Note from Liberty

We've had some great meetings recently (North Carolina, Montana, Alabama, for a few!) as I am now moving into teaching from Producing the Promise which was released in July of this year. There have been many exciting reports coming back in from the new book.

Please pray for upcoming meetings in Ontario, Wisconsin, and British Columbia. Also, I and a team will be going into Chowchilla Correctional Facilities for Women on October 16th. I will be teaching three separate groups of 150 in the chapel, and want every minute to be spent in giving keys to hope and life in Him.

We have prepared for much growth we're expecting within the next few months: We've completed the office expansion, created the LSM Training Center, hired a new employee, added Board Directors, completed computerization of invoicing and shipping, and more. I believe we are getting ready before the surge hits, instead of playing "catch up" later. Exciting, but scary!

Mini-Notes

- The Breaking the Power Workbook completed text looks very exciting in the computer, but the integration of different versions of formatting keeps getting more and more complicated. Prayer is requested, please.
- Shattering Your Strongholds* being translated into Spanish to be released during February 2000. Prayer is needed, as many are working on it. Unfortunately, Yo Quiero, Taco Bell? is my best phrase of Spanish.
- Watch for the December issue of Charisma Magazine, where some of the principles of PTP and even newer revelation will be in an article by "yours truly."
- Please be sure to notice two new tape sets available: Dispatching Territorial Spirits, and Producing the Promise Blitz III. Also, new album covers.
- Handling charge is going up to $3.95 to help offset our increased shipping costs. We will have more control over where packages are with UPS tracking.
- We will be raising all resource prices on January 1, 2000. We want to give everyone a chance to not only order at existing prices, but to also take advantage of our 4th quarter sale prices in time for gifts.
- We are reducing our Breaking the Power Video Seminar from $135.00 to $99.00 for this quarter only.

LSM Training Center Schedule

We were very pleased with the response to our first Blitzes in the new LSM Training Center. The word "blitz" means an all-out assault on opposing forces. We're assaulting the forces of wounded pasts and worldly discouragement. We have scheduled several more Blitz format sessions in the upcoming months.

- Mini Blitz for WOMEN ONLY Oct. 18, 1999
 - Discerning Destiny Blitz.....Nov. 5-6, 1999

Oct. 18, Pastor Diane Gardner

A special Mini-Blitz for WOMEN ONLY entitled: Overcoming Shame by Rev. Diane. Those who attended the Mentoring Conference last year will remember her dynamic teaching! Women can become professional shame carriers. Shame can paralyze your decision-making abilities, your inter-personal relationships, and your relationship with God. This Mini-Blitz will identify shame and its long-term effects—then give you the tools to combat its power so it can never conquer you again. Cost: $18.00. Begins promptly at 6:00 p.m.

Nov. 5-6, 1999: Rev. Sean Smith

Evangelist/Prophet Sean Smith (heard at Conference last year) will be teaching Friday and Saturday on Developing Dynamic Devotions. Exciting insight on how to fellowship with the Holy Spirit, discerning divine directions, and hearing God’s voice. Seating limited to first 28 registrations. Your personal opportunity to ask Rev. Sean questions and receive prophetic ministry following the sessions. Six(+) hours of teaching sessions plus Q&A and personal ministry: Cost: $55.00. Sessions begin 6:30 p.m. Friday and continue Saturday.

Nov. 12-13, 1999: Missionary Roland Ashby

Roland Ashby (Conference last year) will be teaching on Sowing into Your Child’s Destiny. The Ashbys regularly take hundreds of kids into cross-cultural situations and train them to go out into the streets and set the captives free! Their 11 year old son, Nick, accompanies them around the world on prayer trips. Learn how to teach your kids and other kids to have a paradigm shift of thinking about Kingdom service to others. Cost: $55.00. Sessions same as above.

This will allow for interaction on a more intimate level than larger seminars. Write now, call our office, fax an inquiry, or send an e-mail for further information. Or, you can register on our website secure site order page.

Watch Out for Discouragement!

“Expect a valley after a mountain top experience with God!” I’ve wondered if this was true, or if it was setting people up for a self-fulfilling prophecy. It probably is true—BUT you don’t have to go there! In the Old Testament, courage generally means to prevail, to be firm, to withstand, to be resolute. The word courage generally means confidence in the New Testament. Confidence in God gives you courage and boldness to stand wherever He wants you to take a stand.

