Word from Liberty Take God With You Everywhere You Go All the Time!

When was the last time you seriously reminded yourself that your God is totally and complete Sovereign over everyone and everything in the universe and beyond? That means He can do anything He wants to do, any way He wants to do it, any time He wants to do it, to accomplish any purpose He wants to accomplish.

A God who has that kind of universal, total power that no one else can overturn—does that sound scary to you? It probably would and should unless you really know Him. Notice the words KNOW HIM, which do not mean just knowing who He is. If you really KNOW HIM, you know that He loved the world so much that He wrapped himself in human flesh to come to earth to break the power of sin in your life and set you free to live with Him both right now and eternally. AND He gave you the option to choose that much greater life.

Second Peter 3:9 tells us that He is not willing that anyone would miss out on that option. They just have to choose it. He wants everyone to know that all they have to do is trust and believe in Him.

Politicians, world affairs, banks and credit card companies, and the terrorists and the criminals have done a pretty good job of trying to destroy the meaning of the word trust. But God's response to any person's trust in Him has not changed! When you learn to trust Him completely, He will never disappoint your hope and expectation that He will work things out for your good. The only difficult part you might have with this previous sentence is that you also have to trust Him to be doing all that in spite of what you see happening around you.

The words trust and believe mean to have full confidence in something even when you are not able to see, smell, hear, taste, or touch it. The words trust and believe mean that you have something or someone, beyond yourself, that you can depend upon. These words mean you are willing to accept something as truth without tangible proof. The skeptic says, "Show me the proof, and then I still might not trust what you are saying." The believer says, "Tangible proof or not, in spite of what I see around me, I trust and believe that God is in full control of working this all out for my good."

I'm fairly sure if you are reading this newsletter that you would say you do trust and believe in the Lord. Consider what that means. Real trust and belief is unshakable regardless of what is happening around you in every direction! So, how do you learn to trust?

Have you had experiences with God where you knew beyond a shadow of a doubt that when you were in a difficult predicament, He showed up and changed everything for the better? Have you the experience of being filled with fear and doubt and then sensed His warm presence and an infilling of calm and peace? Are you sure you are aware of all the small prayers you've prayed that He answered and then you may have taken them for granted?

Have you ever sat down in desperation and tried to find answers or peace in the Bible and you found a verse or grasped a deeper meaning to a passage that you had never seen before? And you just knew that everything would be all right. This is how trust and belief in God is built within your soul (in spite of its unsundered state!).

Hebrews 13:5-6 tell us that, "[God] Himself has said, I will not in any way fail you nor give you up nor leave you without support. [I will] not, [I will] not, [I will] not in any degree leave you helpless nor forsake nor let [you] down (relax My hold on you)! [Assuredly not!] So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently and boldly say, The Lord is my Helper; I will not be seized with alarm [I will not fear or dread or be terrified]. What can man do to me?"

One more verse: God himself said, "I know what I'm doing. I have it all planned out—plans to take care of YOU, not abandon YOU, plans to give YOU the future YOU hope for" (Jeremiah 29:11, The Message).

The world is becoming a pretty scary place in these final days. That is why God has placed so many Scriptures in the Bible to reassure you that you do not need to worry and stress over ANY of them. He has them under control. As things seem to be spinning out of control all around the world, realize that you don't have to understand them any more than you need to understand why there is air around you to breath. There just is, and God just is in control.

Read and reread Isaiah 55:8-11, "(8)For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, says the Lord. (9)For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts. (10)For as the rain and snow come down from the heavens, and return not there again, but water the earth and make it bring forth and sprout, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, (11)So shall My word be that goes forth out of My mouth: it shall not return to Me void [without producing any effect, useless], but it shall accomplish that which I please and purpose, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it" (Amplified).

Aren't you glad that we do not have to figure out what He should do and then be His advisor until He gets it all worked out?

