Word from Liberty - 2009 is the Year of Intensification!

As you read the following words I have written, remember this word: INTENSIFICATION.

Intensification means to become more intense, to increase in magnitude, to become stronger, to amplify, and to become more acute.

As I have pondered and prayed about the troubled final few months of 2008, I remember that last year I felt 2008 was the year of change. Change has certainly occurred, but not the kind we were probably all hoping for! An even bigger question, did you change in 2008?

There are many disturbing things in the natural realm of life right now, and I am very glad that I am not called to write about economic, political, cultural, and military upheaval around the world. I am glad that I know that I am called to write about our paths as Christians regardless of any of the circumstances surrounding us whether they are on a personal, local, national, or world level.

Our understanding of how to walk through these difficult times is not going to be based upon or impacted by any input from our five senses, from doing good deeds, from learning proper doctrines, from hard work, or any other such thing. Our understanding of what is going to increase in our lives and around our lives in 2009 will be based upon what we are able to hear from God. To hear clearly from God will require an increase of surrendering our wills to His will. As Christians, we have already surrendered to and accepted the promise of that which is called the zoe life.

Zoe* life: the supernatural, divinely abundant, eternal, God-infused, eternal life of an entirely different dimension than any form of our psuche life (our minds, wills, and emotions) or our bios life (our physical existence).

Zoe life is the supernatural life that the Father has within himself. The life that He desires to impart to us always has been and always will be a supernatural realm of life that is indestructible! Zoe life is a Christian's spiritual life in perfect union and communion with God's will. This is the life Jesus is speaking about when He refers to the abundant life.

Zoe life must either be entered into or received from the divine life of Christ that enters into us as we read about in Galatians 2:20 (NIV), "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. . .

"He who loves his life (psuche) will lose it, and he who hates his life (psuche) in this world will keep it for eternal life (zoe)" (John 12:25).

The Message translates John 12:25 this way:

"In the same way, anyone who holds on to life (psuche) just as it is destroys that life (psuche). But if you let it go, reckless in your love, you'll have it (zoe) forever, real and eternal."

The born-again spirit of man is in communion with the Spirit of God in order to receive and respond to what the born-again spirit hears from His Spirit. Our born-again spirits are designed to then pass that spiritual direction on to our souls which (if surrendered to the will of God) will translate it and pass it on to the body to be manifested for the world to see and respond toward.

Zoe life is sustained by God. Bios life (the body and the natural senses) is sustained by resources, materials goods, manner of living and acting, relationships, and the affairs of this life. The unsundered soul or the psuche life has a tendency to try to sustain itself.

When our souls are surrendered to God, our psuche life receives input from His zoe life and then directs the bios life and good and godly things will result. When our souls (Christian or not) are not surrendered to the will of God but are aligned instead with the body, painful and sinful and ungodly things will result.

Only through surrendering to and aligning ourselves with the will of God are we ever going to function in a unified and smooth manner in all three forms of our human lives. As spoken of in Breaking the Power II, when the individual parts of an entity are in alignment and functioning together smoothly, the results of their unified functions always exceeds (sometimes hugely!) a combined total of what each one could achieve individually.

You really need to also grasp the fact that the effects and influences of wrong agreements and soul tie dangers are going to intensify and become stronger as well. Whenever there are soul ties that are not being addressed and broken in a person's psuche life, these ties will strengthen. Soul ties come from wrong agreements made between two people who are expecting a mutual benefit to be manifested. One soul is always stronger than the other soul, even if it is by a degree or two. As that strength intensifies, the ability to influence and control the other person will intensify as well.

In 2009, that which is good is going to get better. That which is not good is going to get worse.

As long as we are here on earth, we will need to deal with all three parts of our being which make up who we are and how we act. I have been sensing for several weeks that 2009 will be a time of intensification of either psuche or zoe life.

Remember these words as you continue to read: God is more interested in preparing us to touch lives, bear fruit, and live with Him in eternity than He is in making our current circumstances more comfortable.