Following our first large conference last fall, I was “warned” by well-meaning friends to watch out for the inevitable “valley” that would surely follow. I paid little attention, resolved to hold the victory I felt, but forgot to occupy the land of my soul with the same resolve. I went on the road for two weeks immediately following the conference and when I came home, within hours everything facing me seemed excessively difficult. My sense of accomplishment disappeared, my outlook for future victories plummeted, and I slowly sank into a pit of discouragement. I clearly remember the first Saturday in December of last year, approximately three weeks later, as I sat in my home methodically planning out how to pull out of my traveling ministry, close down my offices, release my staff, and retreat to my home to write. Then I heard God speak to me, saying, “That is exactly what ‘they’ want you to do.”

I have always had a stubborn streak that arises whenever I feel I am being manipulated into doing something others are trying to get me to do. I jumped up and shouted, “Then I won’t do what ‘they’ want me to do. I’ll keep doing what you have set in place for me to do with the offices and the staff you have given, and go forth with all of your promises, God!”

I felt a huge cloud of darkness quickly rise up off of me and disappear. I had not even known it existed until it was gone. I began to recognize that whenever I would come off a successful road trip, I would battle despair, discouragement, and hopelessness. I knew then that the territorial oppression over the Sacramento area was much heavier than I had realized. I shared this with my staff and some of the board prior to my last trip out of town. They determined to begin to help pray against the oppression I would face as soon as I returned home.

The night I returned (a week ago) from Alabama where the victories were tremendous, I was sitting in my living room thinking of all that had happened. I became aware of a small cloud of discouragement. I immediately said, “Oh no you don’t! I’m not going there! I bind my mind to your mind, Jesus, and I bind my will to your will, God. I loose all power tactics of any demonic influence or oppression —territorial, local, big or little or others—I loose it all from myself, my ministry, my family, and my staff. I will not be dis-couraged, I will en-courage myself in you, Lord. I have full confidence and trust in your goodness, mercy, grace, power, wisdom, and plans for me. Thank you, God.”

To en-courage means to try to give courage;
to dis-courage means to try to take courage away.
Just as en-able means to try to give ability;
dis-able means to try to take ability away.
Be aware that your words have power.

In John 21:18, Jesus told Peter: “I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you . . .” (NIV). In other words, Peter would be so old someday, he would not be able to care for himself and others would have to. In Acts 12:1-6, we read that Herod the king killed James (the brother of John) and seeing that it pleased the people, he took Peter prisoner to do the same. Verse 6 says, “And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison” (KJV).

Peter, knowing that he was being held for execution plans, lay down between two soldiers and slept—so soundly that an angel had to hit him in the next verse to wake him up. Peter had driven down a “tent stake” that he was going to be an old man someday, so he knew that he could not be executed while he was still young.

I have driven down a “tent stake” in memory of the first Saturday of December 1998 when I realized the dis-couragement the forces of darkness were pressing down upon me. I have made the choice to never forget the breakthrough I had with God that day. I choose to always remember that discouragement, doubt, despair, hopelessness, fear, and every other negative emotional feeling I may feel DOES NOT COME FROM GOD.

God never uses such negative emotional feelings to guide us, teach us, or direct us.

Establish that thought in your mind!

Determine that you will automatically loose these negative emotional reactions out of your soul and you will loose the power tactics of the enemy whenever he is trying to force them upon you.

There is too much en-couraging and en-abling in God’s promises to you for you to have to be constantly undoing dis-couraging and dis-abling from the enemy from yourself. Stop downloading the enemy’s voice mails, e-mails, and snail mails, and you won’t have to clean up the fall out from them! Affirm now that God is for you, God wants you to be en-couraged, en-abled, empowered, and assured of His love towards you. Anything that doesn’t fit into that list is not worth your examination and analyzation. Just loose it and get back to His destiny plans for you.

Faith and Fear

To understand God’s truth means your self-perceptions of something become aligned with God’s reality of the thing being perceived (Thayers). When was the last time you ran a reality check on your perceptions of God's Word?

Faith and fear are two areas of extreme teachings about what God has said that are setting up many for delusion and doubting of God's faithfulness. Faith is being taught as a force, as a weapon to use against Satan, and as a means of "spiritual financing" for what the human soul wants. Charismatic teachers often say that faith is a tangible spiritual force with the ability to produce natural substance.

Paul used the Greek word hypostasis for substance in Hebrews 11:1 (faith is the substance of things hoped for . . .), which means a steadfast mind having courage, resolve, confidence, and trust in God's goodness (Thayers). Nothing here implies a tangible substance produced by positive thinking!

