DO YOU FEEL THE CHANGE? THEN GET READY TO SHINE!

Changes are occurring all around us these days, sometimes almost every day. It is a time to hope that these changes are bringing the right responses from all God’s people—including YOU AND ME.

It is always interesting to read prophetic words that speak of the changes we have begun to see and are wondering if others are seeing them, too. I am not paying much attention to the prophetic words that are saying that we are going to receive great windfalls of money and favor this year. That is not because I don’t necessarily believe them; it is because money or no money, that form of earthly provision and security is meaning less and less every day.

Favor? As believers we are already in the greatest realm of favor anyone could possibly occupy. We are sons and daughters of the most high God. He watches our every waking and sleeping moment. He is always encouraging each one of us to have a shift of focus from our worries and fears of things in the natural realm to a focus on Him and His power and His Kingdom purposes. He is always preparing opportunities for us to shine.

We cannot be fully focused on His favor if we are allowing the enemy to activate and elevate our stress and worry and anxiety in any way he can. Never forget that this always high on the enemy’s list of things he wants to mess with in our thinking.

You and I are in a time of transition that we have no direct control over; but we can mesh with the transition in a powerful way by keeping our focus on Christ and keeping our surrender and obedience focused on the guidance of our heavenly Father. But regardless of how hard we’ve been working on surrendering, unless God has already translated us to Heaven our soul still hates transition and change that is beyond it reach and control. It has no intention of giving up.

Our every thought, word spoken, and action or step taken are important right now; but that does not mean we are walking as if on a tight rope over a great chasm. We are not being left to figure out exactly what we should say and do. God is always fine tuning our journey with Him in ways we are not even aware of yet. He is always ready to guide our every thought, word, action, and step from minute to minute as we let Him.

Whether your life seems to be comfortable, in chaos, shaky, or you’re just plain stuck and cannot seem to move in any direction, know that you are being transitioned toward your destiny here on Earth. Everything you are saying and doing right now is transitioning you into potential Kingdom opportunities, framing and giving meaning to your future.

This is not going to be comfortable for many. But it should help to know that those uncomfortable feelings are coming from the reactions and distractions of your unsurrendered soul’s emotions together with the support of the enemy. You can, however, bring order, focus, and peace into your emotions through your binding and loosing prayers.

It is vital to grab hold of the written Word and fill your soul with it right now, letting it guide you. It is vital for you to clean out the toxic waste in your soul with the Keys of the Kingdom binding and loosing prayers so you can hear His spoken Word to you. It is time to disregard the negative force of today’s worldly newspapers, television broadcasts, radios, and the words of all those who don’t believe in Jesus Christ.
It is not time to run for the hills or hide in the caves; this is a call to tune out the world around you. It is a call to see the world around you from a spiritual perspective. It is a call to realize that sometimes loss is a forced lightening of your load. Sometimes tough situations are a training course for future victories. Sometimes losing a job is a freeing of your time to pursue a great adventure with God. It is time to look for God in everything that happens in your life and the lives around you when unexpected things happen.

It is time to walk through what you are hearing and seeing in the world as if you had on spiritual hip boots and nothing can stop you from moving forward. Begin anticipating a great shine of His glory just ahead. The word shine means:

1. To emit light, to reflect light; to glint or glisten.
2. Radiance and luster from reflected light.
3. Excellence in quality or appearance; splendor.

Numbers 6:22-26 (Amplified): And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, “This is the way you shall bless the children of Israel. Say to them: The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face shine upon you, and be gracious to you; the LORD lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace.”

Matthew Henry’s Bible Commentary elaborates on Numbers 6:22-26 this way:

The Lord bless thee! Our blessing of God is our speaking well of Him. His blessing of us is doing well for us.

The Lord make his face shine upon thee! This alludes to the shining of the sun upon the earth, to enlighten and comfort it, and to renew the face of it. We cannot but be happy if we have God’s love; and we cannot but be (at ease) if we know that we have it.