We struggle with the pressure and frustration that we feel in today's difficult times, often believing these pressures are caused by Satan. While he may try to intensify our pressures and difficulties as he sees how we are responding to them, God allows pressures and difficulties to continue in our lives to show us what our current spiritual address is. He wants to show us exactly where we are living right now. The more of the psuche life that is surrendered to God, the more of Christ's supernatural zoe life can be lived through our lives. When less of the psuche life is surrendered to God, the more Satan is able to mess with each one of us.

So many people keep prophesying of the riches that are coming to the body of Christ. I'm not judging whether they are right or wrong, but I do know this: Christ and the disciples lived and then left this world without a nickel to their names! Can you imagine packing for any of them for one of their journeys? If they were here today to fly on one of our 747s, their carry-on luggage would be minimal, and I imagine they wouldn't even have any checked baggage (they wouldn't have any baggage in their souls, their psuche lives, either).

Not one of these anointed men of God required riches of this world to promote the Gospel. Jesus was an excellent investment counselor, though, for He invested himself in the lives of twelve men who then invested themselves in the lives of hundreds of other men and women. Their investments in relationships with everyone their lives touched ultimately revolutionized the whole world.

But times are different today, aren't they? Yes, but is Jesus Christ different today? Is God different today? Is the Gospel different today? NO! Not recognizing and acting upon this truth is why so many ministries and churches keep getting into debt and into difficulties today.

Proverbs 16:6-7 (Amplified): “By mercy and love, truth and fidelity [to God and man—not by sacrificial offerings], iniquity is purged out of the heart, and by the reverent, worshipful fear of the Lord men depart from and avoid evil. When a man's ways please the Lord, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.”

Proverbs 16:3 (Amplified), “Roll your works upon the Lord [commit and trust them wholly to Him; He will cause your thoughts to become agreeable to His will, and] so shall your plans be established and succeed.”

Proverbs 16:33 (Amplified), “The lot is cast into the lap, but the decision is wholly of the Lord [even the events that seem accidental are really ordered by Him].”

What are these verses telling you about your plans for 2009? Remember that the upcoming year will cause an intensification of whichever life you are living in, zoe or psuche.

If you find yourself reacting to others who have truly meant you no harm or if you find yourself uneasy around those who seem to be in a deeper relationship with God than you, then thank God for the “heads up.” What is a “heads up”? That is when God is letting you know that your unsundered soul (psuche life) has too much control in your thoughts and in your emotions.

Negative reactions and moods let you know that your soul is blocking your receiving of more and more zoe supernatural life from Christ, the supernatural, abundant life that He wants to give to you right here on earth right now! One more time: RIGHT HERE ON EARTH RIGHT NOW!

Don't allow your unsundered soul to continue to keep you from peace and prosperity and perfection in Him as you walk out these end time days. Deal with your soul with the Keys of the Kingdom binding and loosing prayers. If 2009 is going to bring an intensification of whichever quality of life you are currently living in, can you see how much more difficult it will be to move out of the psuche life and into the ZOE LIFE with Christ three months from now, or perhaps six months from now?

At the very beginning of 2008, I asked you to do the following:

Please ask yourself this question: "Do I still want to be right where I am now when 2009 rolls into my life? Or, do I want to be more healed, more blessed, more excited, and closer to God than I was this past year?" If you answered NO and YES in the right order, you need to change some things. Having the best means changing the grip you have on things that are not His best for you.

You need to change the way you react to other people and to circumstances. You need to change the way you make decisions. You need to block your soul from recycling its old negative thought patterns. You need to change how you have felt and still feel about the promises of God that you have not seen answers to yet!

You are only going to do this by stripping the sources of those wrong reactions, wrong choices and decisions, wrong thought patterns, and stronghold thinking out of your soul. No matter how firmly you set your will to do it another way, as long as these negative sources remain in your soul, you will constantly be pressured to give in to them.

