A WORD FROM LIBERTY

I would like to thank all of you who were so gracious in response to my article in January regarding the financial needs and prayer needs of LSM and other ministries around America. We heard from so many of you, and the gifts and the promises of prayers for our work were greatly appreciated. Our finances are slowly improving, our prayer support is growing, and God is so good.!

I will be very busy for the next two months. I have a heavy travel schedule and I am also finishing two new books, X-Ray of the Unsundered Soul, and a devotional, Apples of Gold in Silver Baskets. On the following pages, you will read some excerpts from X-Ray of the Unsundered Soul. For those of you who want to a first edition of X-Ray with an autograph, please see the order blank for special pre-order pricing. These two books will be launched in July 2002.

A PROPHETIC WORD

We recently received a prophecy from a brother on March 13, 2002. This word is for our ministry as well as for all of you who have been engaged in this prayer war with the Keys of the Kingdom!

“The Holy Spirit has shown me that when you and your team engage in the ministry God has given you, that you are taking on a dimension of darkness that few have dared to engage. This giant has been startled by the prayer ministry you have begun, and your relentless perserverance. He has seen the growth that has come to your ministry, and he has reacted.

He has been of the mindset that no one would come and dare to awaken him. But like David taking on Goliath, you and your team have come in using the armor of God. You have taken the offensive and attacked this giant.

He has been startled by both your relentlessness and the relentlessness of those who received this revelation through your teachings. You, your staff, and some of us in the “field” will experience attacks in a fashion that the regular Church has not. This giant can no longer sleep because you and others continue to attack his complacency and take back the ground he has stolen. He is becoming ugly because he wants it back. Know that he will no longer be a sleeping giant.

Rejoice in what God has given you, for truly I AM is in it. The Father says: ‘Be at peace, my relentless ones. I rejoice and all of Heaven rejoices in the work I have given you.’”

Excerpts From X-RAY OF THE UNSUNDERED SOUL, RELEASE DATE: JULY 15, 2002

Taken from: Fine Tuned Prayer Principles That Mend and Heal chapter)

The Lord first revealed the principles of praying with new binding and loosing prayers in 1986. Since writing my first book (released in December 1992), He has continued to teach me a refining of these principles. One thing about writing a book, you might change your thinking, but the book stays just the same. It is always interesting in 2002 to explain why yiy are changing something you wrote in 1992!

In my first book, I stated that I believed that the strongman mentioned by three of the Gospel writers was Satan. Matthew 12:29 says, “Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man’s house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can rob his house” (NIV). Mark 3:27 says, “In fact, no one can enter a strong man’s house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can rob his house” (NIV). Luke 11:21 says, “When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are safe” (NIV).

My belief that this was Satan came from the many teachings I had heard. Most deliverance ministries use these verses to try to prove we can bind Satan.

Shortly after this came out in my first book, carved in granite, I began to question this understanding. If we could bind Satan, the thousands and thousands who have been trying to do just this should have been able to stop him somewhere, shouldn't they? A few years later I became certain that the strongman was not Satan. This provoked the question of who was the strongman?

In early 2001, one of my staff members, Linda Cady, became intrigued with my statements that the strongman was not Satan. She began to research this sticky issue. With Linda's permission, I share the following research with some new views of my own. . . .

(Taken from: Power Leadership—Surrendered Souls and Servant Attitudes chapter)

The term "spiritual burnout" is not a true description of why some leaders fall away from their callings. The born again human spirit cannot burn out. It is connected, by the blood of Jesus, to the Spirit of its Creator and has access to all eternal gifts that the Holy Spirit gives to humans.

The human soul, on the other hand, has finite limits to its abilities. The mind is finite, the will is finite, and the emotions are finite in their carnal state. Finite means there is an end. Infinite, such as our Savior's attributes, characteristics, and power, means no ending. As if it wasn't restrictive enough to have finite qualities to work with, we do not use but perhaps a tenth of their potential. The Christian leader who tries to accomplish great things for God in his or her own power will eventually burn out, some even going down in flames. The Bible records Paul's words regarding laboring for his Lord:

"We proclaim him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect in Christ. To this end I labor, struggling with all his energy, which so powerfully works in me" (Colossians 1:28-29, NIV). When you are struggling to fulfill your destiny without the power of Christ's life and energy in you, you can struggle yourself right into soulish and physical burnout. That leads to compromise, cutting corners, recycling methods and messages, as well as learning how to use, sometimes even abuse, those who want to help in whatever way they can.

(Taken from: Teaching Adults As Well As Kids about Kingdom Keys Praying chapter)

Personalize your teaching to touch the heart and life of the hearers, i.e. do not teach senior citizens about loosing wrong ideas about peer pressure and sex. Teach them to bind their minds to the mind of Christ that their thoughts could be renewed and sharpened. Teach them to loose wrong patterns of thinking about not being useful to God any more and get themselves ready to receive new marching instructions from their Divine Leader.