Regardless of what you are seeing on television, hearing on the radio, or reading in the newspaper, things have not spun out of God's control. He knows the source of every single thing happening in the world today. That's His job. Your job is to dig into knowing Him more and more. Not just knowing about Him, although that is good, too. Make sure you know how to pray to bind yourself to Him and loose all your fearful thinking, your worried thoughts, and your misconceptions about Him.

Always remember that the word bind means several good things, two of those things being to obligate yourself to (God's will in everything) and to steady and stabilize yourself and to put on your spiritual seat belt!!

Make sure you know how to bind your family members to His will and loose their preconceived (wrong) ideas about God and your faith in Him and other Christians, as well. Also loose the effects and influences of the wrong agreements your family members have made and loose and destroy the works of the enemy from them (1 John 3:8). Pray this prayer:

Father, I thank you that I can bind my will to your will, my mind to the mind of Christ, and my emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. That is how I steady and stabilize myself with you against whatever these unsteady and unstable days might bring. I bind my family members to your will, the mind of Christ, and the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit.

I loose, smash, crush, and destroy all rationalizing and justifying of preconceived ideas that I might have or that my family has learned to believe about God. I loose all deception and denial from my soul and from their souls. I loose the works of the enemy from myself and from them.

Thank you for giving me the Keys of the Kingdom to pray this way. Thank you that I don't have to figure out the future; I just have to keep getting to know you better and better today. I just need to believe everything you have said you are doing for me and my family, whether or not I understand what that is going to end up looking like. Amen

Take Liberty With You!

You will be able to view these video teachings on your computer as well as download them to your iPod, your iPhone, your Blackberry, etc. and Take Liberty With You!

These downloads are formatted to play perfectly on the handheld devices like those listed above. They can also be enlarged to better view them on your computer with only a slight loss of quality (we recommend and offer a link on each order page to the free QuickTime media player).

For those who would rather load a DVD of the same exact teachings into a DVD player for television viewing or to project through a multi-media system, the first four DVDs are available at this time and on sale through April 17th, 2010! Go to www.libertysavard.com to find out how to get these DVDs which are on sale only until 4/15/10.

Due to the minimums on production of the DVDs, it is going to take some time to be able to have them all reproduced.

Here are some of the main points that are covered on each DVD or Digital Video Download:

Keys of the Kingdom Part 1<sub>1</sub>

- Why weren't we all able to walk right into the good plans of God that people said we should come into when we were first saved?
- What are the individual functions of your mind, your will, and your emotions? How do these three parts of your soul work together to get things accomplished (whether they are right or wrong accomplishments)?
- When you use the Kingdom Key of binding in prayer, what four specific things are accomplished? What are the three main things you should bind prayers (hint: the devil isn't one of them)?
- What are three main things to loose when praying the Keys of the Kingdom (hint: one of them involves the devil)?
- Loosing sickness, fear, poverty, and doubt is not effective. But binding and loosing prayers will help you overcome sickness, fear, poverty, and doubt. How?
- What is stronghold thinking and how have you developed this wrong pattern of thinking?

Keys of the Kingdom Part 2<sub>2</sub>

- All believers have good works, good paths, and good lives already prearranged and set in place for them to do, to walk, and to live out. How do you get into them?
- Your consistent use of the binding and loosing prayers helps you to cause what to be manifested here on Earth?
- What are the cults, Eastern religions, and New Age groups all wanting to do with regard to the unsundered souls of men and women and young people (believers and non-believers alike)?
- In the New Testament, the commandments of Christ do not have threats of punishment or curses attached to them like many had in the Old Testament. His commandments are like road signs leading to what right here on Earth?
- What causes you to have to face and deal with consequences, sometimes over and over?
- Why don't we see any examples in the Bible of Jesus praying binding and loosing prayers?
- Most Christians have a soulish idea of faith. Faith is actually what?
- How should you pray the binding and loosing prayers for financial help, for peace, and for good health?