New Testament Greek almost always defines faith as having trust and confidence in the goodness, wisdom, and power of God. This means I don't have to figure out how to save the world, my family, my ministry, my bank account, or my reputation—nor do I have to save myself from the devil. I just need to trust and obey what God truly has said. True faith is a place of rest and peace because it trusts an omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresent God to take care of all of the details

Regardless of how much 'faith' we think we have, disobedience to what God has said (such as Eph. 4:26, "Do not let the sun go down on your anger") creates access for Satan to get in the details of our self-agendas! Is there a Christian alive who has not gone to bed angry and then tried to rationalize and justify having done so? How often must God wonder, "What part of Eph. 4:26 don't they get?" Rationalizing and justifying build strongholds in our souls, and Eph. 4:27 (AMP) tells of their consequences: they give the devil room, foothold, and opportunity in our lives. Satan uses such access to attack believers in spite of their authority in Christ.

Authority can be useless when open doors of access are continually presented to an enemy. Military leaders know there isn't a smart enemy alive who won't use such doors to attack, slash, and burn—and Satan will, too.

Fear is another subject of extreme teachings today. Many people have been taught that there is a demonic spirit of fear. This usually comes from 2 Timothy 1:7, "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind" (KJV). The NIV is clearer, "God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a spirit of power, of love and of self-discipline." Thayer's defines pneuma (spirit) as used in 2 Timothy 1:7 to mean "being filled with the same spirit as Christ, and by the bond of that spirit to be intimately united to Christ."

Regenerated human spirits have no room for fear within themselves—because they are filled with the Spirit of Christ. Fear is an emotional voice mail or e-mail from your soul that says: No trust and confidence in God.

Fear is a symptom of an unresolved issue in the soul churning out emotional confusion, doubt, and lack of trust. As long as such unresolved issues exist, the enemy can pressure them with copycat circumstances of the situations that birthed them in the first place. Fear is not an evil spirit. You cannot be delivered of a lack of trust. Nor can you have wrong thinking, damaged emotions, and unresolved issues cast out of your soul. You choose to dismantle your soul's self-defense systems (see 2 Cor. 10:3-5) to give God voluntary access to heal you.

What Has God Really Said?

God has said that our souls are key factors in His plans which are much larger than our personal need for comfort zones. He has said, "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves (their souls), and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways (of their souls), then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their (souls') sin and heal their land" (2 Chron. 7:14, NKJ). If you think you are exempted from that Scripture because you don't have any "wicked ways," the Hebrew word for wicked (ways), ra', includes the characteristics of being disagreeable and unkind to others. Hello?

God has said that His people turning away from wrong attitudes and self-centeredness would bring about the healing of their land.
God has not said warring directly with Satan and his demons would heal their land.

In Daniel 9 (AMP), Daniel prayed and confessed the corporate wrong agreement of God's people in captivity in Babylon: "We have sinned and dealt perversely and done wickedly and have rebelled, turning aside from Your commandments and ordinances (vs. 5) . . . We have not earnestly begged for forgiveness and entreated the favor of the Lord our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and have understanding and become wise in Your truth" (vs. 13).

At this time in the Bible, the captive Israelites had been and were still coming into wrong agreements about what God was saying to them through His prophets. These wrong agreements had created "legal" grounds for Satan to establish a territorial dominion over them—controlled by the demonic prince of Persia. Wrong agreement always gives right of access to Satan's workings.

Daniel sought right agreement with God through repentant praying and confessing the sins of his people, and God swiftly sent archangels Gabriel and Michael to take out the prince of Persia. Far too many believers are wanting to achieve “power-Christian” status in themselves for warring in the heavenlies, rather than working to surrender and submit themselves in humility to be servants of God. God wants us to humble ourselves and submit our wills to Him. He has not called us to bypass Him and go directly to ordering Satan around.

Ephesians 3:9-10 (NKJ) tells us that God plans “to make all see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ; (vs. 10) to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known BY THE CHURCH to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places.” There are the same demonic forces as in Ephesians 6:12, “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.”

God’s manifold wisdom in Ephesians 3:10 will be made known (through the Church) to principalities, powers, and rulers of darkness when the body of Christ comes into alignment with 2 Chronicles 7:14 to humble themselves and pray (using Daniel 9:5-13 as a pattern for prayer). This appears to be the exact opposite of the Charismatic “power-Christianity” being modeled today.

What if God’s manifold wisdom is to use His own servant-natured children as vessels of His power to take Satan down? Would that not be the ultimate humiliation for Satan who surely wants an all out, final war with heaven itself?

