A WORD FROM LIBERTY

Most of us had some anxiety about the coming New Millennium bearing down on us at midnight of December 31, 1999. No one except God had any idea what would happen and Millennium theories and rumors ran rampant. Basically nothing did happen. Today three years has passed since that times and newspapers, television, radio, and magazines are all trumpeting stress and anxiety over the possibility of war.

I do not take the threats over Israel or the possibility of war with Iraq or other countries lightly. But I have learned that stress and worry never accomplish anything positive. They do, however, tear down our immune systems, darken our outlooks, and cause us to think and speak negative thoughts.

Rather than stressing and worrying, we should be devoting a major part of our prayer lives to praying for our President, praying for Israel, and praying for the leaders of the other countries. We must also pray to break the effects and influences of generations of wrong agreements in all of the nations of the world. These wrong agreements breed the feeding grounds for demonic involvement.

This is a time for aggressively focused prayers that will break these wrong agreements. Praying for good things to happen while neglecting to pray to break the cycle of the evil that is happening is not spiritually productive. This is like trying to install new tile flooring in a flooding bathroom where the toilet is overflowing without ever turning off the water and cleaning up the mess!

When America was attacked by the terrorists in September 2001, Americans came together to rescue, to work, to pray, to give, to comfort, and to try to find healing and hope from God and from each other. Those Americans who came together in compassion and concern included non-believers, people from alternative lifestyles, atheists, and people from other religions that are in direct opposition to Jesus Christ, and many Christians. It was hard to tell these different groups of people apart in the outpouring of help and heroism of the days after September 11th.

Christians sometimes think that they are the only truly caring people who want to help others. This is not true. When Americans were corporately shocked into the reality of the dangerous times we are living in today, there were many who cared and who helped, even to the loss of their own lives. Of everyone who gave of their energy, compassion, love, and finances during those devastating days, their giving and help was absolutely vital at the time. However, the most heroic and sacrificial help offered did nothing to stop a future outpouring of evil upon our land!

Please do not misunderstand the previous sentence you just read. Many did all they knew how to do, but all of their help combined did not reach into the future to stop another terrorist attack from occurring again!

This is the area where Christians must go beyond the practical assistance of the giving, loving, and helping that so many of God's people offered side-by-side with non-believers during the trying times following September 11, 2001. Christians must now be praying to break any cycles of future outpourings of evil in the world. Where are the people today who will pray with passion and weeping over their country, asking God to forgive both their own sins and the sins of their own country men as Daniel and Nehemiah did? Where are the people who will pray for the other countries of the world? American Christians may not be willing to pay the price of intense prayer and intercession for their land to be healed (2 Chronicles 7:14).

I want to urge you to consider purchasing the book that I wrote right after September 11, 2001, Fear Not America. While the book was written with particular emphasis on what America was going through in the last part of 2001, it was also aimed at changing the face of the world through prayer to break the ongoing cycles of wrong agreements that Satan's demonic forces feed off of in America as well as overseas. Here is an excerpt:

Christians pray, Buddhists pray, Muslims, pray, New Agers pray, and satanists pray. There is nothing holy in the act of just being a praying person. The results of being a praying person are based upon who the prayers are prayed to and if they are right prayers. God only involves himself in right prayers prayed by His people. I honestly believe there is only one basic "right prayer," which was the prayer of Jesus that said, "Not my will, but your will be done, Father."

When people are not in absolute unity with the one true God, they often come into wrong agreements with other people. Territorial spirits, principalities, and powers in high places find their access into or over geographic areas through the power released to them from the wrong agreements of the souls in the area. America, a country birthed out of many bold believers' desires to have freedom to worship God, has been filled with massive negative wrong agreements against God for decades.

Many peoples' groups have come into intensely wrong agreements in their souls. Hurt and hate has been passed from generation to generation, creating new wrong agreements. Only when the effects and influences of these wrong agreements are loosed and destroyed will people truly see their need for God's will to be done.