Stripping these negative sources from your soul will make the room that is necessary to receive what you have always wanted from God. Then, as you begin to walk in His best, you can know that 2009 is the year that you have set to see zoe life intensify and grow into being your entire dimension of living! Begin by praying this:

Lord, I want a different year with you this year. 2008 was more than I expected, and it was and still is difficult. I don't want to be living the wrong kind of life when everything starts intensifying in 2009. I am choosing the zoe life with you from now on and forever.

I bind my will to your will, Lord. I bind my mind to the mind of Christ and my raggedy and tattered emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. I loose, smash, crush, and destroy wrong reactions, wrong decision-making thought patterns, and stronghold thinking in my soul. I loose the effects and influences of wrong agreements that have been made about me and that I have spoken myself.

I loose all fears and doubts that my soul has tried to run on me about the state of the economy, about the politicians and government leaders of my nation, and about the fighting and killing all over the world.

I know that you are in control. You are aware of everything and you are on top of every phase of all of it. Since I have no way to know what is even happening next door to my condo, I want to be bound to your will and purposes for my life and for all the lives that I am going to influence in 2009. I am choosing to align my life and everything that is important to me with your will. You are faithful and loyal and good. I trust you and choose to go forward with you.

Thank you, Father, thank you. In Jesus' name, Amen

Level I LSM Teachers' Training Certification School Sacramento CA - March 3-7, 2009

Due to health issues, I was unable to have a Level I Teachers Training School in 2007 or 2008. That has been a real disappointment to me. These schools are always exciting and refreshing for me, and the students all seem to benefit greatly from the community learning setting with the other students as well. There are so many exciting new things that I want to share in this upcoming school.

This is also a School for Believers who do not wish to be certified as a teacher, but who want to have a deeper understanding of the message!

Existing LSM Certified Teachers (Levels I and II) are urged to join us for continuing education credits using the benefit of our Certified Teachers Discount. All potential students should contact LSM by phone (916-721-7770) or by e-mail for a packet of school information. Or, simply click here to go online at www.libertysavard.com and register right now.

Warrior Lambs and Lions Working Together

The church world has tried to bring healing and freedom to believers through spiritual counseling, biblical programs, and worldly resources. Yet Jesus never wanted those who trusted in Him to be dependent upon anything other than the Word and His loving plans for their lives on earth and in eternity. He never wanted Christians to rely upon counseling techniques, programs, groups, etc., although these resources have helped hold wounded lambs steady until they received spiritual breakthroughs.

In Matthew 16:19, Jesus was actually giving the Keys of the Kingdom to all the lambs and the lions in His Church. Jesus would never confine such powerful, supernatural Keys to just the use of Peter or the Apostles in the early days of His New Testament Church.

- The Church is God's redemptive institution here on earth today.
- It was to the Church that Jesus gave the Great Commission.
- It is through the Church that Jesus brings the message of salvation to the world today.
- It is for the Church that Jesus one day will return.

The Keys of the Kingdom are for the body of Christ in the Church and the Lord's Prayer is for the body of Christ in the Church. In that prayer, Jesus said this about God's will: Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. God's will in heaven is to become His will on earth. Jesus gave us the Keys of the Kingdom so that we could fulfill this work.

Whatsoever you and I bind and loose here on earth in agreement with God's already established will in heaven will bring a manifestation of His will on earth. He wants every one of His believers to be involved in making this come to pass—from the bravest lion to the most timid lamb. We're all part of His family and His plans!

The binding Key will stabilize and steady the shakiest lamb in the body of Christ. The loosing Key will dismantle the control tactics, wrong influences, and stronghold thinking in every lamb's unsundered soul that has locked its fears and doubts in place. Human stronghold thinking (logic, reasoning, arguments, rationalizations, justifications, deception, defensiveness, and denial) has kept fear and doubt locked in and God's grace and mercy locked out of too many Christians.

In this, the Church Age, it is time to turn the lambs and the lions loose. Have you ever heard a lamb roar? In these last days, you will.