If Christian believers could just see their lives through the perspective of such a plan, could it not help clarify what must be put off and put away of wrong understandings in each of us in order to be a part? I believe God has said: “If you want to get everything that you pray for, just pray right prayers.” Right prayers want His will done. He only asks us to be an instrument to transmit His will through. He prefers to do all of the power stuff himself!

Testimonies

Dear Rev. Savard - I am a Presbyterian Minister with two doctorates and I have been a Christian for over thirty years. I have struggled with not understanding why my life was so full of sin and pain—and why the Word of God did not manifest itself in my life. Your book is a gift from God! Thank you for allowing God to crush you so that He could pour out His Blessings through you. PP

May the Creator of Life bless you for your faithfulness. I have recently read Shattering Your Strongholds and am now reading Breaking the Power. Your books are answering questions that I have had for years, especially: why all of the techniques we have tried have not set us free to walk naturally as the children of God? I believe that what God has revealed to you about us being our own worst enemies, and that the enemy lurking behind every rock is most likely our own unsundered souls, is true. Finally, God willing, the answer to walking out our destinies as God’s children, as the orderers of this created world, are at hand. I look forward to the power of using these keys in my life and in the lives that I serve. Pastor of S.F. Charismatic Episcopal Church.

My name is GB. Quite by accident I found the book Shattering Your Strongholds. I do not know where it came from, but I am giving God praise that He put it there for me. It has made a drastic change in my life as well as in my fiancée, family, and friends. I went straight to the bookstore upon reading only the first few pages and bought books for all my loved ones. I now have the workbook and have everyone working it with me. I have been a Christian all my life and just couldn’t figure out what was wrong with me. I am 50 years old and now I feel like I am 20 again. I have energy and peace that I can’t explain. I love people and see good in them where before I couldn’t. I know that God loves me. I am so happy I found your books. G

Liberty, I want to thank you for SYS. I have read many books and gone to numerous counselors since becoming a Christian 5 years ago, but this is the one (as I know you have heard many times over) that has changed my life entirely! I have never felt such freedom and peace as when I bind and loose. It is something I am working on using for each situation I come across. My husband physically abused me, but stopped after becoming a Christian, then emotional abuse took its place instead. Each counselor we went to seemed to confirm that I had every right to be mad and angry (“look at what you have been through,” or “of course you are hurting, you poor woman”). I felt completely justified for my reactions towards my husband. But SYS was the first revelation I ever had that MY reactions to what is going on could not be blamed on anyone but myself.

Slowly I have been experiencing a freedom from anger and bitterness. I find myself running for my Bible and SYS Workbook when I feel angry or hurt, to bind and loose. I have just started to pray for my husband, and he seemed to change almost immediately. But then it gradually started getting worse again. I figure I must have disrupted Satan's plan somewhere because he seems awfully intent on making life hard for me.

I can't tell you what it means to me to finally know that I have the keys to the Kingdom, and I will continue to make room for all that God wants to give to me. You have blessed me and my family. Thank you, KH

Liberty! What you teach causes people to have to be accountable for their attitudes and for maintenance of their own souls. That is so scary for some who just want to be told what to do. If you ever get discouraged about people's reactions to your teachings, please remember that this is part of what happens as people work through their messes with the Holy Spirit. The chapter where you describe wrong agreements in a prayer line which allow demons to get involved (even for a few moments)—the ramifications of that are staggering! Wow. I can see where clinging to being bound to the Lord and His Word is the answer to most anything. K

My name is GK, I am German, married to a Norwegian, and moved to the US to attend Bible School. When reading Breaking the Power, especially about some Christian leaders confronting your position on three of the counterfeit manifestations of the unsundered soul (wounded inner child, multiple personality disorder, repressed memory syndrome), I just wanted to encourage you to go ahead. Please don't be quiet about these issues. I have this same cry in me when I hear about people being manipulated by their own souls. I, too, see how many accept wrong beliefs and are kept in prison through that. I feel what the Lord has been showing to you (expressed in your books) will be part of the foundation of my and my wife's ministry. Thank you for pioneering the way!

Questions & Answers

Question: I am teaching SYS and the workbook to a group in our home. On pages 69 and 70, chapter 4, you talk about being "prayed up," walking in His will, and being filled daily with His word. Then you say: "If you are bound to the will and purposes of the Father with no doors of access open in your own soul, you will be used to bring victory." Can we ever really be free of every stronghold in our lives or is this a continual process?