The Word of God gives us our battle plan in 2 Chronicles 7:14: "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land" (NKJV). Only when this battle plan is followed in complete obedience and surrender will all people agree upon one prayer, one plea, one common cry, one unified hope: "Not my will, not my religious denomination's will, not my race's will, not my gender's will, not my culture's will, but THY WILL BE DONE, O LORD." There is not really any other direction we can ever move towards in true unity. We have an omniscient, omnipresent, omnipotent God who wants us to work in unity with Him in the healing of America. I believe He is saying something like this to each one of us. Those who have ear, hear:

"Fear not, America, for I am with you. I know exactly where every player is on the face of this earth at every moment. If you will cooperate with me, you will become a part of one of my Christians' finest hours. You were born for such a time as this. The fields are ripe and ready for harvest, and many workers are needed to help them come into my Kingdom. Look to me, seek my face and my will, do what I say, and you will know victory at every turn. Do you trust me? Then get ready. If you do not fully trust me yet, then go back to my promises in my Word and read them over and over until you are ready. I'll be waiting for you."

Here is a simple version of what we can all pray:
"Lord, I bind the souls of every person in America—from the smallest and weakest on up to the President of our country and his advisors—to your will and to the mind of Christ. I loose all preconceived ideas that all of these people have about you and other people, and I loose, smash crush, and destroy all of the effects and influences of wrong agreements that they have learned to accept and have perpetuated. Your will is what I want, your will is what we need. Your will is what must be sought and cried out for. I will continue to do so."

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO GAVE IN 2002S

Last January, we put out a plea for help with both our finances and the finances of many other struggling ministries at the end of 2001. January and February are always difficult months for ministries. We wish to thank you for your response. Many helped with wonderful one-time gifts, and we received several new Partners for LSM as well. Second Corinthians 9:8 tells us that our God is able to make all grace abound unto us that we would have, under all circumstances and whatever the need, all that we need to abound unto every good work. We are believing this Scripture for 2003. We so appreciate all of you who have invested in our ministry so that we can continue to offer the following areas of help to others:

- Phone Prayer Lines
- Interactive Web Site Prayer Request
- Daily War Room Intercession on all Prayer Requests – Mail, Phone, Internet
- Questions and Answer Ministry Online
- Keys of the Kingdom Training Scholarships
- Missions Giving and Book Donations
- Prison Outreach Ministry – Male and Female
- (2003) Writing an Inmate Pre-Release Program of practical life skills combined with SYS principles.
- Book, Tape, and Video Donations to Incarcerated Inmates
- LSM Off-site Schools
- Missionary Giving and Book Donations
- LSM Training Center Workshops
- Women's Retreats

We believe that every person who has invested in these works and the many other areas that arise will share in the blessings that come from the many who write and call us saying that this ministry's message has changed their lives.

We are hearing from other countries such as Ireland, Wales, The Netherlands, the Mid East, and Africa with testimonies of life change occurring from learning and using this message. Some testimonies come from our books being read in Europe, the Mid East, and Africa. Some are the result of the Breaking the Power Video Seminar that we authorized God Digital to send out of their Newcastle England studio by satellite over most of Europe, the Mid East, Africa, and other areas. We have also heard that Trinity Broadcasting in Winnipeg Manitoba is rerunning LSM interviews as well. God is putting His message of the Good News and the Keys of the Kingdom out around the world!

TWO NEW BOOKS FINISHED IN 2002

The Unsundered Soul* (July 2002) and Apples of Gold in Baskets of Silver (public release January 2003)

The Unsundered Soul ($15) was released July 15th of 2002 at CBA in Anaheim CA. This 300-plus page book contains an in-depth understanding of the colored Unsundered Soul Chart which is reproduced inside the front and back covers. This book also contains two chapters on how to work with Christians who talk about committing suicide (NOTE: It is NOT true that those who talk about committing suicide usually don't do it!), a chapter on leadership, a chapter on obedience and surrender, and two appendixes in the back for teaching this message to both adults and children. The children's appendix came from teachings of Carla Clark (LSM Certified Eagle Teacher II) of Atlanta GA. Carla and I are still hoping to complete a book on teaching these Kingdom keys of surrender to kids in 2003.

Below is an excerpt from The Unsundered Soul:

While I do not fully agree with the doctrinal belief of "once saved, always saved," I do think it is much harder for a born-again believers to jump out of the hand of God than any of us have thought. I hear from so many struggling Christians who contact me through my website's Question and Answer pages to ask if they have lost their salvation. Sadly, it is clear that there is limited confidence in the power of God's ability to hold onto one little wounded, confused, rascally human soul trying to outrun its own born-again human spirit. Remember, this is the same God who has the power to create suns, stars, planets, volcanoes, and hurricanes!