The Unsundered Soul Part 1<sub>5</sub>

- When God wants you to do something your soul doesn't want you to do, it will usually focus on what five things?
- Why is it both difficult and ineffective to try to take authority over your unsundered soul and its issues?
- Unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved issues can make you feel very needy, hard to get along with, and fully miserable when your soul does not get its way. What is the danger that they also present?

- Your ability to trust, obey, and cooperate with God does not depend only on the amount of faith that you have. What else is involved?
- Who do cults and other dangerous quasi-religious groups seek out most often for their groups?
- Do you really know why God supports some stands of faith that we might make and not others?
- What causes many to have identity crises as they start praying these prayers?

The Unsundered Soul Part 2<sub>6</sub>

- Full explanation and teaching of the colored Unsundered Soul Chart showing how your soul runs its dynamics and its games in your life.
- What is generational bondage thinking?
- What is cultural and religious bondage thinking?
- Learn what drives your emotional reactions and symptoms such as fear and anger.
- Why did God give you the ability to get angry since it can seem to get you into so much trouble?
- The emotion of fear is aroused by a belief that something very negative is headed your way. How do the binding and loosing prayers free you from this wrong thinking?
- Why does your unsundered soul often turn to old, wrong patterns of behavior when it is fearful or in pain?
- Do you have to have all your stronghold thinking down before God can use you?

It's Not About You Anymore<sub>7</sub>

- What is the same parable in Luke 8:5-8 and Matthew 13:37-38 not really the same?
- All the promises that God gave to Abraham and to those who would believe in Jesus Christ were encoded as spiritual DNA to be placed where?
- Understanding how plowing, planting, and pruning are involved to prepare you for your destiny purposes.
- The world is not blessed and changed to see someone live a blessed and privileged life. What is it about your life that can most bless and change the world?
- You have three choices when someone spills their bad day and bad attitude all over you. Do you know what they are?
- Everything you do causes some form of reaction in those who are watching you. What is it?
- Although John 14:14 tells us that if we pray in Jesus' name, we will get whatever we ask from the Father, this doesn't always happen? Do you know why?
- God set Joseph and Daniel in situations that are hard to understand. There came a day when God had everything in place and He did what? How does this relate to your life?

Praying for Others With the Keys of the Kingdom<sub>8</sub>

- Why is it so important to deal with your own feelings before you pray the Keys of the Kingdom binding and loosing prayers for others?

- When someone gets in your face about God and your beliefs, what might their hidden motive really be?
- What are the grave clothes that so many people hang on others? What can you do about them?
- Why is it not true (as so many unsundered souls want to believe) that it is NOT witchcraft to bind someone else's will to God's will.
- God generally won't violate the wills of those we pray for, yet He will allow them to maneuver themselves into impossible corners to help them decide what?
- Learn how to pray with the highly effective ripple effect style of praying.
- Do you know how to pray powerful right prayers with someone who has just asked you to agree with a wrong prayer without offending or upsetting them?

Praying for Your Family With the Keys of the Kingdom<sub>9</sub>

- Do you know how to be the one who fulfills Isaiah 58:12 in your family?
- What is the importance and the power of loosing the negative effects and influences of wrong agreements made by you and by other family members?
- What is the most important thing you can do to impact others' tendencies to make more wrong agreements?
- What Scripture validates loosing the works of the enemy from yourself and from others?
- How you can fulfill Ephesians 6:2-3 (Amplified) if your parents were not nurturing and kind, but abusive to you?
- How should you deal with the difference between negative symptoms and the sources of those symptoms?
- How to be completely awareness of what love would always do and what love would never do.
- Learning how to express love to others even in very difficult situations.

Relationships<sub>10</sub>

- Learning how to know when Satan is counterfeiting the voice of God.
- Many make what mistake because they think that it will help them have a better relationship with God.
- Learning the difference between involuntary abuse and voluntarily intimacy.
- When you look back at how your parents loved you, what are you usually measuring their love against?
- What can you begin loosing from yourself and from your spouse to help you cooperate with what God wants to do to help your marriage?
- If your marriage is in trouble and you both believe you are incompatible with each other, it may not be true. Learn what the incompatibility probably really is.
- What are some common expectations between husbands and wives that can be destructive to their relationships?
- What can you do to cooperate with God if you are longing for a mate?

