Vol. 6, Issue 2, April 1998

God's answers to our prayers are always just right—delivered in His perfect timing and according to His perfect purposes. How grateful I am that binding and loosing principles have helped me grasp the reality of this truth.

God knows what He is doing and when to do it, in spite of what we think He should do!

For some time now, we have asked you to pray with us about the timing on an office/ministry center. I have to constantly bind myself to God's timing as LSM takes new steps. I always think I'm ready for things to arrive or happen or begin before God seems to think I am. Bound to His will and His timing, though, I'm more and more able to wait, receive, and appreciate with peace.

For years, LSM has been located in my three-bedroom home where I had just enough room to sleep and get to the refrigerator, the microwave, and the bathroom. The kitchen counter/breakfast bar held the electric typewriter, paper cutter, and supply of extra book covers. The two extra bedrooms held four desks, three computers, a fax machine, the copier, the inventory, and our "shipping department." My "bedroom" was taken up with extra files and tapes, and an editing and recording set up for processing the masters of my teaching tapes.

The living room was usually filled with cases of books and tapes and the garage was filled with boxes for shipping. The intercessory prayer group that meets in my home never knew how the seating arrangements in our office's "living room" might be configured when they showed up to pray on Tuesday night.

As the exposure of this message continued to expand, testimonies, orders, and prayer requests poured into the ministry "office" at all hours of the day and night on the fax machine and the phone lines. As thrilled as I was about the incredible response we were seeing, I longed to move into a "real" office and have my home back.

It has finally happened! We began our "move" in March and NOW WE'RE IN!

So, here we are! Working out of boxes, smelling new paint, moving ourselves and everything else from room to room as carpet was laid, and trying to use a new phone system that is cheerfully baffling all of us (except Jim!). We have our own little refrigerator and a microwave to give us cold and hot refreshment (important things first, right?), we have the ministry's name down in the first floor foyer by the elevator, we have the ministry's name on a sign on our office door, and we even have new staff members!

We may be slightly confused about who is doing what and where, from time to time (hence the very late newsletter, please forgive us), but we're excited! New office furniture has been ordered, and our dear friend Rachel Rice (Longview TX) is flying out to help us decorate everything. Could we be any happier? Well, perhaps when it is all in order—but we have the faith and we see the vision coming to pass!

We are trying very hard to respond to every single letter, e-mail, phone call, and fax that has come in (and we are very excited at the volume of them!) because it is of major importance to us that you have wanted to communicate with us. If we have somehow not responded to your message, please, please, please forgive us. We are adding staff to take over some of the clerical and computer duties so that in the very near future no one will go without a reply.

New Staff Added to LSM

The staff of Liberty Savard Ministries is growing!

We tried to use pictures here (just because the staff is all so cute!), but we don't know as much about our new scanner and half-tones as we thought we did! Pictures next time!

Sherry Johnson, my office assistant, is holding up valiantly through all of the redefining and changing. She is busily finding "lost" files for everyone, finding ringing phones that keep getting moved, and whatever else might be missing. Sherry will soon be heading up a new department for computerized ordering and shipping.

Just prior to our office move Sherry became the proud parent of a new Toyota Camry. She said she practiced her binding and loosing to the max while in the car "buying" mode, received a wonderful deal, and then led an employee in the auto showroom to Jesus. Go, Sherry!

Evelyn Christian, my traveling assistant on the road, is also known to many of you. She will continue to travel with me as I go on the road, but is now also working in the new offices four days a week. She is wonderful at assisting all of us while still heading up the phone prayer ministry. Such an asset to the office and a blessing to all who have received her ministry of care and prayer, soon Evelyn will be the head of the prayer ministry department as it expands.

Jim Lawrence is the new Director of our Management Information Systems. Jim comes from a very interesting background of law enforcement, security, electronic and appliance technician work, and was a former champion level Western Dance competitor with his wife, Heidi. He is handling all of our computer hardware and software needs; busily programming everything looks like it might need to be programmed; creating our new computerized ordering database; and overseeing the financial and bookkeeping responsibilities for the ministry. We are believing that God will soon bring Jim into LSM full-time.

We are also praying for a part-time receptionist/secretary who will grow into a full-time position as our financial structure allows. We all have a tremendous sense of “getting ready” for a larger dimension of ministry than we ever expected at this time.