Not knowing how to get past their unsundered souls' walls and deception, some have surrendered their freedom to powerful people, cults, or groups who have said they would protect and fix them. Getting away from these entities as well as breaking through their own unsundered souls' tricks can be so overwhelming that some just give up. Without strong, prepared believers to help them see that Jesus left Keys for them to get free, many will never be rescued!

Even after becoming believers, we can remain under the domination of our souls if we do not know how to force them to surrender to God's will. This captive mental and emotional state makes us vulnerable to powerful carnal people, cults, wrong spiritual leadership, and deceptions of the enemy. God has provided His written Word and His Living Word to give you every tool, Key, and all the supernatural support that you need to get free. But there is one thing too many Christians do not seem to know: He will not override your soul's defense systems. He will not violate your soul's fierce resistance to His influence.

Jesus has said that He stands at the door and knocks; He is waiting for us to invite Him into the center of our being. To be completely free and filled with joy and His power, we must voluntarily open up a way for Him to get into our deepest hurts and needs to fix us. Your Heavenly Father has beautiful plans for a beautiful future for you. Don't settle for anything less no matter what your silly soul tries to tell you! Taken From Chapter 4 of Breaking the Power II

How the Church Views Wrong Behaviors

Teaching Christians how to conduct themselves in a godly manner is a worthwhile, spiritually correct endeavor. If this endeavor is not balanced with spiritual understanding, grace, and life, however, legalism and judgment can creep into the teachings. Christians who have never been taught to understand the true sources of their unacceptable behaviors and the power of their unmet needs can fail miserably in overcoming them.

Discouraged, these believers finally just try to hide what they can't conquer.

This is especially true if they have attained a reputation of being a good Christian and fear being exposed as a hypocrite. They begin living a double life, having a double mind, while being doubly miserable.

We must teach all Christians to make room within their souls to receive grace, truth, and life, Christ in you, the [only] hope of glory (Colossians 1:27, KJV). His life in us truly is our only hope of permanently changing the reaping cycle of bad fruit consequences resulting from wrong behaviors we can't seem to escape. Most Christians can modify some of their wrong behaviors, disguise them, and even temporarily bury some of them, but this is only a frontline defense measure.

Unmet needs deep in your soul that are continually pushing for resolution can eventually erupt when you least expect. Then you begin to turn to wrong behaviors to numb and pacify the pressure of your unmet needs. Answers and resolutions may seem to come as the wrong behavior distractions kick in, but these answers are only temporary. Deep unmet needs that have never been met by God only keep intensifying; they never die.

The answer is not to just work harder to get your needs and your problems under control. The answer is to create access into the internal sources of your neediness and problems so they can be fixed by the grace of God. This access can be created through the loosing of your soul's self-defense mechanisms and self-protection controls.

Many Christians try to crucify their flesh by changing their external behaviors—and such self-denial is not always a bad thing. Self-denial can be a noble attempt to obey God, but it is not a permanent solution to wrong behaviors and temptation. It is an effort of the will that can ultimately wear you out. Most new Christians make a fairly serious attempt to stop drinking, smoking, cursing, gambling, doing drugs, and fornicating through sheer willpower. This works only as long as the soul sees a potential gain from the energy the will is expending.

When a change in a Christian's behavior comes from his or her soul's decision that there is a benefit to a different behavior manifestation (i.e. social acceptance, church standing, image enhancement, attention, etc.), their souls will work toward achieving that goal. However, any change in circumstances that brings about a termination of the perceived benefit will likely change the soul's determination to seek a more appropriate behavior as well.

The good news is that changes in circumstances do not alter godly behaviors issuing from the surrendered soul that has learned to receive God's healing grace and mercy.

Outward Behaviors Have Inward Sources

No one, devil or human, can get a Christian to do any wrong thing he doesn't already have an inward source pushing him toward or an area of vulnerability that he has never allowed God to heal. The devil will, however, do everything he can to push us into self-efforts to hide our inner vulnerabilities, control our weaknesses, meet our own needs, and quiet our own pain. He will manipulate others who have the same vulnerabilities and neediness to tempt us, and he will manipulate self-righteous Christians to damn us.