The Freedom of Forgiveness<sub>11</sub>

- Mark 11:25 (Amplified), “And when you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, and let it drop (leave it, let it go), in order that your Father Who is in heaven may also forgive you your [own] failings and shortcomings and let them drop.”
- Integrity comes from the word integrate, meaning your beliefs, words, and actions need to be perfectly integrated. If you say you love Him, your actions must be to love and forgive others.
- On a wall in Folsom prison, “If you can't do the time, don't do the crime.” Why are so many believers in prisons of their own making doing the time for somebody else's crime against them?
- Why should you forgive a molester, a rapist, or an abuser? Because God says this is how you remove yourself from the equation of pain, anger, and fear that you've not known how to get free from.
- Begin dealing with your unforgiveness by praying the binding and loosing prayers for yourself, particularly loosing any wrong thinking towards the other person.
- If you refuse to forgive, you end up bound to your transgressor unable to move forward any faster than you can drag that person and his/her offenses along with you.
- Do not confuse having to walk out the consequences of something you have done wrong with whether or not God has forgiven you for having done it.
- Forgiveness is like taking an emotional shower.

Understanding Soul Power and Soulish Prayers<sub>(12)</sub>

- Your soul and your spirit are two separate entities existing within your body. As a believer, your born-again spirit is now connected to the Spirit of God.
- Satan desires to control human soul power for spreading wickedness among mankind which is why he always tries to interfere with your attempts to surrender your soul.
- After Adam and Eve suffered spirit-to-Spirit separation in the Garden, God had to reduce the power of their souls because there no more Spirit-to-spirit safety guards on them. Do you know what this means?
- Why should people want what a believer “has” if they see believers get just as angry and stressed out as they do?
- The renewal process in your soul is like an urban release project and old junk that has to be torn down, loosed, and thrown out. Natural and spiritual restoration always starts at ground zero.
- You need to loose soul ties formed with former sexual partners to keep that other person from fantasizing about you and the former things you did together.
- Read Deuteronomy 30:6 and ask yourself if you want God to do that same surgery on the walls of your heart/soul without your cooperation?
- Or, do you want to begin loosing the calluses from your heart/soul as best as you can right now?

The Incredible Power of Agreement<sup>13</sup>

- Agreement is a law just like gravity is a law. Right and godly agreement results in light and good. Wrong ungodly agreement results in darkness and evil.
- We need to be in agreement with the reality of situations we are facing. God wants us to learn that things are not always what they seem to be.
- Unchallenged large-scale wrong agreements can cause generation after generation to share consequences.
- You cannot rebuke consequences. Every wrong word or behavior has a negative consequence. God's grace will NOT keep you from having to walk through the consequences of your deliberate wrong choices.
- The conscience is part of the soul. It is strengthened by the Word and by right choices and moral practices. It is weakened and seared by repeated acts of sin and wrongdoing.
- There are times when you submit to authorities only because you have to. What is the difference between this kind of submitting and choosing to surrender to God?
- Obedience in the world says I will obey you as long as there is something in it for me. True obedience says I will obey God whether I get something or have to give up everything; I will obey Him whether I live or I die.
- Disobedience causes your soul to become rigid and legalistic, blocked from hearing from God and from receiving healing and peace from God.
- If God has to pressure you to position you for your destiny, His pressure can get pretty intense when destiny purposes are at stake.