God has given all of us this shared sense of a cascading growth cycle just ahead. We are all moving towards the same vision and goal.

“Mentoring the Unknown Messengers of The End Times Conference” Sacramento CA September 1998

I’ve been talking about it for over two years and it is finally time to begin working on actually putting it together! We are planning the first LSM “Mentoring the Unknown Messengers of the End Times Conference” (the MUMET Conference as we have affectionately dubbed it at LSM) here in Sacramento CA. It will be around the end of September this year, so we’re hoping you will begin planning for it, too. We currently have a line up speakers in place right now who will truly knock your socks off!

Rev. Carolyn Driver, Carolyn Driver Ministries, International, Atlanta GA will speak on learning to recognize the four “voices” that impersonate God as you are learning to walk in Kingdom ministry. No, they’re not demonic voices. You will learn to recognize these “voices” that are so good at producing great stress and tension in every level of society today. And you will know what to do about them as well.

Evangelist Sean Smith, Associate Evangelist of Mario Murillo Ministries, Danville CA, will teach evangelism like you’ve never heard evangelism taught before. I have never heard evangelism presented as Sean lays it out. I have a whole new concept of the burden of God’s heart for those who don’t know Him, and the sadness and pain of the hearts that are separated from God. Trust me on this one, he’s dynamite!

Pastor Diane Gardner, Senior Pastor of Family Life Inheritance Church, Riverside CA, will speak on overcoming betrayal and shame to continue ministering when spouses, children and other close family members make terribly wrong choices. Pastor Diane has been through this experience on two heart breaking levels. Yet, her church and her international ministry are flourishing and growing.

Rev. Liberty Savard will be speaking on recognizing and cooperating with God’s Final Alignments for Your Kingdom Assignments: Learning to know that opportunities, finances, anointing, health and help will always be available when you are in right alignment with God’s will—and exactly how to get aligned.

(Liberty says): I have been so aware of the many “unknown” messengers in the body of Christ over the past four years in the different places I have traveled to. These “unknown” messengers may not have the formal training, opportunities, or ministry contacts one might expect; they may not have the style, charisma, or education one might expect. But when you learn how to look past what they don’t seem “to have” in place for Kingdom ministry, you see the uniqueness of their Kingdom destiny for God’s purposes in these end times.

These people will not rely on their own strength, looks, family name, special talents, natural abilities or influence. They will know that God has manifested a precious deposit of His anointing in them to accomplish what He tells them to do, and they will do it according to His instructions and His empowerment.

God is preparing these end time messengers to rise up all over. The sooner they learn how to cooperate with this final-alignment preparation work, the sooner their bodies, souls and spirits will come into alignment for end time assignment.

Frequently God has me tell them “who” they are. While we are all called to be ministers of the Gospel, there are some with a particular “end-times calling” who are nearly as shocked to have this confirmed as are those who know them but haven’t had a clue as to what God was going to do in and through them. Many are almost afraid to believe that they have heard God right, feeling they have been permanently relegated to the back field of the body of Christ. Some have tried to open their own doors and have been soundly rebuffed by both peers and leadership. Some have done nothing, feeling too shy, too unworthy, too “unlikely” for divine purposes.

You cannot always recognize end time messengers by their speech, their behavior, their lack of professional polish, or their intellect. Often, they appear too old, too untalented, too uneducated, too divorced, too rough around the edges, too aggressive, too passive, too naïve, too difficult, too unteachable, too dainty, too young, too over-educated, too famous, too unknown, too muscle bound, too ethnic, too infirm, too poor, too rich, too . . .

I frequently caution Christians to not give up on even those who are considered trouble makers in their churches. Those perceived as “trouble” may be trying to find their way into the ministry of God’s kingdom the hard way because no one has ever taught them there is an easier way. Pray for them, encourage them, befriend them, and help them cooperate with God's plans for them. Some of the most stubborn, difficult people that you know, as well as the shy and awkward ones, are God's great jewels for the purposes of these last days.

Nuggets to Chew On

Roman 6:6-7 (AMP), "We know that our old unrenewed self was nailed to the cross with Him in order that our body, which is the instrument of sin, might be made ineffective and inactive for evil, that we might no longer be slaves of sin. For when a man dies he is freed—loosed, delivered—from the power of sin among men."