If no light of understanding and hope is held aloft to guide them, very needy people can and will lead other needy people into dangerous territory. Those who are already in wrong lifestyles often introduce new participants into the same destructive lifestyles—adultery, drug use, homosexuality, stealing, etc. This is because one thing that can temporarily lighten the load of their shame is to have someone else under the same load with them.

Jesus Christ within us cleanses us, gives us new natures, and solid-gold second chances to be everything we were created to be, no matter how low we fall.

Our part is to take the Keys He has provided and strip the power sources of our old natures that riddle us with guilt and doubt in our trust of Him regardless of where He finds us. Guilt, doubt, and conflicts in our faith are all smoke and mirrors designed to cloud our understanding that His promises are for every one of us. Any Christian who learns to pray with these Keys can receive divine empowerment to walk out of this maze and into total freedom and victory.

Our wrong behaviors generally began as we learned (from others or by trial and error) that certain behaviors helped us cope with our unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved issues. Some people enter into homosexual lifestyles because of sexual abuse in their younger years that no one helped them process in a positive manner. Homosexual lifestyles are often birthed out of misguided self-attempts to meet intense neediness. Satan is very good at seeing that someone in the homosexual lifestyle is present at just the right time to reach out and comfort an abused and confused person whose unmet needs are overwhelming them.

When we repeatedly give the devil room, footholds, and opportunities in our lives (Ephesians 4:27, AMP) by rationalizing and justifying our wrong choices and wrong behaviors, we find our misery and desperation intensified. Sinful coping behaviors end up being driven by two sources:

- 1) Our unmet needs, unresolved issues, and unhealed hurts that are demanding relief and/or gratification
- 2) Torment and pressure from unclean spirits

You can use the Keys of the Kingdom to dismantle your soul's stronghold thinking and its self-defense mechanisms that prevent the work of the Holy Spirit. You can reject and close out harassment from unclean spirits with the Keys of the Kingdom. Asking the Holy Spirit to help you after you have dismantled your soul's opposition to His work is your part. That is all you have to do. The Holy Spirit does the rest. Breaking the Power II has finally made its way onto this electronic download website! Rewriting and revising one of my existing books is always an interesting challenge for me. This message continues to grow and expand all the time and what I wrote one year ago can have quite a bit of additional understanding to add today (with more to be added six months from now as well, I'm sure). I find myself getting into a cycle of going through the book (that I'm revising) over and over and over. Finally Linda and Marian and Karen and others have been saying, "Liberty, let it go! You cannot spend the rest of your life rewriting BTP. Let it go!" So, I have sent it off to my eBook techie, Karen. There is a sample of this new book on the site (as well as the excerpts in this newsletter), so go and visit.

Another reminder: There is a free trial version of Chapter 1 of Shattering that you really should check out. The Deluxe eBook versions and the Enhanced PDF Versions with Tools have search options, note-taking ability, sticky notes (PDF tool only), highlighting, text-to-speech options (PDF tool and yes, the book can actually be read aloud to you by your friendly computer "person"), and so much more!

If you have any problems with downloading these, I will help you or get my excellent backup team to help me. You can use all of these tools on your computer copy of the book, and you can print any of these downloaded books at any time complete with your notes that you have added. Such a deal!

Questions and Answers

Question: Liberty, a friend who is not a Christian gave me a very healing message which is I believe from God regarding my breakup with the one I thought I would marry. I previously told you about my deep pain over still being single at 44. This friend told me that my ex-girlfriend is suffering from "relationship ambivalence" and that her behavior is classic for people who suffer from this condition. It wasn't me; it was her issues. This is just like you told me. I am praying the prayers you suggested. I have bought some more of your books which I am waiting for now. Gerald Gerald: I've been single now for 30 years. Once I turned everything over to God and decided He would choose whatever would make me the happiest and most fulfilled, I have never had any awful feelings that you speak of about being single. Believe me, a bad marriage and a hard divorce is worse than any distress felt about being single.