Understanding and Breaking Soul Ties<sup>(14)</sup>

- Soul ties are the result of wrong agreements between people that seem to promise perceived benefits to those involved.
- Many do not understand the concept of real freedom which is the escaping of the grasp of anything attempting to control, trap, ensnare, addict, enslave, or program you.
- Sometimes God does not answer your prayers because the answer you want would enable you to stay right where you are—comfortable and in control.
- Sometimes God places growth inhibitors in your life as safety measures when you're not in the right place yet to jump into your full destiny.
- People with a lot of unmet needs in their lives gravitate towards each other or towards extremely strong people they feel will protect them. How can you detect these personal motives in others?
- Perceived benefits in wrong agreements can range from soulish prayers to seeking personal support and taking sides to avoiding blackmail to fornication.
- Husband and wife need to relate to God first and then to each other. If you have a soul tie with your mate, you almost always push God out of the equation of a successful marriage.

- You cannot loose or cut a soul tie in someone else's life, but there is something powerful you can do.

The Dangers of Toxic Thinking<sup>(3)</sup>

- Toxic thinking has terrible consequences. Long-term anger and stress cause releases of chemical into your bloodstream that sear the organs in your body like acid on metal.
- Chronic stress and tension cause your blood vessels to severely constrict, hindering oxygen and nutrients getting to your organs/tissues and metabolic waste being carried away. That waste accumulates in your muscles and joints.
- Some people think they thrive on stress, not realizing they are making withdrawals from their body at a very high rate of interest.
- Depression is a toxic emotional/psychological/physical state that if untreated causes damage to your body. David said (Psalm 32:3), "When I keep it all inside, my bones turned to powder, my words became daylong groans. The pressure never let up; all the juices of my life dried up."
- Physiological stress and toxic emotions can cause $1000 worth of damage to your brain cells over 2 cents worth of anger and frustration with another person.
- You cannot bind yourself to peace and calm. But you can bind your mind to the mind of Christ and then loose what to begin to receive His peace?
- You cannot bind yourself to courage or confidence, but you can loose fearful thoughts that tear at your confidence in God.
- Use your Keys of the Kingdom payers the minute you need help. Don't wait until later or when you get home.

Physical Healing<sup>4</sup>

- Your unsundered soul can block divine healing: Proverbs 14:30 (Amplified) tells us, "A calm and undisturbed mind and heart (the soul) are the life and health of the body, but envy, jealousy, and wrath are like rottenness of the bones."
- Wrong thoughts in your soul can provide access to a natural attack (bugs, infections, viruses, etc.) or a demonic attack in your body—as well as accidents.
- Sickness, and disease can originate in your body from physical causes, soulish problems, or a demonic attack, but they can remain in your body because of wrong input, wrong mindsets, or a continual recycling of wrong words.
- Regarding your bad health, you may be in a reaping cycle from wrong agreements you have sown or accepted when others sowed them in your past. What will help most?
- How can a born-again Christian have an emotional or a mental breakdown?
- There does not appear to be any New Testament passage where any of the disciples or Jesus prayed for healing or asked God to heal someone. Nor was anything said about a level of faith or state of sin before Jesus healed people. What is God's natural answer for what we have done to ourselves with stress, unforgiveness, and other abuses?

- What are the three Scriptures God used to pull Liberty from her self-induced, pain-pill fogginess she learned would dull the pain of her hip replacement, the loss of her parents, her pancreatitis surgery, and her Graves Disease?

Spiritual Warfare, Servant Leadership, and Praying for Leaders Worldwide<sub>15</sub>

- The enemy greatest weapon is his power to deceive you when you are operating in a soulish realm.
- First John 3:8 tells us that Jesus came to destroy the works of the enemy. The words loose (in Matthew 16:19) and destroy are identical in the original Greek.
- We cannot bind or loose Satan himself. But we can destroy the assignments and the works he tries to bring against us and those we are praying for.
- If you going into a demonically challenged area to visit or minister, be sure that you are well prepared by being freshly filled up with the Word. Don't just read the parts of the Word that speak of your power over Satan. What parts should you focus upon?
- A good leader must never develop a following of wounded people who have become dependent upon him or her.
- There is a temptation to consider authority and power necessary to be a strong leader. It does not take a lot of authority and power to take the hand of a wounded lamb and lead him or her into growing up in Christ.
- Never become so spiritually high minded that you forget the human needs of your people.
- Treat everyone with respect whether you like them or not.