So much of this confusion about God's power to hold onto those who believe in His Son, Jesus Christ, comes about because of believers' lack of understanding about God. He is not on stakeout in heaven, training binoculars on us to see who is going to fail next. So many of us have learned too well how to beat up on ourselves with self-condemnation over our mistake. We have to stop that!

I heard one pastor say, "If my toddler comes running up to me with a full diaper. I don't get upset and legalistic about it. I scoop him up in my arms, lay him on the bed, clean him up and powder him sweet, give him a kiss, and then set him down to run off to play. I don't get all uptight because he hasn't learned how to use a potty chair yet. He will, but until he does, he's still my kid and I love him no matter what condition he's in."

Then he said, "Why can't we realize that we are God's kids and He doesn't turn away from us when we make a mess. He just picks us up, cleans us up and powders us sweet, gives us a kiss, and sets us back down to get on with life."

Apples of Gold in Baskets of Silver's title is taken from the Living Bible Version of Proverbs 25:11, "Timely advice is as lovely as gold apples in a silver basket" (TLB). The New King James Version of Proverbs 25:11 speaks of a word fitly spoken as being like golden apples in settings of silver. This book (originally destined to be a devotional) has evolved in a collection of 100 daily teachings to nourish your soul. This collection of teachings has inspired me greatly at this time in my life as I researched and wrote the teachings. I forced myself to honestly consider if I was doing everything that I was challenging the reader to do on every page. This definitely involved some "knee-mail" to God to make adjustments in my own life where necessary. Whenever I opened the manuscript to work on it, I found myself being uplifted and encouraged to know who I was and how to come who I am supposed to be.

This first Apples of Gold In Baskets of Silver collection is called a Season of Building. There are at least three more collections planned – A Season of Overcoming The Past, A Season of Embracing Your Destiny, and Unending Seasons of Victory. Here are the ten Baskets of Silver in the first Season of Building and a title of one of the ten Golden Apples each Basket contains as well as one Apple excerpt:

- Silver Basket One – Praise Him (Golden Apple Ten: Tell Others To Praise Him For Who He Is)
- Silver Basket Two – Know Him By His Word (Golden Apple Seven: Practicing His Word)
- Silver Basket Three – Praying Right Prayers (Golden Apple Two: Prayer Changes The One Who Prays)

- Silver Basket Four – Spirit Or Soul? (Golden Apple Four: Stop The Struggle)
- Silver Basket Five – Giving Thanks In Trials (Golden Apple Three: Are You A Carrot, An Egg, Or A Coffee Bean?)
- Silver Basket Six – Receiving And Giving Blessings (Golden Apple One: What Does It Mean To Bless Someone?)
- Silver Basket Seven – Convinced But Not Changed (Golden Apple One: Do Words Or Actions Speak Louder?)
- Silver Basket Eight – Fruit Of The Spirit (Golden Apple Eight: The Fruit of Faithfulness)
- Silver Basket Nine – Choices and Consequences (Golden Apple Nine: Are You Going Through Punishment, Consequences, Or Discipline?)
- Silver Basket Ten – Preparing For Transition (Golden Apple Two: Coming Out Of The Desert Experience)

Basket Three: Golden Apple Two
Prayer Changes The One Who Prays

“My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,” he said to them. ‘Stay here and keep watch.’ Going a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from him. ‘Abba, Father,’ he said, ‘everything is possible for you. Take this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will’ . . . Once more he went away and prayed the same thing . . . Returning the third time, he said to them, ‘Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! . . . Let us go’”
(Mark 14:33-42, NIV).

Jesus prayed His way through anguish and tears to a changed heart. He was completely human when He was facing His impending death, and His soul did not want to have to experience the cross. Knowing the will of the Father, however, He struggled in prayer to surrender His thoughts and feelings. Three times He went away from His friends to pray, asking God if there was any other way.

I do not think the Son of God ever considered not obeying His Father, but I do believe He struggled in prayer to change His heart (soul) to be in agreement with God’s will for Him. Jesus did not sin by asking the Father to take away the cross if there was any other way. He reconfirmed His obedience to God’s will each time He did. Finally, He broke through in prayer, accepted the coming cross and arose to go and meet the end of His life.

We often pray prayers asking for other people to change. The main reason to pray is to agree that God’s will in heaven needs to be done on earth. The next most important thing our prayers are meant to accomplish is that they will change our attitudes and our motives so that we will want God’s will to be done through us.

