knowledge that comes back to you—and more besides will be given to you who hear” (AMP).

In the New Testament the word hope means the expectation of something good. When you have declared Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, then you have every right, a divine guarantee even, to confidently expect fulfilled hopes in God’s plans for your life. Get your Bible and start running up your “hopescope.” The Word of God and communion with Him is the only thing that will raise your telescope of hope and keep its vision clear and bright!

Other Words From LSM

BEYOND Shattered Strongholds is now in print and ready to ship! This new book is about stepping out past yourself to influence this generation. Each one of us has been planted where God wants us to bear fruit. We need to STOP uprooting and trying to transplant ourselves into other areas where we are not able to produce the specific harvests we were born to produce.

LSM has also just launched the new LSM PERSONAL LEARNING SERIES. You can purchase a direct download of these mini-courses on our website (www.libertysavard.com) through PayPal. When you register for the download on our website, be sure to click on SAVE instead of RUN.

This series is also on CDs that can be ordered on the enclosed order form or on the new order form on our website. The first four LSM Personal Learning Studies ready to go right now are: 1) Binding and Loosing Basics; 2) Forgiveness; 3) Healing; and 4) Soul Ties. These studies can be completed in 3-4 hours, or you can set your own schedule. They contain selected reading, audio teachings, special points to remember, prayers to pray, a comprehension test, and testimonials.

We also have several new LAMINATED POCKET PRAYERS which have turned out to be big favorites with so many of you. See the new order page enclosed. Plus we have three NEW CD OFFERINGS: Healing CD; Soul Ties CD; & Territorial Spirits (2) CD set.

BEYOND Shattered Strongholds EXCERPT

In Matthew’s Gospel we read that Jesus explained the following to His disciples about the parable of the seed and the sower (Matthew 13:37-38, NIV):

“The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the sons of the kingdom.”

Jesus has sown the sons and daughters of the Kingdom (you and me!) into the world to bear fruit. God sowed His Son into this world to influence all humanity and to produce fruit for the Kingdom. We have been sown into the world at this time to influence humanity in the age in which we live and to produce fruit for the Kingdom.

We go to church to learn of the Word, to be disciplined, to have godly fellowship, and to be trained for greater purposes. Unfortunately, some of us have been taught to avoid mingling with those in the world—yet the world is our mission field! Notice in Matthew 13:38 where the owner’s servants asked the owner if they should pull up the tares (weeds) that an enemy had sown into his field overnight. The owner said to leave them alone and let the harvesters deal with them at the time of the harvest.

The field of this owner represents the world, and the tares represent unbelievers. We are not to judge the tares and put them away from us. The harvesters (angels) at the end of the age will deal with those who are still unbelievers when Christ returns. Until He does, we are to influence potential wheat and tares alike while always hoping that some of the tares might come over to God’s side!

Never forget that it is the world where you are called to influence others and bear fruit. Don’t be one of those who will never bear fruit because they stay right in the pews of their churches. Your soil is the world. You will never bear fruit in your easy chair in a darkened room in front of a television set or a computer screen. You will only bear mushrooms there. The Bible never said, “Go forth and bear fungi!” Bear fruit out in the world, my brothers and sisters, bear fruit out in the world.

You have already been sown into the soil of the world. But you may have managed to get into a place where the light is not shining brightly enough and the water of the Word has not yet soaked into you. You are not germinating. Pray this prayer to move back into the light’s shining and the water’s soaking . . .

!!!!!!BIG RESEARCH CONTEST FOR TEENS!!!!!!

This is certainly a new area of endeavor for me . . . I often laughingly say that I didn’t even understand teenagers when I was one! But the time is right, and I am now doing research on a new book for teenagers combined with the Unsundered Soul/Binding and Loosing message. I am also working to finish up two or three children’s books that have been in my heart for some time. These will all be released next year and I ask for our prayers.

PARENTS, GRANDPARENTS, AUNTS and UNCLES, PASTORS, and/or TEACHERS: Help me reach young writers for the best possible youth research and cartoons. This contest is sponsored by Bridge Logos Publishing of Gainesville FL—with $3,000.00 in cash prizes, plus recognition of the winners in the book! No fee to enter.