Liberty's Teaching Techniques and Application<sub>16</sub>

This is one teaching you just need to experience!

Negotiating Forgiveness Devotion
by Jon Walker of Saddleback Church

In surfing the Internet, I was drawn to this excellent devotional out of Jon Walker's new book (see live link at end of article if you want to order from Saddleback online):

For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins Matthew 6:14-15 (NIV).

When it comes to forgiveness, we're tough negotiators. We open with an offer like, "I'll forgive you, if . . ." Then we follow with a subtle concession that sounds like a confession: "I can't forgive her until she learns her lesson."

When we think the other side is stonewalling, we take off the gloves: "If I forgive him, he'll just think he got away with it."

We think we're negotiating for God; we think we're negotiating for their souls; we think we're negotiating for justice, when all we're really doing is negotiating for control over the situation.

Truth says we can't conduct these negotiations. We're ambassadors of the King, and we represent not our own but the King's intentions as well as His character. The King says forgive and that means we forgive. See the period at the end of the previous sentence? We forgive.

The King's instructions are clear and unambiguous: If you forgive those who sin against you, then the King will forgive you for your sins against him. If you don't forgive those who sin against you, then the King won't forgive you for your sins against Him. No room for negotiation there.

Anything else, such as saying, "I'll forgive him, if . . ." isn't really forgiving; it's just negotiating, and God's court of justice will not recognize contracts made without kingly authority or permission.

The question is not should, if, or can someone be forgiven; the true question is will you make the choice to forgive?

Life Coaching - FREE 15-Minute Life Coaching Session with Liberty by Phone – OFFER EXTENDED

Once more I want to extend the FREE 15-Minute Life Coaching offer for another month. I have been so pleased to call and talk and pray with so many different people in response to this offer. This has included believers all over America and in Canada, Scotland, Australia, and England.

Just go to www.libertysavardlifecoaching.com and sign up for your free 15-Minute Life Coaching phone call from me, and I will call you (I use Skype for international calls when I can get it to work, so would appreciate your prayers on that!). You will get a short questionnaire back so that I don't have to take up a lot of the 15-Minute Free Session asking about who you are. Anything you say will be kept confidential. I will call you on the date and at the time we establish.

I am excited and grateful for these new testimonials from my current Life Coaching clients:

Liberty, Thank you for the hour we spent together in our session! Learned so much. Within the past two weeks I have come out of denial regarding Judith's (my daughter) drug problem. In the meantime, I want to continue to learn as much as possible. I have spent so much wasted time dealing "with demons" and waiting for God to "do something." Thank you again for your obedience years ago so that I'm now learning how to cooperate with what God is doing. Hannah, KY

Liberty, I just want to thank you for pointing me to God. Sometimes it would be very easy in our sessions to look to you instead of God first. Dan, MD

I have been through counseling several different ways and I have used your binding and loosing prayers. I believed the counseling helped me tremendously, but no one ever consistently gave me advice like you do on how to approach God so I could have an ongoing relationship with Him. I believe that your life coaching came into my life at the right time. Donna, DC

Thank you for our first session. You know how I mentioned that God doesn't seem to talk to me anymore? I must tell you what happened this morning. I awoke very early and just lay quietly while my mind filled with verses of Scripture (mainly from Isaiah), all the lovely words God speaks to us so personally like, "I am holding you by your right hand" and "I have called you by name, you are mine." I heard His voice! Hallelujah! Jesus says that His sheep know Him and recognise His voice, so I will recognise it again. This is really encouraging. Can't wait to see what happens next! Carrie, Scotland

Questions and Answers

Dear Liberty, It's Marian again from Canada needing a bit more advice. I don't know who else to talk to so as to not dishonor my husband. He doesn't want to work, and he's full of fear and anger. He is neglecting himself terribly. Last year I actually left the house with no desire to go back except for the children because of his extreme outbursts of anger. He can make me feel loved one minute, and then flies into a rage the next. I have seen great breakthroughs in him through binding and loosing prayers and I continue to pray, but there is such intense sadness and disappointment in me that is getting harder for me to hide. Help!