The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee! This…seems to allude to the smiles of a father upon his child, or of a man upon his friend in whom he takes pleasure. If God gives us the assurances of His special favor and His acceptance of us, this will put gladness into (our hearts). The fruits of this favor conveyed by this blessing are protection, pardon, and peace.

Nehemiah 9:19-21 (NIV): Because of your great compassion you did not abandon them in the desert. By day the pillar of cloud did not cease to guide them on their path, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine on the way they were to take. You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water for their thirst. For forty years you sustained them in the desert; they lacked nothing, their clothes did not wear out nor did their feet become swollen.

Adam Clarke’s Commentary elaborates on Nehemiah 9:19-21 to show that God’s divine presence assumed three different positions while accompanying the Israelite camp:

1. As a cloud in the form of a pillar, it went before them when they traveled, to point out their way in the wilderness.
2. As a pillar of fire, it continued with them during the flight, to give them light, and be a rallying point for the whole camp in the night season.
3. As an extended cloud, it hovered over them in their encampments, to refresh them with its dews and to keep them from the (heat and stress) of the sun.

Job 22:28 (Amplified): You shall also decide and decree a thing, and it shall be established for you; and the light [of God’s favor] shall shine upon your ways.

Barnes’ Notes elaborates on Job 22:28 this way:

Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee. Thou shalt form a purpose or plan, and it shall not be frustrated. It shall not be opposed by the events of divine Providence…whatever you undertake shall prosper. And the light shall shine upon thy ways. Thou shalt be prospered in all things, instead of being overtaken with calamity.

Psalm 37:5-6 (NIV): Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him and he will do this: He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.

Matthew Henry’s Bible Commentary elaborates on Psalm 37:5-6 as a two-part promise that is very sweet:

1. He shall bring that to pass, whatever it is, which thou hast committed to Him…He will find means to extricate thee out of thy straits, to prevent thy fears, and bring about thy purposes, to thy satisfaction.
2. He will take care of thy reputation, and bring thee out of thy difficulties, not only with comfort, but with credit and honour…Note, If we take care to keep a good conscience, we may leave it to God to take care of our good name.

Isaiah 60:1-2 (NKJV): Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. For behold, the... darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you.

Matthew Henry’s Bible Commentary gives us this understanding of Isaiah 60:1-2:

Our duty in this passage...calls for (us to) not only receive this light, but to be enlightened by it, and to reflect this light; (we are to) arise and shine with rays borrowed from it...If God’s glory (is) seen upon us to our honor, we (should) with our lips (and) our lives return the praise of it to His honor.

Daniel 12:1-3 (The Message): It will be a time of trouble, the worst trouble the world has ever seen. But your people will be saved from the trouble, every last one found written in the Book. Many who have been long dead and buried will wake up, some to eternal life, others to eternal shame. Men and women who have lived wisely and well will shine brilliantly, like the cloudless, star-strewn night skies. And those who put others on the right path to life will glow like stars forever.

One of my favorite passages of the Old Testament, Daniel 12:1-3, which Matthew Henry’s Bible Commentary elaborates upon to say:

Those that are wise (that are teachers, so some read it, for teachers have need of wisdom, and those that have wisdom themselves should communicate it to others) shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, shall shine in glory, heavenly glory, the glory of the upper world; and those that by the wisdom they have, and the instructions they give, are instrumental to turn any, especially to turn many to righteousness, shall shine as the stars for ever and ever.

Matthew 5:16 (Amplified): Let your light so shine before men that they may see your moral excellence and your praiseworthy, noble, and good deeds and recognize and honor and praise and glorify your Father Who is in heaven.

Barnes’ Notes elaborates on Matthew 5:16 like this:

Let your light so shine...let your holy life, your pure conversation, and your faithful instructions, be everywhere seen and known. Always, in all societies, in all business, at home and abroad, in prosperity and adversity, let it be seen that you are real Christians...not simply that you may be seen, but it should be that your heavenly Father may be glorified.