Explain what the life change principles would look like in your students if they implemented them in their lives, i.e. "Would you like to feel free to offer a helping hand or a word of comfort to a complete stranger who looks discouraged and depressed?" Or, "Would you like to be able to walk past a group of people you used to be intimidated by, knowing that you are not who they think you are? Rather, you are who God says you are, "the apple of His eye, His Son's bride, a new creature." Here's how we teach your soul to prepare for a new attitude.

Explain how the life change could impact their families. Set up different family scenarios, such as rebellious teenagers fighting with their parents. Teach the parents how to pray for: their own souls; their reactions to the teens, and for God's will to be done in their teenagers' lives. Teach them that the key issue is to get everyone's wills bound to the will of God, so that you are all pursuing one Master Will. Teach them that they may have never learned good parenting skills, but God is the best parent ever and He is more than willing to share His experience with them.

(Taken from same chapter as above, but in The Teaching Kid's section). Teacher's Illustration: I have two hats. One hat (darker color) represents the soul man on the inside of us. Did you know that our souls don't automatically think and act like Jesus would like us to? We are born trying to get what we want and then trying to get other people to treat us how we want them to. This is because the unsundered soul hasn't yet learned how to surrender to the will of God yet. To surrender means to "give in" When our soul is surrendered to God, we give in to God and His way of thinking and acting. This is how we look when we are thinking with our unsundered soul (put the dark hat on).

This other hat (a larger white hat) stands for the "mind of Christ." The mind of Christ is always pure and righteous, filled with loving, obedient, respectful, kind, patient thoughts. It is clean and light. When we bind our minds to the mind of Christ, it's like we are putting on Christ's way of thinking (remove dark hat and put the white hat on your head).

Now, let's see what some of our thoughts look like. (Pull out your soft pencil, 3x5 cards, and pins or tape.) Each of you think some bad thoughts for just a moment. What would be bad thoughts? Now I'm going to write some of these bad thoughts down on these cards and pin/tape them to our unsundered soul man's hat. (Once you get 5-6 thoughts pinned/taped onto the hat, put it on and ask the children how you look. Doesn't your soul "hat" look all messy and bad? Then unpin/untape the cards and give them to the children with several erasers.)

Now, we don't want to think like this, so let's "loose" these bad thoughts that the soul man had. Just rub them out. Go ahead, loose them with your eraser until they are all gone.

(Then pick up the mind of Christ hat and put it on over the black hat on your head.) The mind of Christ is loving, kind, obedient, respectful, and patient. (Say, "Now, I feel so much better.") Ask the children if they can think of new, Christ-like thoughts to write on a card to take home with them.

(Taken from: Prognosis—Unity and Agreement with God chapter)

My designer (from my publishing company), Andy, happened to be in England at that time visiting his family. He volunteered to drive us down to London where we would sightsee for a day and a half and then to Croyden for more meetings. It was great fun having a "native" Brit show us around London. We did the double-decker, open-air bus, tourist thing to make sure we saw as many landmarks as possible in one day. Andy introduced us to "pub grub," we shopped at Harrods, and we saw castles and bridges and many other marvelous things.

Our last night in London, I was startled awake at 2:00 a.m. by someone knocking on my hotel door. I peeked out to see an extremely distraught Andy. "I've lost the keys to the van, Liberty, they're gone. I've looked everywhere! We can't get the van out of the parking lot where it's costing $75 dollars a day, and I've called about a new key and it will take days to get it here. They'll charge us $200 to drive a replacement van to us, and the replacement key will cost . . . We'll never get you to Croyden in time and . . ." Worries and dollars and missed engagements were pouring out of poor Andy's mouth!

I said, "We'll find the key, Andy, don't worry. Did you look . . ." Andy interrupted me to relate how he had been tearing his room apart for hours until he finally felt he had to come and tell me. I said I would get my robe, and we would go and wake up Marian and Evelyn in their room. Then we would all pray. Everything would be all right. Andy stood forlornly out in the hall to wait for me.

Back in my room, I suddenly realized that this was very much like the missing money incident earlier. I remember clearly what God had said: "Things are not always what they seem. Learn that." I felt an assurance that everything would be fine, and that poor Andy was about to get a lesson that we had all learned a few nights earlier. Soon we were all in Marian's and Evelyn's room praying with great fervor. We bound Andy's mind to the mind of Christ, we bound his will to the will of God, and we loosed anxiety, tension, and worry from him. We loosed the enemy's influence from the situation, and we asked God to guide us. We kept assuring Andy that things were not always what they seemed, and we were sure that this was the case with the missing keys. Andy was not sure at all, but he tried to look like he was for our sakes.