When I got married over four decades ago, I chose someone that God had not prepared for me and had not prepared me for, either. My former husband, my poor kids, and I all paid the price for that wrong choice. As I pray these prayers now for each of my children, I am fully certain that God is working behind the scenes of their lives. That allows me to go on and keep doing what I am doing. I messed them up, I've asked forgiveness, and now I'm praying earnestly for them and staying open. The rest is up to God.

Regarding what your "friend" said about relationship ambivalence (what an ambivalent catch-all phrase that is!), this is not even close to what I told you, Gerald.

I said you were not ready to have a healthy relationship with a woman and that God wanted to heal you and make you whole before you were in any more relationships. I said that if you kept trying to find a relationship with a woman anyway because you thought that this was the only thing that could satisfy and fulfill you, you were going to keep getting hurt. Your unmet needs and unhealed hurts actually make you vulnerable to being hurt, manipulated, and controlled.

This is not a good place to be, Gerald, and I have prayed for your protection from pursuing such a course. God loves you so much and He absolutely does not want you hurt anymore. Neither do I!

I did not bring up anything about what you had said about your ex-girlfriend's emotional and mental condition, because her mental and emotional state is not something that you can do anything about. What you can change is how you are relating to and receiving from God. You can change how you will surrender to Him and let Him heal you. You can decide to leave all future relationships up His timing. You can decide to believe that He knows best and that He wants what is genuinely best for you.

Reading the Word and studying the principles of the Keys of the Kingdom in the books you already have will definitely help you get closer to surrendering to that. I'm sure your non-believer friend meant well, but be very careful about basing your understanding on a non-Christian's interpretation of a relationship situation. However wise they might seem to be, they are still speaking out of soulish/carnal understanding, not from any wisdom from the Spirit of God. Liberty

Testimonies

Liberty: I thought you might like to hear that I have made some significant progress with the binding and loosing prayers. This afternoon an ex-boyfriend turned up asking for reconciliation. Before praying the Keys of the Kingdom prayers, I would have welcomed him back with open arms.

But now I know he is not in God's will for my life and I told him, "No, no thank you."

I am not even a third of the way through the thirty days of praying the "Page 30 prayer" about soul power (in Breaking the Power) and already so much rubbish has been removed from my soul! I look forward to sending you some amazing testimonies. I continue to pray for you, your family and Gracie, of course. I would never forget Gracie. Katy (UK)

I read your book SYS few years ago just before I was in a car accident. The impact of the accident caused aches and pains in my back and chest. I prayed the Keys of the Kingdom prayers three times and all the pains disappeared. Praise God for your powerful teaching. I also previously asked your prayer for my niece who used to have selective autism. Now she does not have this infirmity anymore! She has overcome her fright and talks to her teachers and to everybody now. Thank you so much for sharing this powerful prayer message with the rest of us. God Bless you and your ministry. I love you. Liberty, and thank you. Carie from United Kingdom

Liberty: I am reading your book, Shattering Your Strongholds, and it has affected me dramatically. I have been facing some financial issues and the Lord directed me in using the Binding and Loosing Keys of the Kingdom Prayer Principles and now, my 9-month financial drought is over! In our church we are coming into an awareness of these principles and how we can use them in our lives to do the will of our Heavenly Father. Thank you so much for being obedient to the Lord. Pastor Thomas

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry teaches Christians how to cause their unsundered souls (old natures) to surrender to the will and purposes of God. LSM also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them for today. This allows believers to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! This ministry also teaches God's people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19) to impact things on earth so they come into alignment with God's already established will in heaven. This ministry is also dedicated to training Christians how to pray purely without "want lists" and instruction manuals for God (so He will know how best to answer their prayers!). Effective prayers with pure motives declare that God's will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