• If your Christian faith and belief is not clear to others, it probably does not exist.
• Spiritual leaders who live like people of the world give evidence that they have never been truly converted to genuine faith and belief.
• To attempt to conceal or hide your Christian knowledge or experience betrays your trust in Christ and can render the true purpose of your life as a believer useless.
• Good actions will always be seen and lead people to honor God. If you know of no way of doing good because you are poor, or unlearned or unknown yet, you can still do good by your (good) life. No sincere and humble Christian lives in vain. The (faintest) light at midnight can be of blessed use.

Second Corinthians 4:6 (NKV): For God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

Adam Clarke’s Commentary gives us this interpretation of 2 Corinthians 4:6:

He has given our hearts the glorious light of the Gospel, as He has given the world the glorious light of the sun...To give us that light...(was to) enable us to give it to others, (which is) the light of the knowledge of God through Christ.

Revelation 21:23 (NKJV): The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illumined it. The Lamb is its light.

Matthew Henry’s Bible Commentary reveals this about Revelation 21:23:

Where there is no light, there can be no luster nor pleasure. Heaven is the inheritance of the saints in light. But what is that light (in this city)? There is no sun or moon shining there...(Yet) there is no want of the light...for the glory of God lightens that city, and the Lamb is the light thereof. God in Christ will be an everlastung fountain of knowledge and joy to the saints in heaven; and, if so, there is no need of the sun or moon, any more than we here need to set up candles at noon day, when the sun shineth in its strength.

The change that is coming is bringing His shine and a greater and more intense brilliance of light and glory with it. God has spoken to us all through the Bible of the shine of His glory, His power, and His face that will always be looking upon us. Fear not at anything that is happening now or that is being cast upon the airwaves of the media today warning of terror and darkness and pestilence about to come upon us. As long as you look for it, God’s love and grace will always shine upon you to guide you. He has much more to say to you about that, and it is all good.

Once again, it is important to clean out the toxic waste in your soul with the Keys of the Kingdom binding and loosing prayers so you can hear Him speak to you and recognize Him as He is guiding you by His light. Remember also that while He shines His light for you to follow, your life is to shine for others to recognize as being a sweet and desirable enlightenment from Him to follow as well. The Word says that they shall know you by your love. Jesus also says in many ways in the New Testament that they will also know you by your words, your life, and your actions.

First Peter 3:8-17 (The Message) gives an excellent prayer/declaration to help you get tuned up every day for walking in the light and letting it shine through you to others:

8 Be agreeable, be sympathetic, be loving, be compassionate, be humble. (Lord, today I am going to choose to be agreeable, sympathetic, loving, compassionate, and humble. Tweak me, Holy Spirit, if I wander away from this choice.)

9 That goes for all of you, no exceptions. No retaliation. No sharp-tongued sarcasm. Instead, bless—that’s your job, to bless. You’ll be a blessing and also get a blessing. (Lord, today I will not retaliate to other peoples’ bad words or attitudes, I will bless them with patience and compassion and the offering of my understanding.)

10 Whoever wants to embrace life and see the day fill up with good, here’s what you do: Say nothing evil or hurtful; (Lord, today I will say nothing evil or hurtful. If I fail in this choice, I ask for a check from the Holy Spirit and I will return and seek forgiveness in humble humility.)

11 Snub evil and cultivate good; run after peace for all you’re worth. (Lord, today I will seek to do good wherever it does not seem to exist and I will pray for and gently offer words of peace to those who will be receiving them.)

12 God looks on all this with approval, listening and responding well to what He’s asked: but He turns His back on those who do evil things. (Lord, today I am asking only for myself that I will have your help in helping others to see you.)

13 If with heart and soul you’re doing good, do you think you can be stopped? (Lord, today I am going to believe that the road of opportunity to be a blessing and a help to others will be open and clear and I won’t be stopped or hindered. If it seems to be clogged up, I’ll stop and look around at what I might be missing right where I am.)

14 Even if you suffer for it, you’re still better off. Don’t give the opposition a second thought. (Lord, today I will look at any opposition from others with your eyes, seeing their hurt and needs instead of reacting to their words and their actions.)