It is our unsundered old nature that needs to be crucified in the ongoing work of the cross in our lives. This is the "picking up of your cross daily," reckoning the old nature, the carnal nature, the sin nature, the unsundered soul having all life and control loosed from it. The power that sin actually holds over man as an unbeliever is broken by an acceptance of the work of the sacrifice of Christ Jesus. Believers who continue to sin must accept a personal accountability to the fact that they have chosen to sin. Nothing has "forced" them.

Romans 8:3 (AMP), "For God has done what the Law could not do, its power being weakened by the flesh—that is the entire nature of man (the unsundered soul) without the Holy Spirit. Sending His own Son in the guise (likeness) of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, God condemned sin in the flesh—subdued, overcame, deprived it of its power over all who accept that sacrifice."

This is not an abstract theory of Christ's ethereal act of saying, "No, sin, now you just can't bother these believers anymore." This Scripture is an absolute and true declaration of the already completed, past-tense destruction of sin's power over the redeemed. As a born-again Christian, you have to choose to sin. By using the keys of the Kingdom, you can bind your body and soul to the will of God and receive His empowerment to make right choices. Or, you can put up a feeble fight against your body's and your soul's pushing for a wrong choice to commit sin. It all keeps coming back to making choices. Binding your will to God's will, over and over if you keep feeling a struggle, puts you into alignment with His helping power to choose rightly.

Making room for a full indwelling of the Spirit of God requires a surrendering of all of the old, preconceived mind sets you may have about what you can and can't do. About what you can and can't forgive. About what you can and can't expect as a free willed Christian. About what God does and does not expect of you. It requires you to literally place yourself into a position of being totally "reprogrammed and hard wired anew" for coming fully "online" spiritually with the end time plans and purposes of the Almighty God of the past, the present and the future.

You will never be aligned for end time assignments like those spoken of in Daniel 11:32, 35; Daniel 12:3, 4, 10 (I like the Amplified Version) until you surrender everything you think you now know about God's end time plans for your life to a full realigning work of Jesus Christ in every part of your being. This requires getting rid of some old stuff. Pastor Monte Anderson of Faith Center in Meno OK said it this way:

You gotta' stop lettin' the funk of your past whack your present to keep you from embracin' your future!

You also may not be healed and strengthened to the fullness you can be until you fully surrender everything you believe about your past, present, and future regarding your physical body. This requires surrendering of your understanding of God's purposes for your destiny. God never alters His Word for individuals, but there are so many believers who do not know the fullness of the power of that Word and how it applies to their specific personality, abilities and potential.

Romans 8:11 (AMP), "And if the Spirit of Him Who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, then He Who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also restore to life your mortal, short-lived, perishable bodies through His Spirit Who dwells in you."

This applies to your mortal, short-lived, perishable body that you are living in right now. Aging, pollution, disease, cellular breakdown, toxins, etc., are all working against that poor body. This Scripture clearly states the ability of renewal and life when you are fully indwelt by the blessed Holy Spirit. This Scripture does not apply to your body being raised to heaven, because your mortal, short-lived, perishable body isn't going there!

First Corinthians 15:42, 44 (AMP), So it is with the resurrection of the dead. The body that is sown is perishable and decays, but the body that is resurrected is imperishable—immune to decay, immortal . . . . It is sown a natural physical body; it is raised a supernatural spiritual body. As surely as there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body."

You must be willing to surrender many things that are only hindering and hurting your soul and your body. You must make room to let God fully dwell in you to restore life to your body and soul. Your spirit had divine life restored to it when it was reconnected with the Spirit of the Father at the new birth. Now you need to cooperate with having your body and soul aligned to the Father as well. What would keep God from dwelling fully in a born-again believer? Resistance from his or her unsundered soul's "free will" that insists upon making stubborn, rebellious choices to not surrender to God.

Christian, Please Watch What You Say

It is absolutely amazing what some Christians are saying and doing today. Fortunately, God is also pouring out grace and mercy and guidance the truth. Christians, please be careful of the judgments, opinions and pronouncements you may be stating as though you were speaking for God himself.

A very discouraged and hopeless sister came to our offices for prayer after reading SYS. She said I was her last hope to know if she should just give up. A prophet had said she had probably committed a sin unto death and there was no hope for her, God had given up on her.

I talked with her for some time, prayed with her and it was clear that this woman was struggling, but that God had in no way given up on her! He was reaching out to her with great grace and mercy. I assured her that if God had given up on her, she would have a seared conscience and nothing would concern her regarding God.