There is a YELLOW FLYER in this newsletter regarding this TEEN writing/cartoon contest. WILL YOU PLEASE take this flyer to the pastor or youth pastor of your church, or give it to any talented young people you know who would want to win prize money for research, story writing, and cartooning?

New Testimonies

I have been praying the training wheel prayers over myself and my family for about 5 weeks now and I have seen huge changes. My oldest son has told me that his dad is more peaceful than he has ever seen him. My younger teenage son is ADD, but he has made a huge improvement at school. Praying these prayers has changed his focus completely and he is getting higher grades, which is a miracle! Thank you, KK

Thank you so much because your ministry's message gave me hope and courage when I was really hopeless and despairing. Thank you especially for telling me not to halt between two opinions. I am now believing for God to open the door for a job and a home. F.

I have used Shattering Your Strongholds in several teachings at different churches. I want you to know that it has been one of the best lessons that I have ever taught.

Questions and Answers

Q: I've recently read your book SYS and am studying BTP. I started a small group because I really feel your books have given me greater insight to why I have never been able to find real freedom in my life. I am having a problem with a particular woman in the group that I have been friends with for several years. She criticizes me in every meeting. What should I do?

A: First pray the binding and loosing prayers for this woman. Then when she brings up a criticism, remind her that you are attempting to teach everyone how to experience life change. Ask her if her criticism adds to that goal and how? If she cannot tell you anything valid, ask her to try to confine her remarks to the teaching of life change. One pastor I know always tells people that they can only ask questions about the subject being taught during a group teaching. If the person cannot put his or her remarks into a question about the subject being taught, then they are asked to not disrupt the meeting.

Q: In February, 2005, my mother had a stroke and then again in May. My sister and I are saved and believe in healing. We kept believing that God would heal our mother and kept on praying and believing no matter what the doctors said. We even played healing CD's for our Mom when we were there. Our Mom died on July 12, 2005. I was truly expecting a miracle and that God would heal her physically on earth. It is hard for me right now to continue to believe in healing. People say that Mom got tired of fighting. I just wanted her healed so my family members would want to get saved. What happened?

A: Carrie: Your mother's will to live had much to do with God healing her. If she no longer wanted to live in the physical state she was in, He may have chosen to take her home in spite of others' prayers. Should we pray for people to be healed? Yes. Should we pray for God's will to be done above our personal desires? Yes. This involves trust and confidence in the goodness, wisdom, power, and love of God towards us and those we love.

You say you wanted to see her healed so your family members might want to get saved because God answers prayers. That is a good and noble reason, but not enough of a reason if God's will was something else. Perhaps your mother was praying to go home, regardless of what she led you to believe. Whose might take precedence in God's plans if He could not answer both your mother's prayers and yours?

I believe in healing, but God chose to take both of my parents home within six months of each other. My mother died in November 2003, and I still want to pick up the phone sometimes and call her. Then I remind myself that she and my father are home safe with the Lord and someday I'll see them again. Both of them accepted Jesus within the last couple of years of their lives. Keep binding yourself to God's will while loosing grief, painful thoughts, and emotional reactions from your soul. Keep thanking Him for taking care of things as He sees best.

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES?

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President of Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc. (a non-profit corporation), was born again in 1972. She is an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915). Rev. Savard has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor, and Bible teacher. She is the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge Logos Pub.), Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge Logos Pub.), Producing the Promise (1999 Bridge Logos Pub.), and several mini-books and workbooks. With The Unsundered Soul (2002 Bridge Logos Pub.), Apples of Gold In Baskets Of Silver (2003 Bridge Logos Pub.), and BEYOND Shattered Strongholds (2005 Bridge Logos Pub.), Liberty now has 14 books in print around the world.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry teaches Christians how to make their unsundered souls (old natures) surrender to the will and purposes of God. LSM also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them. This allows them to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! This ministry also teaches God's people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19).

This ministry is also dedicated to training Christians how to pray purely without "want lists" and instruction manuals for God so He will know how best to answer the prayers. Effective prayers with pure motives declare that God's will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