15 Through thick and thin, keep your hearts at attention, in adoration before Christ, your Master. Be ready to speak up and tell anyone who asks why you’re living the way you are, and always with the utmost courtesy. (Lord, today give me opportunities to tell others why I am living the way I am. Help me to be courteous and sensitive as I do this.)

16 Keep a clear conscience before God so that when people throw mud at you, none of it will stick. They’ll end up realizing that they’re the ones who need a bath. (Lord, today I’ll wear my Silicone clothes and headgear, which a clear conscience will allow me to wear. I’ll hold the towels and offer pure soap to anyone who needs forgiveness and washing of themselves.)

Then pray this prayer:

Lord, I bind my will to you, my mind to the mind of Christ, and my emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. I want to walk in light in these days. Help me to shine and draw others close who want to know what I know that gives me your glow.

I loose, smash, crush, and destroy all of my stronghold thinking: my excuses and justification and denial of why I might try to say I cannot be and do who you want me to be. I can do all things through Jesus Christ which strengthens me! I choose to look at today and the days ahead with the expectation of seeing your strong arm and your power moving in the world.

Please protect and heal the children of the world, give food and shelter to the homeless and the orphans, draw the unsaved, the unloved, the scarred, and the wounded to yourself. I will work in the final harvest however you want. Thank you for your love and care and concern for me and my loved ones. Amen

Here is a great quotation that we should all take to heart: Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail. Ralph Waldo Emerson

NewBook GPS FOR THE SOUL Now at the Printers – PDF Version Available Right Now! Just Go to the Catalog.

GPS for the SOUL started out as a combination form of my former mini books, Keys to Understanding (no longer in print), but it grew and grew until it became its own big book. I had great fun writing it. I hope you will enjoy reading it, too. It should be published and ready to ship sometime late in February. However, the pdf version is ready to buy right now. I am asking that everyone please honor my copyrights (existing and pending) so that I can get the books out in this new format.

From what I have been told, pdf files can be read on Kindle and other electronic book readers, as well as the new Droids and some of the other Smart Phones. How exciting! Those of you with Kindles and Droids who order these pdf copies of my new books, please report back so I can verify all the different versions.

Liberty’s Other Newest Book THE OLD BROWN ROCKER is Now Available in PDF Version Right Now!

This is a children’s fiction story that I have written over the past 24 years, and is probably categorized as most appropriate for middle readers, 8-10. But this book is for adults, too. It is about one-third the size of Shattering Your Strongholds (19,000 words). This is the story of a nine-year-old girl, Leah, who lives with her widowed mother, Denise. Leah’s beloved grandmother is dying in a hospital.

Not knowing that her grandmother instructed Denise to sell her house, find a home for her old dog, and take her furniture to Good Will, Leah blames her mother for getting rid of all her grandmother’s possessions. Not having been told that her grandmother is dying, Leah keeps grieving and worrying about what her grandmother will do when she comes home and everything she loved is gone. This is a book that will help families talk to children about losing a loved one, and how Christians don’t really ever lose each other through death since they all come back together in Heaven.

Publication plans and cover designs are all still in the planning stage right now, but the manuscript is ready to sell in pdf format by return e-mail as The Old Brown Rocker.

Written by Regina Brett, 90 years old, of the Plain Dealer (Newspaper), Cleveland, Ohio

To celebrate growing older, I once wrote the 45 lessons life taught me. It is the most requested column I’ve ever written. My odometer rolled over to 90 in August, so here is the column once more:

1. Life isn’t fair, but it’s still good.
2. When in doubt, just take the next small step.
3. Life is too short to waste time hating anyone.
4. Your job won’t take care of you when you are sick. Your friends and parents will. Stay in touch.
5. Pay off your credit cards every month.
6. You don’t have to win every argument. Agree to disagree.
7. Cry with someone. It’s more healing than crying alone.
8. It’s OK to get angry with God. He can take it.
9. Save for retirement starting with your first paycheck.
10. When it comes to chocolate, resistance is futile.
11. Make peace with your past so it won’t screw up the present.
12. It’s OK to let your children see you cry.
13. Don’t compare your life to others. You have no idea what their journey is all about.
14. If a relationship has to be a secret, you shouldn’t be in it.
15. Everything can change in the blink of an eye. But don’t worry; God never blinks.
16. Take a deep breath. It calms the mind.
17. Get rid of anything that isn’t useful, beautiful or joyful.
18. Whatever doesn’t kill you really does make you stronger.
19. It’s never too late to have a happy childhood. But the second one is up to you and no one else.
20. When it comes to going after what you love in life, don’t take no for an answer.
21. Burn the candles, use the nice sheets, wear the fancy lingerie. Don’t save it for a special occasion. Today is special.
22. Over prepare, then go with the flow.
23. Be eccentric now. Don’t wait for old age to wear purple.
24. The most important sex organ is the brain.
25. No one is in charge of your happiness but you.
26. Frame every so-called disaster with these words: “In five years, will this matter?”
27. Always choose life.
28. Forgive everyone everything.
29. What other people think of you is none of your business.
30. Time heals almost everything. Give time time.
31. However good or bad a situation is, it will change.
32. Don’t take yourself so seriously. No one else does.
33. Believe in miracles.
34. God loves you because of who God is, not because of anything you did or didn’t do.
35. Don’t audit life. Show up and make the most of it now.
36. Growing old beats the alternative—dying young.
37. Your children get only one childhood.
38. All that truly matters in the end is that you loved.
39. Get outside every day. Miracles are waiting everywhere.
40. If we all threw our problems in a pile and saw everyone else’s, we’d grab ours back.
41. Envy is a waste of time. You already have all you need.
42. The best is yet to come.
43. No matter how you feel, get up, dress up and show up.
44. Yield.
45. Life isn’t tied with a bow, but it’s still a gift.

Ten Prophetic Predictions Guaranteed to Hold True in 2011

1. The Bible will still have all the answers.
2. Prayer will still be the most powerful thing on Earth.
3. The Holy Spirit will still move.
4. God will still honor the praises of His people.
5. There will still be God-anointed preaching.
6. There will still be singing of praise to God.
7. God will still pour out blessings upon His people.
8. There will still be room at the Cross.
9. Jesus will still love you.
10. Jesus will still save the lost when they come to Him.

Questions and Answers

Connie: After reading what you wrote in your last e-mail and praying about it, there is something I want you to do. So far, you have not really been very open or willing to follow through on what I have asked you to work on prior to this time. I’m sure that you are feeling frustrated and thinking that I’m not any help to you. But you actually are not letting me help you. So I have kept praying and asking God for opportunities to do so.

Again, after reading what you just written, I can see that there are extensive soul ties in your family and between you and your family members. This allows everything they do, small or large, to impact you with a lot of force. You can be free of that, if you want to be. Ask yourself this, however: Do you want to break all soul ties with your family to give all of you a chance at healthier relationships? Or, do you want to just keep cycling through your family’s dynamics that have been in place for years and years because you are afraid to do anything else?

You have written long lists to me in great detail about the hurt and pain you feel from what your family members are saying and doing to you. We have gone over and over those lists, but there can be nothing productive to accomplish by going over them again and again anymore. I realize these hurtful exchanges between you and your family have really devastated you and I am so sorry for that. But what is on your lists are SYMPTOMS of deeper issues together with soul ties. We could talk about the symptoms over and over again, but if nothing is done about the source of the symptoms, things will either stay the same or get worse.

As an EMT at an accident, I know you can understand that you can’t just treat the blood that’s running down someone’s leg; you have to treat the source of the blood to stop the bleeding.