We decided to get dressed and make some plans. We weren't sure what plans, but I felt God was going to direct us. Andy went back to his room to look for the keys one more time. I had just finished dressing when I heard loud banging on my door and muffled laughter. I opened the door and there was Andy, Marian, and Evelyn, with huge smiles on their faces. Andy was triumphantly holding up wet car keys. "I found them, I found them," he crowed.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

QUESTION: My friend shows me romantic feelings and then turns away from me, telling me what his wife should look like—which is nowhere near my looks. I have prayed your prayers from Shattering Your Strongholds and the prayer for a mate. I met him soon after. I'm Indian and he's Jewish. I feel so insecure and almost wish I wasn't Indian. If this is God's will for the two of us—how do I pray for him to see that? Sanni of Zambia

ANSWER: God never planned for you to be unwanted by the man He has always planned for you. Your perfect mate will be overwhelmed with love for you. Please do not let your soul cause you to fantasize or fixate upon desiring this man, as he may not be God's best for you. If he is the one, let him pursue you. It will happen if he is God's planned mate for you. You are one of God's special daughters, Sanni, let Him bring you a prince of a man who wants to make you his princess.

QUESTION: I have recently begun the binding and loosing prayer methods suggested in Breaking the Power (very nice work on your part, by the way). For the past two days I have started to feel sluggish, and have a loss of appetite. I am usually very energetic and EAT ALL THE TIME. Is this some form of resistance from my soulish man as I am halfway through the book, but unable to finish. Do you know why? Rev. Kevin

Rev. Kevin: The human soul is capable of pulling all kinds of "tricks" when it feels threatened. Breaking the Power threatens the status quo of the unsundered soul. I would suggest that you pray the page 30 prayer every day. Even just reading the book is threatening to the soul, because praying the prayers begins to dismantle the unsundered soul's strongholds, walls, and self-defense systems. We will pray for you and with you. These principles absolutely work! But your soul won't surrender without a fight, and it has enlisted your body's help! Don't worry, the prayers can break that agreement.

QUESTION: Our son talks about suicide and also has problems with his sexuality. We are praying the binding and loosing prayers for him and ourselves and for each member of our family. It is like riding an emotional roller coaster. We have your books and find them valuable. Someone suggested that we should all bind the carnal man. Is this a good thing to do? Help us.

ANSWER: Binding is best used in the context of healing, holding, undergirding, and causing fragmented pieces to come back into one whole. There are probably some serious flaws in his gender identity. Bind him to the truth of who he is. Loose wrong beliefs and half-truths he has accepted about who he is. Ask Jesus to imprint his gender identity on his soul again, as well as his identity in Him.

Loose wrong thought patterns FROM your son's mind. To loose means to crush, smash, shatter, and destroy. Also loose the effects and influences of any wrong agreements from his soul. If you can pick up a copy of Keys to Understanding FREEDOM, one of my newer mini books, there is a section on praying for people with homosexual struggles. God bless, Liberty QUESTION: Dear Liberty, I was given some photostated pages out of a workbook on Shattering your Strongholds. I was very cynical when my brother began to share them with me. Just another 'fad,' and I am so tired of being a guinea pig. I have been a Christian 30 years, and my husband and children are tired of me saying, "Here's why none of the previous books worked because this one is really what I should have been following." I am almost afraid to pray the prayers, I'm so afraid of another failure. I looked up your web page on the internet and your comment about Mark—"Mark, you leak!" made me think of myself. Do these prayers really work?

ANSWER: Everything you have described is related to the unsundered soul. That is where all of the old word curses, wrong beliefs, and wrong mind sets are entrenched. They are protected by strongholds. The believer who tries to find God's answers, while he or she is dragging around so much old "stuff," is going to fail over and over. The answer is to get the soul to surrender its stuff to God. That is what these prayers accomplish.

I, too, have been a Christian for 30 years. Fifteen of those years were spent struggling and giving up and crying out to God. Finally He showed me how using the Keys of the Kingdom could strip the soulish garbage—almost like sores and sickness and tumors—out of my soul so it could start afresh in alignment with God. This is a way to help you walk with Him instead of pulling against Him. Testimonies pour into our office of people finally getting free of their own old nature, their souls' strongholds, and the residue of everything that has ever happened to them. It works. It really does. You just have to understand what you are doing, and then pray the prayers. We will be praying with you! Liberty

TESTIMONIES

On April 2nd, we received a phone call from a brother in Wales, UK, calling to order more prayer charts and tapes. He wanted us to know that Shattering Your Strongholds is "mushrooming" in Wales and people are seeing wonderful things happen. He said that he and his wife recently heard a woman sharing her grief and anxiety in a store. They asked permission to take her into the back room first to share these prayer principles with her, then to pray for her. The woman was greatly encouraged when she left. He told us to "Keep up the good work!"