Another believer related to me that she was told a disease she had was really just demons within her. She was actually held down on the ground while "well-meaning" Christians tried to cast Satan out of her. After expressing her distress over this treatment, she was accused of not wanting "help."

I assured this poor sister that her physical disease was not demonic possession. Nor did her discomfort about being held down and screamed over mean that she didn't want help. She needed someone to recognize her love for Christ, to confirm her as a born-again believer, and to pray for God's loving healing in her life. I affirmed her as a child of God, worthy of grace and mercy, and prayed for God to show her His end time purposes for her life.

Another person came to me for prayer counsel and told me that she had been told by a medical specialist that she had a "growth" in her brain. She had asked some Christians to pray for her and was told not to say the "T" word, because that would give the devil glory. Rather, she needed to keep telling the devil he was a liar. She looked at me with sadness and said, "The devil is a liar, that is true. It is also true that I have this 'thing' in my brain, and I can't see how shouting at the devil about him being a liar is going to make it go away. Do you?"

I assured her that telling the devil he was a liar over and over was not going to heal this brain tumor (the "T" word) in the natural realm of her life. But believing in a supernatural God who loves to turn natural facts upside down when someone has complete faith in Him could heal her natural circumstances. She then asked me why some Christians with faith in God don't get healed, and sometimes even die from a disease.

I believe that our ability to receive the healing that God provides is like our ability to reach up to catch a big beach ball floating by our head. If our arms are weighted with heavy weights, perhaps even tied together with strips of rope and then super-glued to our sides, we will have a very hard time reaching out and catching that big floating ball. But if our arms are free, we have a good chance of grabbing it.

The loosing of every generational pattern of wrong thinking, every wrong idea, every half-truth, and every erroneous belief we have in our souls frees us to reach out and "catch" our healing. The loosing of the negative words of the medical authorities we seek help from, even if they are speaking directly from facts and test results, is also good. They may be speaking natural facts that are in direct conflict with God's desire for our lives.

I told this sister that loosing this old "stuff" from her soul could free her to cooperate with God. Astonished, she replied, "You mean whether or not I'm healed doesn't depend upon my 'working up' enough faith to be healed? I need to surrender all of my old beliefs about this to God, cooperate with Him and let Him do it?"

"You bet!" I replied.

Television Ministry

The television ministry is bringing many responses, testimonies and much excitement into our offices. We began this outreach in January and are now preparing to add an Eastern Texas station. We have had a great response from the Florida area and the Northern California stations. God is working with us, as shown by the following record of a mere 14 hours.

The following paragraph was typed in this newsletter at 8:00 p.m. Friday night, April 24, 1998:

Within two weeks, we will have to make a decision as to whether or not we can stay on the Atlanta GA station. We believe people are watching, but we have not heard from many of them. Georgia, are you out there? Just a note, a call, a word to let us know you're watching. We are unsure about what to do.

This testimony from Georgia arrived in the mail at 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning, April 25, 1998:

Dear Liberty: I am waiting to hear from the lab today as to whether I have regular cervical cancer or a more rare invasive, progressive form of cancer. I've waited 2 days, praying, crying, feeling terror, and praying some more. I took time off from work this week to get myself together. This morning, I prayed oh so hard for the Lord's healing and guidance. I was switching through the t.v. when I ran across your program #98-16. I felt God was speaking to me through you, a wake-up call.

I feel like I have spent my life believing in Christ, but not really serving him. I have felt guilty for being so blessed . . . waiting for "the other shoe to drop." Now that it has, I am so terrified that I somehow deserve it. After hearing your show, I feel God will show me the way. May I be in your prayers and may God continue to bless your television ministry. Diane from Georgia

(Reply from Liberty) Dear Diane: You have no idea how God has just used you to answer a cry in my heart about the LSM television ministry outreach in Georgia! If I had not received your letter this morning, I was preparing to cancel all Atlanta GA programming as we have heard from so few. Thank you for writing to us. We are sending you this teaching newsletter along with a gift from the ministry. Also,

I am asking everyone who reads one of these original 3,000 copies to please pray for Diane in Georgia.

Diane, we fully believe that God is working a creative miracle in, though, and for you, and that you will complete and fulfill your destiny in His end time Kingdom work! All of our love, Rev. Liberty Savard

LSM is praying about God's will for resources and timing on reaching into the San Francisco and Oakland/Berkeley television market by early summer. We have been contacted by Channel 42 in Concord CA regarding placing our program on their station. This would bring our coverage into areas that we are not yet reaching in Northern California, including Sacramento itself.