Since the soul ties operating in your family seem to be the only form of connection with your family members that you are relating to right now, this might be a scary thing for you to do—break these unhealthy soul ties. Breaking soul ties with those you want to be close with can mean a severing of the only “relationship” you now believe to be in place. BUT, breaking them actually begins to clear the deck for a beginning of healthier relating with your family members. Please read what I am attaching here and then pray the prayer at least four times before we talk later this week. God bless,

Soul ties create very unhealthy alliances. A soul tie between a parent and child almost always comes from the parent’s need to be needed and the child’s understanding that he or she can get both help and things from the parent because of this. A soul tie between a husband and wife comes from a mutual agreement that the other partner is first in line for the meeting of all needs whether reasonable or otherwise. Soul ties between strong authority figures and weaker souls generally come about as a result of the authority figure knowing he or she can use the weaker soul’s desire to please. The weaker soul perceives that the agreement places him or her in line for approval, protection, and help whether it is ever forthcoming or not.

There are deep needs in wounded souls that no human being can ever meet. Some needs are met in a marriage because each partner is a gift to the other partner. Some damaged and emotionally wounded parents see their children’s needs as a proof that they are needed when often they are just being used. Extreme closeness between parent and child can seem to exist when a soul tie is present. These ties cause people to look for assurance, healing, support, protection, provision, answers, and guidance before they look to God. When one person’s dependency upon another person is excessively out of balance, it may seem flattering at first; but eventually this intense neediness begins to drain the person who is always expected to meet the needs of the other one.

Prayer for Breaking Soul Ties

Lord, I have been looking to another human being to try to meet the needs and fix the pain inside me. I have not made right choices and kept my relationship with this person in the proper perspective of being secondary to my relationship with you. I choose right now to break all emotional, intellectual, or self-willed ties I’ve let my soul form with any other human soul. I repent for allowing this to happen. Your love, mercy, and your grace are sufficient for all my needs, hurts, and issues. I want to surrender my needs and hurt to you right now, and I ask that your grace and mercy will guide all of my relationships with others.

I’ve tried too long to get my human expectations fulfilled by using other people. Forgive me for this and pour out your grace and mercy upon them, too. Increase my awareness of the fallibility of my unsurrendered soul’s expectations of anything or anyone but you. Increase my awareness of old patterns of behavior that I need to continue to loose until they are gone for good. Increase my awareness of the wrong thinking I need to loose and reject.

Increase my awareness of when my soul is trying to sneak around my determination so I can stop coming into wrong agreements with others when I feel frightened or needy. Increase my awareness of the wrong thinking I so easily fall into when I feel alone and unable to control people and circumstances that frighten me. Help me, Lord, to quickly remember to loose and reject such wrong thoughts and call out to you!

Increase my awareness that I cannot really count on anyone but you to meet my deepest needs and heal my oldest hurts. Help me remember that I do not need to feel any doubt or fear when you get close to the ugly wounds and needs in my soul, for you already know the dark things that are there. You are not ashamed to walk into them with me and heal me from them once and for all.

I’ve lived with this ugly old “stuff” long enough! So I choose to loose, smash, crush, break, tear up, and tear down every door, every wall, and every barricade that my soul has used to try to cover up the toxic waste of my past. Help me to recognize all high things that I’ve allowed my soul to set up between me and you, and I will loose them.

I loose, cut, and sever all soul ties that I have willingly or ignorantly entered into and I reject every soulish satisfaction they have provided for me. I don’t ever want to forget that they were birthed out of making wrong agreements with others. Thank you for the Keys of the Kingdom that help me to do this. In Jesus’ Name, Amen

ANSWER: Donald: I am so sorry that your wife will not talk with you right now. You tell me that you are praying the binding and loosing prayers for her more than twenty times a day, and you don’t understand why there is nothing happening.

I really wish you would think more about what I said about focusing so much time and effort on trying to either make God do what you want or make your wife do what you want. Would you please consider praying that many times each day for the homeless, the sick, the orphans, and the abused people in the world and let God do His work in your wife’s life and in yours? He knows what is best for both of you and He knows what He is doing in both your lives.

Please do that for the next few days and then we’ll talk on Friday. I’ll be praying for you every day in the meantime. God bless.

QUESTION: Liberty: It’s taken me awhile to write this email but here it goes. Every time I pray the binding and loosing prayers, I find things seem to get worse. My emotions are upside down and I feel like things in my life get so rocky. Is there something I am missing? I read the Bible, but should I be focusing more on particular Scriptures? Should I pray the binding and loosing prayers at every opportunity or just once a day?