Greeting in the name of our Lord, I am a Christian from Taiwan. I just bought a copy of BREAKING THE POWER and its workbook and found it fascinating. From the internet, I also found that you offer classes on SYS/BTP BLITZ I-III and Teacher's Certification Level I and II. I am extremely interested in learning more about the classes. Because of my class schedule in seminary now (I am a student in a theological seminary), I can not attend one of your sessions until summer time. I don't want to miss anything. Thank you again for your attention. I look forward to hearing from you within the shortest. W. Ku

I'm from Sao Paulo in Brazil. Loved your books! Do you have any partners in Brazil? We still cannot get the third book of your trilogy. Do you have any way we can get it down here? Love in Jesus, Don Nelson

God led me to your books while in a Christian bookstore. I shared some of what I learned, and five of my friends are now involved in reading and applying the prayers and revelations you share. One called crying, saying the prayers delivered her young daughter from years of "migraines." The daughter is now praying these prayers, too. These books have opened up a new avenue of freedom for myself and my friends. I'm binding and loosing all the time now and getting immediate results. Thank you so much for listening to our God and allowing so many of us to benefit from what He revealed to you!

I recently purchased your two books, Shattering and Breaking, and I cannot tell you how much they already have meant to me. I knew there was more than just binding the devil all the time, and I know that these books have been written with me in mind. I am today ordering the third in your series. I want to encourage you and thank you in the same breath for being obedient to God's voice to write these books. They have so touched me and opened new ways of seeing things. God bless you, Esme .

"SHATTERING YOUR STRONGHOLDS" has literally saved my life. Adversity hit me with each step I've taken throughout most of my 44 years. I've been prayed for, prayed over, and have spent countless hours praying for myself. But nothing short of a miracle has taken place since praying what you describe as "training wheel prayers" in your book. I love the Lord and desperately wanted all He had for me; yet I didn't know how to get free from the bondages. The "CHURCH" needs to wake up and come out of their slumber, realizing that people are dying spiritually for lack of knowledge. I thank the LORD for working through you to give us answers. Dana

I tell everyone about your book. While we were vacationing in Oregon, we were talking to pastors and their wives, fellow volunteers at our County Jail Ministry, as well as inmates. We have almost memorized the prayers in the book and whenever we pray, others remark of witnessing to the power of God at work. For years I questioned, "Why do Christians not live in victory?" Now I not only know the reason, but I have an answer. I believe the Body of Christ is coming into her greatest hour of purity, strength, and power. Thank you so much for writing this book, and contributing to our jail ministry.

UPCOMING BLITZES AND TEACHERS' CERTS NEW INFORMATION ON CERTIFICATION!

By the time you read this, we probably will have completed our April SYS/BTP Blitz I/II. I'm sure we had a great time! We will be holding another Blitz I/II on June 28-29, 2002. You must have read Shattering Your Strongholds and Breaking the Power to attend this Blitz. It is also helpful to have listened to the Keys of the Kingdom '99 tapes, but they are not required. Just come prepared to learn about life change. These are classes for breakthrough!

We have a new pre-requisite study package that must be completed prior to the Teachers' Certification Training. Once you have registered for a TC Training, you will immediately be sent a Teachers' Manual, a set of the Training Teachers to Teach tapes, and pre-class testing on that material. The written test must be completed and returned to LSM no later than the morning of the first day of classes. Robert Little will also be joining us in this Teachers' Training. You will enjoy his teaching!

This pre-training study work and testing has freed up one day in our Training schedule so that we can offer the one-day class on Video Facilitation training by Eagle Teacher II Carla Clark from Atlanta GA. Her excellent class during the February TC Training was exciting and very worthwhile. Do not forget that the three Keys of the Kingdom Trilogy books are all required reading to attend the Teachers' Training.

NEW CHARTS

We have new laminated prayer charts at this time, be sure to check out the new resource list. There are some new specials, and we are extending the book sale!

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES, INC.

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President, an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915), has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (New Jersey) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.) with her 3rd book, Producing the Promise!, being released mid-1999. Liberty was born again in 1972.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to tear down their own (self-constructed) inner strongholds by using the keys of the Kingdom found in Matthew 16:19 (binding and loosing) to strip their old natures' (soul) power over their lives and make room within themselves to receive all God has promised! Also, 1) To loose, shatter, crush, and break the power and effects and influences of all wrong agreements made over lives, geographic territories, and circumstances, 2) And to occupy and hold the territories taken for the Kingdom for God.

This ministry is also dedicated to training teachers to teach others how to prayer with effectiveness and pure motives to cause their own souls to surrender to the will of God.