Lord, I want your will done on earth. I also want your will done in me. I want to be changed. I want to pray without bias or personal desires. I want to pray with pure love. Amen.

Tasting The Truth

1. What did you learn from this Golden Apple? Can you use it to make a positive change in your life?
2. What did Jesus do to change His heart?
3. Why do you think He had such a struggle?
4. Was it wrong for Him to ask if there was another way? Explain your answer.
5. We should pray for whom to change? Why?

I want to be changed and renewed in my prayer life. I want to pray pure prayers that are in agreement with your will and plans, Father. I want to be the one who will always agree with your will needing to be done. Lord, help me to realize that it is I who must change—not everyone else. I will pray until I break through to a new attitude and desire, just as Jesus did. Thank you, Jesus, that you kept the Father’s will ever in focus even though I know you must have been struggling with incredibly hard human feelings. Because of your obedience, I am now part of the family of God. Amen. (Note: The questions above have fill-in blanks on the Tasting the Truth page, worksheet style.)

BEGINNING 2003 WITH TESTIMONIES!

Both of us are almost 70 years old and most of our church involvement is by providing prayer backup. We love the new understanding in your books that you have given us regarding “The Keys”. We instantly felt our hearts responding to God bless you! Mr. and Mrs. S., Australia

I have seen major transformation in my life (and in my family and others around me) as I have daily begun to pray the truths from your first three books. I have experienced release in areas that have troubled me for 30 years or more. I now see so much clearer and quicker where the enemy has had a field day and maintained a state of confusion in my mind. Randal J.

I’ve been in ministry 8 years, and your book SYS has affected my life and my entire Bible study class at my church. This is such a powerful word of knowledge that more ministries need to teach. Carol J.

Hello from Alberta Canada. When we visited my parents in Arizona, my Mom handed me a copy of Breaking the Power. Wow! Since coming home I’ve bought at least a dozen copies to give away. I’m now reading Producing the Promise. I would love to translate these teachings into Hausa for a mission trip to Africa. Ken A.

Amazing things started happening from the beginning of reading your books. Within one week of praying the binding/loosing prayers for my husband, he said he was "done being angry with" our son. He hadn't spoken to him in 3 years. We need people like you who are willing to think in new ways. Susan

I am a student at The King's College and Seminary at Church On The Way in Van Nuys, California. I just finished reading Shattering Your Strongholds. Great book! I really enjoyed it. The book spoke life to me! It opened my eyes to see the goodness of God without the strongholds of the enemy in my life! Gerard M.

Just to let Liberty know that I am indeed thankful for her life-changing books. I have the latest one, The Unsundered Soul, and I hope to use much of this information for our outreach to the youth in South Africa where AIDS is rampant. Thank you, thank you. You have touched and changed my life forever. Mary-Anne Stone

There is not enough time to begin to share all that have happened since I began reading Shattering Your Strongholds and Breaking the Power. As my family began to practice these principles in our lives, we are seeing God change us as we tear down the strongholds that have held us in bondage. The timing of this truth in my life for today is so what I needed. Robert

When I first started to pray these prayers, I didn't feel very much. But after a couple of days, I started to feel softer than before. After a few more days, I started to feel more special and then it was kind of like one on one time with Him. Then I started to feel all kinds of things such as being braver and more confident to do things I know He wanted me to do. Thank you, Jenny, teen from Canada

This year I have experienced major improvements in my health and the dust continues to rise as the walls come tumbling down in my soul!!! As the results of the message continue to snowball in my life, I am soaring in new territory (for me). Thank you, dear teacher. Love, Inez M.

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES INC.

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc., was born again in 1972. She is an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915). Rev. Savard has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (Gainesville FL) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Publishing), Breaking the Power ((1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Producing the Promise (1999 Bridge-Logos Pub.), and several mini-books and workbooks. With The Unsundered Soul (2002 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Apples of Gold In Baskets Of Silver (2003 Bridge-Logos Pub.), there are now 13 Liberty Savard books in print.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to cause their unsundered souls to surrender to the will and purposes of God, and to make room within their souls to receive all God has promised to them that they could live lives that will bring glory and honor to God the Father! Also, to break the power and effects and influences of all wrong agreements made over lives, geographic territories and circumstances, and to occupy the territories taken for the Kingdom of God.

This ministry is also dedicated to training teachers to teach others how to pray with effectiveness and pure motives to declare that God's will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