I have your Binding and Loosing Prayer Manual as well as Shattering Your Strongholds, and I am still grasping the concept. Is there anything else I can do? Thank you for taking the time to answer this email. I enjoy your books and the revelations of how binding and loosing has transformed so many people’s lives. Laura ANSWER: Laura: Bless your heart! I have just written a new book called Binding and Loosing for Beginners for people like you who really want to understand these principles, but don’t have them all lined up in order yet. There are many who want to pray this way who don’t understand why everything seems to be blowing up around them like little land mines when they do.

Many get a powerful backlash from their souls as they began studying and praying with these powerful prayer principles. The only thing you might have missed at this point is to know that you are really antagonizing and terrorizing your unsurrendered soul. Keep it up! Just remember to be sure that you are not adding personal opinions or judging of others to the prayers you are praying.

Your soul has been more or less in charge of your life all your life, and it is now suddenly aware that you are now trying to introduce a new Big Kid on the Block. It knows that He is going to take away its toys and tricks and bad habits.

This is why you are getting such a backlash—your soul is trying to get you to stop praying those prayers. This is not unusual, so don’t worry. Many people go through this and come out the other side stronger and more in charge of their own souls than they have ever been before. Pray at least 3 or 4 of the prayers in the books you said you have at least twice a day in the beginning. You can pray them more often if you want and feel that will help; in fact, even praying just a paragraph or two out of them in particularly distressing situations during the day will accomplish a lot.

Do pray them out loud (even if you have to whisper into a file drawer, your purse, a briefcase, or a bathroom stall) so that your soul hears them and the enemy hears them. This prevents both of them from playing tricks with your thoughts like they might when you are just thinking through the prayers in your mind. Consider this image. You suddenly realize a weasel has sunk its teeth into your ankle. It would not be effective to just think in your mind, “Get off me, weasel. Get off me!” But if you yelled at the weasel and hit it with a big stick (words from the Word of God are like the biggest stick in the world!), it would let go.

The Lord always hears your thoughts and knows your prayers, but you need to pray them out loud for the benefit of the weasels! (Your enemy and your soul.) You will get more understanding about how and when to pray as you get a little more familiar with the prayers. I am glad you have The Binding and Loosing Prayer Manual! It will be a lot of help to you as you begin to understand some of the more powerful things your soul keeps using to try to protect its hiding places and its deceptions. God bless. Let me know how you are doing. Liberty

QUESTION: Please tell me how to pray and break soul ties that my daughter has to an inappropriate man. Josh

ANSWER: Josh: You cannot break soul ties that other people make, so you cannot break any soul ties your daughter might get involved with, unfortunately. That must be done by one of the people who are involved in a soul tie. But, you can (after praying for yourself) pray and bind the minds of those who appear to be in a soul tie to the mind of Christ and loose their wrong patterns of thinking that have led them to seek wrong agreements with others. Don’t worry about identifying what those wrong patterns of thinking are, just pray and loose, smash, crush, and destroy them. I see that you ordered The Binding and Loosing Prayer Manual. You can pray several of the prayers in the Manual to help you impact her wrong thought patterns.

Always remember that you can interchange the pronouns in the prayers: I, me, you, she, he, etc. Just don’t add your personal opinions, criticisms, and judgments into the prayers as you pray them. The closer you keep them to the pure Matthew 16:19 model, the more powerful they are: Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Just don’t make the mistake of trying to put your own personal interpretation on what the whatevers might be in different circumstances with different people.

We have been given the Keys of the Kingdom to bring things on earth into agreement and alignment with things God has already pre-determined in Heaven. When we are careful to do that, leaving the details up to God, great things begin to happen here on earth. Blessings to you and your daughter. I prayed for you and her today.

Dearest Liberty, Thank you so much for your prayers over my family. I have noticed many changes in my thoughts and attitudes. There are some things I have not noticed any difference in, but I know God is at work. Thrtr is one thing I know for sure: I sense His presence and the presence of the Holy Spirit. I have shared some of this with a few ladies from our church and I have purchased all three of the books for them, Shattering Your Strongholds. Breaking the Power and Producing the Promise.