Several of you have been very kind to help support this outreach, and we thank you so much. We also need to be in alignment with His will and His timing for adding any new areas. That's where the prayer support comes in. Lives are being changed and people are excited! We are, too. Here are the current stations, days and times:

Atlanta GA, Channel 57 WATC-TV
Sunday 11:30 p.m. & Thursday 9:30 a.m.

Modesto, Fresno CA, Channel 51 KNSO-TV
Wednesday at 9:00 a.m.

Orlando FL, Channel 55 WACX-TV
Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

Chico, Redding CA, Channel 30, KCVU-TV
Thursday at 6:00 a.m.

Eureka CA, Channel 29 KBVU-TV
Thursday at 6:00 a.m.

Liberty Live!

Online Q&A Chat Line - 5/21/98

Liberty Savard is going to be live online with a "Let's talk" Q&A formatted Chat Line from the LSM web site. Check our web site out for an update on how to access this informative, fun time together with others of like prayer lives. Liberty will be answering your questions regarding binding and loosing principles; body, soul and spirit alignment; bad attitudes of the soul vs. evil spirits; soul ties; healing; end time messengers' destinies; and much, much more. Be there, be ready, and be a part.

Live Q&A Chat with Liberty
Online THURSDAY, May 21, 1998
6:00 - 8:00 P.M. PST
<http://www.libertysavard.com/chat>

All instructions on how to log on will be on the Live Chat Line page above, to be posted no later than May 10th. Check it out ahead of time and be ready.

Jim Lawrence, our latest staff addition to LSM, will also be online that same Thursday night playing "traffic cop," so you will get a chance to say hello to him, too.

Nigeria Africa Unity for Africa '98 National Reconciliation Conference

LSM will be traveling to Lagos, Nigeria in August to speak at an exciting reconciliation conference. Pastor John Ofoegbu of San Antonio TX, the Int. Coord. of this conference, has been speaking to Liberty for some time about participating. The Crusade Team is believing for 100,000 attendees a day at the conference.

(Liberty says): I was not sure I was supposed to go, never having flown overseas to speak into other cultures, especially on such a large scale as this! Even though I'm told that my books are often seen in Christian circles in Nigeria, I was worried about how the Nigerians would accept me, my sense of humor and my style of teaching.

I finally said I would make a decision by Friday, April 10th. I prayed, had my intercessors pray, and sought an answer from God that week. On Thursday night, a friend I had not seen for nearly five years, Vanessa, walked up to me at an out-of-town meeting to say, "God says you are to get your passport in order." When I pressed her about why, she said, "Because you are going to Europe and to West Africa." Europe I didn't know about! But I was clearly looking for a confirmation on West Africa.

Pastor Ofoegbu is praying for a minimum of 100 Americans to go with us into Nigeria. Should you be a part of our team? I have learned this about finances when stepping out in ministry: If you continually bind yourself to God's will, loosing wrong agendas and wrong patterns of thinking, loosing all preconceived ideas about what you are sure you know about what God wants, loosing your soul's desires to control your faith and your destiny, staying sensitive to the subtle and not-so-subtle adjustments of your spiritual walk by the Holy Ghost, money will not be a problem.

God always provides everything to complete His will, His plans, His purposes, and His timing. He just holds the purse strings out of your reach when you are demanding and commanding finances to flow into fulfilling your will and your plans and your purposes in your timing. Money is no problem to God. God is a multi-multi-multi-multi-trillionaire, and then some.

So, how should you pray? It's almost too simple for our soul's finite thinking patterns. Decide first if you would like to go and be used on such a trip. It won't be like a trip to Disneyland. If your hand is still up, now bind your will to the will of God, your mind to the mind of Christ, your feet to the paths God has determined for you to walk out your destiny, and your hands to the work God has planned for you to do in the Kingdom these last days.

Now loose all preconceived ideas you have about what you think, what anybody else thinks, and what you think God thinks about whether or not you should go. Do this regularly and listen for God to direct. If you hear God nudge you towards pursuing this opportunity, contact Pastor John Ofoegbu, Int. Conf. Coord., P.O. Box 760542, San Antonio TX 78245-0542, or call Greg Schipper, U.S. Conf. Dir., at 210-771-4534.