Answer: I believe that just like Rahab the harlot in Joshua, God will use us wherever we are with Him when and if the intent of our heart is totally towards Him. The heart is the soul, and even if we say it is totally towards Him, He is the only one who knows what may still be hidden within it that resists Him. But God can always use us as long as we are pressuring our souls to surrender and to pursue His will the best we know how. When, by the words of our mouths, we loose ALL personal agendas, beliefs, and mindsets in our souls, we take down the "high things" our souls would exalt against our full knowledge of God (2 Corinthians 10:3-6). By doing this, we make room for His will to be the guiding force of our lives. I will pray for your group. Rev. Liberty Savard

Question: Rev. Savard, Suicide seems an easy way out right now. Why shouldn't I stop the pain? D

Answer: Reading your e-mail, I can see how you might "think" this is the easy way. You do not want to live out the consequences of such an act in eternity. You need to loose all soul ties, the effects and influences of wrong agreements you have entered into, and wrong thought patterns from yourself. You need to bind yourself to the will and purposes of God and bind your mind to the mind of Christ. This conflict is not about everyone you listed in your e-mail, it is about you, D—about your relationship with Christ, about your life in eternity. You have to get your focus off of everyone else, especially off your straying mate, and onto your relationship with Christ and let His love comfort you. He wants you to see His truth—not the truth your soul is trying to piece together and analyze from your circumstances. I'm praying for you. Rev. Liberty Savard

Question: I just started binding and loosing and I am experiencing anger like I have never felt before. When you start binding and loosing, is it normal for things from your past to come up that you thought you had forgotten? I have read both of your books, but maybe not deep enough, because the answers are probably there. J

Answer: The anger you're now experiencing has always been buried in your soul. You are loosing and stripping away the safeguards and the defense systems your soul has used to hold it in place. But it will poison you if you do not let it surface. Pray that God will cover those around you with grace and mercy as it comes out. Don't try to cover it up again, but let God show you the true source of it and heal you. Things you don't remember can and will surface as you pray these prayers. Your soul has buried them and now you're breaking apart its defense system. This might be a little frightening, but it is a good sign. God wants to get your healing on the road and soon. Rev. Liberty Savard

Question: Dear Liberty, I have finished reading SYS and BTP. I can't seem to get enough. I enjoy everything I've read, and I've been using the training wheels prayers and things are happening. I know I am doing something right, but find myself confused about some things in different areas. I have had problems with rejection and insecurity. Are these symptoms or strongholds?

Answer: Rejection and insecurity are symptoms of deeper sources of unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved issues—sources that are protected by strongholds in an attempt to prevent further pain.

It isn't always important to know exactly which "source" is the cause, as it may be an overlapping of all three. The important thing is to know that something is causing the symptoms you have mentioned. There is nothing humanly possible to get rid of them on a permanent basis. The only thing that can permanently deal with such symptoms is to work on allowing access into the deepest part of your soul, protected by stronghold thinking, so God can enter in and heal the SOURCES.

God desires a voluntary surrendering of your defense systems of stronghold thinking patterns: rationalizing, justifying, and defending why you are the way you are, who is to blame, and why you can't change. You need to be praying with a focused understanding of what you are doing. Some people read or pray the words without any real involvement. I tell people to focus on every word they are praying with the expectation that something is going to change within them to let God get deeper within their soul's defense systems. You now need to become a little more intense about what you are doing and what you are believing God to do.

"I bind my will to your will, God." Think about what you actually believe you are doing when you pray this. Are you just hoping His will will override your will and keep you from making wrong decisions? Or, are you believing that you are bringing your will around to His will and causing your soul to begin to die to its own agendas?

"I bind my mind to your mind, Christ." Think about what you actually believe you are doing. Are you hoping that His thoughts will override your thoughts? Or, are you wanting to stop thinking about old offenses, stop analyzing why you don't think you can forgive, and get through to getting free?

"I loose stronghold thinking from my soul." Do you really want to stop rationalizing and justifying your feelings of being unfairly treated, and to stop denying that you may be the one who has been holding you in bondage?

Are you ready to let go of some very familiar patterns of thinking you may have had all your life, or do you just want relief from the consequences of wrong patterns of thinking? Please pray about these questions and listen to what God says to you. Rev. Liberty Savard

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES, INC.

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President, an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915), has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (New Jersey) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.) with her 3rd book, Producing the Promise (Bridge-Logos Pub. July 1999).

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to tear down their own (self-constructed) inner strongholds by using the keys of the Kingdom found in Matthew 16:19 (binding and loosing) to strip their old natures' (soul) power over their lives and make room within themselves to receive all God has promised! Also, 1) To loose, shatter, crush, and break the power and effects and influences of all wrong agreements made over lives, geographic territories, and circumstances, 2) And to occupy and hold the territories taken for the Kingdom for God.