All of us are women who are committed to seeing changes in our lives and in the lives of others. Some of us more seasoned than others, but God has brought us all together for a purpose such as now. I also want to say my husband Jeff got a new job, received injections, and will be talking with a surgeon tomorrow. Praise God. There are some things in this mixed family that we need God to change and I am excited to see His hand move in our midst.

Most of all, I am learning to give my cares to God and how to trust Him in everything. Thank you once again for hearing and listening to God. Cannot wait to write you with even more testimonies from our family and our church and our community. God is moving! Teresa

Liberty, thank you for your newsletters and the ministry work you are doing. I have been following your work for several years, seeing you on TV Canadian, and buying your books in the Christian bookstore since about 10 years ago, maybe more. Binding and loosing works, thank you. You have paid a price to get this ministry teaching out. We appreciate what you have done, and pray God’s blessing, provision and wisdom continue to flood your life. Rev Anna McP., Canada

Liberty: I want to say how blown away both I and my friend were by your swift and personal response to my e-mail. We didn’t really expect to hear from you and certainly didn’t expect you to pray specifically for our requests. We are so grateful. It really boosted my Mum’s spirit to hear that someone she’s not yet met had taken the time to pray for her (especially someone who is probably inundated with correspondence every day). My friend felt the same regarding your prayers for her husband.

The material you sent to help us understand and have further insight into the power of healing prayers is perfect. We began using the principles—and actual prayers—immediately.

We’ve already begun to see great changes in my Mum. In fact the doctor in the hospital told me she was shocked at Mum’s improvement! The improvement is such that the hospital allowed Mum to be home for the Christmas weekend with a view of allowing her to be cared for at home if the improvement continues.

PRAYING FOR THE CHILDREN

Every Monday through Friday morning, I pray at the same time as nearly 70 LSM International Intercessors do around the world for children who are in situations of all forms of abuse, hunger, sickness, poverty, and even child slavery. Second Chronicles 7:14 tells us:

If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land (NKJV).

I cannot help but wonder if some of our wicked ways are that we do not pray enough for those who need help so badly. This speaks of the power of our prayers for our nations and those in them if we will humble ourselves, stop following our own wills and our own agendas, and pray with all the focus and determination that we can for what is right.

What might be considered one of our wicked ways as spoken of here? Could it not be that we have not cried out for others, especially the children of the world everywhere, every day! Please join with me and others in praying for the children of the world who desperately need us to agree that God’s will shall be done in their lives and quickly.

Lord, I come to your with pain in my heart asking that you forgive me for not daily remembering and praying for those who cannot help themselves. I bind every child in the world to your will. I bind their minds to your mind, Jesus, and I bind their wounded and ragged emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Please speak words of encouragement and hope to them. Please send help to rescue them quickly.

I loose the enemy’s influence from all adults who are using and abusing so many children in the world today. Please heal them from whatever has driven them to such behaviors. People are not born knowing how to abuse; they learn from being abused themselves. Please break this evil cycle in their lives.

I loose, smash, crush, and destroy the enemy’s works that are coming against these children. You have said if we would humble ourselves, pray, seek your face, and turn from our wicked ways, then you would heal our land. Please show us all that we need to do to work with you to see our lands and the children in them become safe and healed and filled with hope. Thank you, Father God. Amen

Always remember James 4:17 (NIV):
Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn’t do it, sins.
Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES?

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ’s shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

Liberty teaches Christians how to cause their unsurrendered souls (old natures) to surrender to the will and purposes of God. She also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage and toxic waste from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them for today. This allows believers to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! The message of binding and loosing and the Unsurrendered Soul teaches God’s people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19) to impact things on earth so they come into alignment with God’s already established will in heaven. Liberty also teaches Christians how to pray purely without “want lists” and soulish instruction manuals for God (so He will know how best to answer their prayers!). Effective prayers with pure motives declare that God’s will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