Testimonies

(All testimonies here are on file in offices of LSM)
 I JUST GOT YOUR BOOKS! I am reading from both of them at the same time. I knew that something was wrong with what I had been taught, but I didn't know what. I seemed to just be praying and praying, on and on, with nothing really happening. My strongholds have been like mildew that you can smell but can't see, but I didn't know what was wrong until I picked up your books! Thanks, Liberty. You truly are my friend, and your books are helping me find my much sought after freedom. C.E., Birmingham AL

Thanks for this fabulous book, it is revolutionizing my thinking. I now see that it is really a matter of unsundered areas of the soul that have caused most of my problems rather than demons. What a revelation! My mind is having a difficult time in processing these new ways of thinking (it is arguing, reasoning, using "logic," etc.), but I am asking the Holy Spirit to illuminate my mind with His understanding.

With these fresh truths dawning, I believe that most counseling could be redefined and restructured to start with discovering a person's unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved issues. With a clearer picture of where these areas are located, we can pray more effectively.

I am always thumbing through each book trying to locate all of the prayers. (Liberty's note: Evelyn Christian, our prayer director, has put plastic tabs with lettered inserts on the pages of Breaking the Power to denote where each prayer is. This is extremely effective for instant review on the individual prayer emphases.)

When Shattering Your Strongholds came to my attention, I prayed the prayer at the end of the book for my daughter. Within two months she was completely delivered from a wrong relationship, and set in the midst of God's plan for her life. That made a real believer out of me about binding and loosing!! Carol, Web Site

Dear Rev. Savard: It is wonderful how God brings just the right thing into your life at just the right time. I have lived such a soulish life for so many years, I am amazed that God has continued to pursue me all this time. I know you say that God has something for even me to do. It's kind of hard to believe, but thanks for the hope which your book offers. I will continue to press on. "G"

I have a short testimony of binding and loosing after reading Shattering Your Strongholds. I began binding my unsaved husband's mind to Christ, and loosing wrong thoughts, patterns of thinking, attitudes, etc. Shortly thereafter, my husband had to make a decision. I watched him literally shake off the wrong decision and make the godly and correct decision!

Liberty recently spoke in my church in the South. I purchased her tape set "Breaking the Power for Men Only" as well as the book Shattering your Strongholds. Since then, using her teaching, I have victory over an addiction to pornography which has plagued me for years. I just want to thank God for inspiring Liberty and thank, Liberty, too.

There are no words strong enough to express my love and appreciation for you and your willingness to be used by God. I know that the revelation that God has given you has helped many, many people. I attended one of your meetings with one small hope that God would give me a chance to fulfill the destiny He had ordained for me. I told God that while I believed the prayers were good and probably useful to others, that I was too far gone for that kind of help. I just knew that I had to get myself out of the mud pit I had jumped into. I felt I not only had to pay for my own "stuff," but I was the one who was to set the price. Every time I got close to the "goal," I would up the price. I finally got so tired I just wanted to lay down in the pit and suffocate under the mud. God just kept showing me a set of keys. I, of course, told Him that one does not need keys to climb out of a pit. Ha!

I could honestly say to people that things were going great because, compared to a few years ago, they were. My problem was that I knew what I was still holding on to. I just didn't want anyone else to know because I thought that would destroy what ground had been gained. As I have listened to your tapes, I have realized that God really does love me and He does have answers. He knew the questions I so desperately wanted to ask but was afraid to for fear of rejection. I will not just observe the keys any longer. I will use them and use them and pass them on! I won't give up this time. I will use the keys and the strongholds will be shattered and the power will be broken. Love, Judith

Shattering Your Strongholds was recommended to me in October and when I got past the first few chapters, I knew I had to have my own copy. I went to a Christian bookstore to purchase it and the sales clerk inquired if I had read Breaking the Power. I ordered it on the spot. I have had a life-changing experience since your books. Binding and loosing works!!! The enemy continues to place roadblocks on individuals to whom my enthusiastic recommendations are planted, however, I have a vision of spiritual healing and am not deterred.

Do you teach others to teach it to their ministries? When is your follow-up book coming out? I am anxiously awaiting to devour its pages. My comment to Breaking the Power is that it is the Master's program, so I can well imagine your next one is the Ph.D. of them all!!!