Marian: There may be some medical issues behind his behavior. You should definitely continue to pray the binding and loosing prayers for yourself and for your husband. In fact, I hope you are praying these prayers very consistently for yourself and your children first of all. You say you saw improvement with the binding and loosing prayers, but now you are losing any desire to go on because you don't see God doing anything in him.

This is your own time table and expectations that are disappointing you. I understand wanting to see some improvement, but as long as you are praying those prayers for your husband without interjecting any personal judgment, opinions, or critical words into them, I promise that God is working behind the scenes. Give Him your faith and trust and let Him do what He wants to do in a way that will produce the best results for everyone.

That doesn't mean you don't have a right to be concerned and even "complain" to God—just don't do it in your binding and loosing prayers for your husband. Keep those prayers pure and clean, free of personal opinions and expectations. Spend as much time as you can in the Word to reinforce what you are praying. Ask God for direction and guidance. I prayed for all of you today. Liberty

Testimonies

I am so blessed to be part of the LSM International Intercessors' Prayer Group for 2010. It keeps me focused and realizing that only God has the answers to all the world's problems. Lulu, Hawaii

Dear Liberty, I am doing a Bible study with a group of ladies at church. One of the gals sent a link to something she found inspiring. So I decided since we were sharing, I would send everyone a copy of the Binding and Loosing prayer from Shattering your Strongholds. I hope this was all right.

One friend wrote back and thanked me for reminding her of the prayer that was so essential to her when she first started her walk with God. Another said her husband prayed it regularly. Last night one personally thanked me for your prayer, saying she had printed it out and put it in her car. She said she prays it out loud every day before she gets out of her car to go to work. She works in retail sales and says it really helps her get through the day.

One the women in the group had some very horrific thing happen to her during her childhood, and she has had a couple meltdowns during our study. Last night she showed up with a copy of Shattering Your Strongholds. She told me one of the other ladies gave it to her and she is reading it because she really wants to be free. Thank you for writing it. Susie, OR

Hello Liberty: I want to thank you for replying previously. I also want to share with you and thank God for the revelations He has given to you. I am reading and re-reading Shattering Your Strongholds and it has given me such an amazing peace in my life. After nearly 3 years of a tormented mind of unmet needs, rejection, and a multitude of other things, I now know of the Keys of binding and loosing and do claim them. I have had a number of dreams that I have been given keys, one even wrestling with someone to take back a set of keys. So your book in this season has been hidden gold that the Lord has revealed to me. Thank you so much for your labour of love. It is a privilege for me to be able to pray for you and the labour of love that has been entrusted to you. Your sister in Christ, Erina (Do you remember me? I told you I was an Australian Maori in my previous e-mail.)

*Work like you don't need the money.
Love like you've never been hurt.
Dance like nobody's watching.
Sing like nobody's listening.
Live like it's Heaven on Earth.*

This is about what you just said in your last monthly newsletter regarding your Life Coaching and learning how not to drop-kick people into the truth. How much truth does someone want, especially if wallowing in misery has become a way of life? If some folks cannot talk about anything else than how miserable they are, a correction in course would leave them nothing to say. Alarming to them, perhaps, but frustrating to us who do not want to live a "soap opera" life and can identify when someone else is doing just that in ignorance. God said, My people perish for lack of knowledge. JJ, SC

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry teaches Christians how to cause their unsundered souls (old natures) to surrender to the will and purposes of God. LSM also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them for today. This allows believers to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! This ministry also teaches God's people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19) to impact things on earth so they come into alignment with God's already established will in heaven. This ministry is also dedicated to training Christians how to pray purely without "want lists" and instruction manuals for God (so He will know how best to answer their prayers!). Effective prayers with pure motives declare that God's will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