(Liberty's note): You are very encouraging! To question one, try to plan on attending the Mentoring conference in September. Question two, the 3rd book is still just a catch-all of ideas and concepts in my head. I plan on working on it over the next several months.

I wanted to tell you that I can truly say that the principles you are teaching have been an incredible help to me. The desire of my heart for years has been to live fully for God, and now I can. The usual struggles I face are much easier to overcome now that I have assumed personal responsibility and stopped giving the devil credit for my own strongholds. I am intently studying your material and putting into practice everything I learn. Thanks again for not being afraid to go against the religious "grain" and bring the truth to us. God bless, Bob

I wrote to you several weeks ago requesting advice on how to pray concerning my marriage, as my husband had left me for my best friend. I want to thank you for clarifying how I should pray the binding and loosing prayers for everyone involved. Since writing to you I have finished reading Breaking the Power and it has changed the way that I pray and, subsequently, my life. It is so good to be able to pray daily for others whose lives have been impacted by the wrong choices and know that I am praying according to the Word of God and that He is faithful.

Hello, Liberty, from Luton, Beds, England. I have been re-reading your newsletter and noticed a mention of e-mail, which I have only had for 10 days. I did write to you regarding my situation and you kindly added my name to your intercessors' list.

I really believe that the Lord guided me to your book Shattering Your Strongholds at a healing ministry. I had no intention of buying any books as I have so many now, but I kept going back to it. I think you have a wonderful sense of humour which comes through and I really laughed with you. I would love to see you on t.v. but, of course, your videos do not work on our TV's anyway.

(Liberty's note: Some in other countries have had the videos copied into the appropriate format for their equipment. There are even churches that have this kind of equipment for missionary video outreaches.)

God bless you, Liberty, and your ministry team. Beryl
P.S.I copy your newsletter for my two friends which led them to send for your books.

A former associate of mine got your book into my hands, and I decided to read it because of the change that I saw in her. I had prayed for, taught, counseled her for years, and felt that I was hitting my head against a brick wall. Now I saw answers happening before my eyes. Thank God for your obedience to push beyond the opinions of man, and publish the Good News that makes us free! I am already recommending your book to others. This is truly a fuller truth of the things God has been teaching me, and I am rejoicing over new revelation!

Questions and Answers

Q: Dear Liberty: I have been fighting a spanking fantasy fetish. I want to be a child again even though I know that you can't turn back time. I have even masqueraded as a child on the internet to fill this need. I am a born-again child of God, yet I do these things and I do not understand why. I want to be free and be the man that God has called me to be. I am dating a wonderful woman and I want to love her the right way. I want to be free of this stupid fetish, once and for all. Help! B.B.

A: Of course, we will help you pray. I commend you for your honesty and your openness. Also for your desire to have a godly relationship with the woman you are dating. You're struggling with some wrong behaviors that the unsundered soul uses to try to meet its own deep unmet needs. A born-again Christian gets an instant spiritual connection to the Spirit of God (human spirit to God's Spirit), but the "soul" (the human mind, will and emotions) does not get immediate restoration. The soul needs to be renewed, meaning the will needs to be surrendered to God's will, the mind needs to be renewed to the thought patterns of the mind of Christ, and the emotions need to be brought into balanced healing in the Holy Spirit.

Your unmet needs, as you have surmised, were birthed into place in your soul at a young age when certain "things" that should have gone into the forming of a strong, whole character and identity process just didn't happen. You cannot go back and change or make up for that at this point in your life. You need to move forward. You need to forgive and release those who did not give you the necessary building blocks required for a complete sense of character and identity, even those who intentionally committed wrong acts against you. They failed you because others failed them in the formative years of their character building and identity process.

Imperfect people always create more imperfect people, which is what generational bondage patterns of "treadmill" thinking is all about.

You are embarking on a "guided tour" now (reading SYS) to get out of the cycle of your soul using wrong behaviors in an attempt to pacify the force of your deepest unmet needs. This is the treadmill part, for this soulish cycle of thinking does not set you free—it just keeps you going over and over the same old coping patterns that seem to take a little pressure off you for a little while.

As soon as you finish reading Shattering Your Strongholds, I encourage you to get Breaking the Power and start reading it as soon as possible. It will take the principles you will learn to use in SYS and move you into a deeper understanding of why you need to use them and what they will accomplish. Your poor soul, filled with all of its unmet needs, unhealed hurts and unresolved issues from you past, has actually been perpetuating your bondage, locking in your neediness and pain, and keeping God out of the areas where you need healing.

Satan may have taken advantage of some of the open doorways your soul has created in itself by its refusal to surrender to God's help. But you need to understand that it has been your own soul that has been thwarting all your attempts to move forward in complete surrender to and with full overcoming victory in Christ Jesus.

Deliverance would not help unless the doorways in the soul were closed. Working a 12-step program won't help permanently, behavioral modification won't help permanently, medication won't help permanently. Only the surrendering of your own unsundered soul's self-defense processes will let God's love, grace and mercy put all of your character and identity pieces together to make you whole and complete—PERMANENTLY!

These principles of binding and loosing prayers are your keys to opening up all of your soul's walls, defenses and wrong mindsets which have been blocking God's help, so that His grace and mercy can finally flow into every area of your being. You can use these keys to cooperate with your own "liberation" from all prior bondage—all of the guidelines and instructions you need are in Shattering Your Strongholds and Breaking the Power.

Q: Do you have any recommendations for me on how to pray regarding the following situation: My husband has been a Christian several years and has been in leadership in our church. After nearly two decades of marriage, he left me and our three children to move in with another woman from church.

I am determined to go forward with God no matter what, but believe that it is God's desire for our marriage to be restored. I am spending time in prayer, using the binding and loosing principles, and also that any soul-ties anywhere in this situation would be severed.

A: You say you are praying the soul ties "would be severed." Are you praying in such a way as to ask God to sever them, or are you actually speaking the words of loosing (which also means severing) directly in your prayers? Remember that Matthew 16:19 tells us that Jesus gave US the keys and whatever WE would bind and loose on earth would be loosed in heaven.

This is not cutting God or Jesus out of the answer, rather it is using the keys He's given us as He's directed us to use them. Binding and loosing as this Scripture tells us (instead of asking for God to do it for us), we participate in seeing His will established in situations on earth.

God has always known His will for each of our lives. By establishing our own intent and desire (through binding and loosing prayers) to see ourselves and all others involved in situations come into agreement with His will, we are actually making "place" or room for His desires, plans, and will to be so manifested. Other than making sure that you are in agreement with this, I think you are doing fine and are on target with your prayers. God bless you, Rev. Liberty Savard

Goodbye LSM Book Table

We will not be listing the resources of LSM here any more, the one place where you have always found them in the past. We found that we were needing to explain our resources so many times, it seemed that they needed detailed descriptions so they could "explain themselves." We hope you will enjoy what this has birthed; we affectionately call it our "grey cat" (short for grey scale catalog) as opposed to our "color cat" (short for color print catalog). Grey cats and color cats are abounding around the new offices of LSM right now. We hope you find it informative.

Soul Ties Mini Book with 3rd Book Pre-release Teachings

Those of you who go "back" with us to late 1995 and most of 1996 will remember the Breaking the Power Mini-Book put out by LSM. Believe it or not, we still get requests for that precursor to the "real thing." I have a couple left in my personal library, just for old times' sake, but it is no longer available. Sorry.

There are so many questions coming in about further understanding regarding soul ties and the damage they do. This has prompted a mini-book to get out new information that will not be available until the printing of the new 3rd book of the Shattering/Breaking/3rd book trilogy. We believe you will find this mini-book ($5.00) very informative. It will probably eventually become another LSM "packet" resource, like the Healing Packet.

The 3rd book will hopefully be printed and available by the end of this year (oh, yes, I really do know better than to go here, because I remember struggling so with getting BTP finished and ready for print, but so many of you are already asking about the 3rd book . . .). It will probably have a title "like" On Time Alignment for End Time Assignment. Or, maybe Final Alignments for End Time Assignments. Or, maybe not. Anyway, I do know that it will be geared towards this concept:

Now that you have shattered all of your strongholds, broken the power of your unsundered soul's unmet needs, unhealed hurts and unresolved issues; it is time to cooperate with the final alignments you need to go out and walk in power and grace in your end time destiny assignments. So, here's how to surrender to your end time destiny!

Who and What is LSM

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President, an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915), has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (New Jersey) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.).

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to tear down their own (self-constructed) strongholds by using the keys of the Kingdom found in Matthew 16:19 (binding and loosing) to strip their old natures' (soul) power over their lives and make room within themselves to receive all God has promised!
