Note from Liberty LSM Inc. Grows Again!

When I moved the ministry offices out of my home in March of 1998, my staff and I first looked at an office of about 500 sq. ft. on the first floor of the building we are now in. Realizing we couldn't fit into this small an area, I nervously agreed to a 750 sq. ft. suite on the second floor (which we outgrew in five months!). In January 1999, we moved to a 1300 sq. ft. suite on the third floor. As of July 1st, we have now added another 1000 sq. ft. to the Ministry Headquarters. We've punched holes in walls, opened up a large work area, gained a kitchen and conference area, added the LSM Book Store, and our first official LSM Training Center Classroom!!!

We have suggested (gently) to our immediate neighbors on both side of our expanded suites that we are lovingly "coveting" their offices as well. It is wondered if we have designs on the whole third floor (which does have a divine ring to it!). Below, Veronica Talbert and Gwen Berck, LSM Staff, think it would be a great !

So far in 1999, my travel schedule has included Ohio, Michigan, Montana, Central California, Texas, Tennessee, New Mexico, Oregon, and Washington. It has made the completion of Producing the Promise quite intense. I've pulled many all-nighters to get the final manuscript ready, but it will be off the presses in days! Yahoo!!! I will be at CBA 1999 in Orlando this month to launch this final book of the Keys of the Kingdom Trilogy

Now, we are focusing on completing a Spanish translation of Shattering Your Strongholds along with the final "tweaking" of the Breaking the Power Workbook! Whew! While I do have several bookings throughout the fall, I am now booking mainly for the year 2000. I feel a strong need now to spend time implementing training classes here in the LSM Training Center and get that up and running over the next few months. We're also preparing the LSM Bookstore in our center as well!

LSM Training Center

A dream has finally been birthed—a Training Center for intensive classes on the prayer principles of the Keys of the Kingdom, as well as other teachers and classes on launching Christians into their end times destinies. Having begun last October at the Mentoring Conference, Liberty desires to identify, affirm, and mentor end times messengers, helping them to cut through wrong beliefs and perceptions of what hinders them. The time and place has arrived to begin providing this level of training.

LSM Inc. has been growing in leaps and bounds. Since March of 1998, we have more than tripled our office space and we have our first LSM Training Center class room with one more class room to follow shortly. Due to the release of Producing the Promise at CBA during the middle of July, our first classes begin July 30th. We are calling them "Blitzes." The word "blitz" means an attack, an all-out assault on opposing forces.

| Level I: SYS/BTP BlitzJuly 30-31, 1999 Level II: SYS/BTP Blitz August 6-7, 1999 Level III: PTP BlitzSeptember 10-11, 1999 |

The format of these three levels will be 3 hours Friday night, 3 hours Saturday morning, and 3 hours Saturday afternoon. Each 3-hour session will consist of two 1-hour classes with a 15 minute break and 45 minutes of questions and answers. Students can choose to purchase a catered box lunch and have lunch with Liberty and staff members in the ministry offices on Saturday, or go out to eat. This intense schedule is to make it practical for students to come in from other areas for a short period of time at a relatively low cost for motels, meals, etc.

It is recommended that students have read Shattering Your Strongholds before attending Level I, plus Breaking the Power before attending Level II, plus Producing the Promise before attending Level III. All items in the LSM Bookstore will be discounted 20% for registered students who may order books to be shipped prior to the classes. A syllabus and note book will be provided at no charge to each student. Cost of each Level of classes will be $50. Catered lunch in LSM office will be additional. Tapes of sessions will be available at a discounted cost to students.

Classes will be limited to 28 students. This will allow for interaction on a more intimate level than larger seminars. Write now, call our office, send an e-mail for further information; or register on our website. We will immediately forward an info and registration packet.

Producing the Promise Excerpts!!

WOW! It's finally a reality. Below are excerpts from the chapters in PTP. Order yours now!

PTP Chapter 1 – It's Time To Grow Up!

In the early 80s I was just beginning to understand that when a scriptural promise does not seem to materialize in our lives, it might be because we are not where we are supposed to be. Suppose a producer sent you a front row seat pass to his Broadway hit in New York City. The pass was yours, with full promise of a front row seat to this sold-out, smashingly successful new play. Not believing you really had to go to New York to use the pass, you went to the more convenient and closer Mann's Chinese Theatre in Los Angeles instead. You kept going back to Mann's Chinese Theatre for years, but you were never able to receive a front row seat for anything with your pass. You were in the wrong place.

Hear this: The promise of that pass was not broken. Your choice of convenience positioned you in the wrong place to step into the manifestation of its promise. Because of not understanding this truth, many believers have learned to distrust God's big "promises."

PTP Chapter 2 – It's Self-Will, Saint, Not Free Will

As my soul began to rev up for a real confrontation, I was aware of the Holy Ghost whispering in my ear, "If you think it's been difficult up 'til now, it's going downhill from here if you don't get your attitude adjusted!" I knew that this would certainly be true, but I didn't want to adjust my attitude. I was tired, I was overwhelmed with flying right back out early the next morning, and I was not happy with anything—especially United Airlines.

Still, I have used these principles long enough to know that a direct communicate delivered like that was a last warning before things began to get really ugly in the natural realm of life. And I was the one who held the keys to choose to keep Door Number Two, the Ugly Door, wide open. So I swallowed a couple of times, turned around and began to walk to my gate where I would sit and wait out the next hour of delay. I bound my mind to the mind of Christ, and I bound my will to the will of God. I bound the minds and wills of every United Airlines employee in Tennessee and every Chicago's O'Hare Airport employee to the mind of Christ and the will of God. Then I loosed all of the word curses I'd spoken—or at least thought—about every single one of them! I loosed all of the wrong agreements I'd tried to that United Airlines was out to get me personally. I prayed for God to bless these employees and heal them and comfort them as other soulish attitudes came towards them from other fussy and frustrated passengers.

I was at peace within minutes and relaxed with my book. After finally boarding the plane for Chicago, I was unusually blessed with three open seats in my row. I put the armrests and my feet up, accepted a diet Coke and a snack, and kicked back. When we landed at O'Hare, I was surprised (but not really) to see that our connecting flight had also been held up for an hour. Isn't that a coincidence? Of course it isn't! I believe our plane was waiting right there for us because I had forced my soul to undergo a "key" attitude adjustment.

While I might need a refresher course in this truth from time to time, God is always ready to give me a final warning so I can make the right choice. If I refuse to make the right choice, the consequences resulting from that error can seem endless and even vicious.

PTP Chapter 3 – Apple Tree Destiny

An apple tree needs no teaching or training whatsoever to realize its destiny to produce apples. Have you ever thought about that? Every tiny apple seed has all of the instructions it ever needs within its own cellular structure to produce sweet fruit, the promise of its destiny. Every seed automatically knows how to become a beautiful, fruit bearing apple tree.

You will never see an apple tree stressing out and feeling pressured over what it should do next. Why not? Because the apple tree knows it is fully supplied with all it needs to produce sweet fruit! Pressure is what we feel when we don't know how we are ever going to get something done. Jesus never showed any stress and pressure during His ministry because He knew His Father's purpose for Him. No place in the Word do we read about Him wringing His hands, crying out, "Hurry up, hurry up, Peter. The wind is coming up and we'll never get across that lake in that little boat if we don't hurry. Andrew, do we have enough nets? When is John going to get here? Who saw John last? What is he doing, doesn't he know how important it is that we stay on time?" Why not? He knew His purpose.

Jesus Christ, implanted within your born again spirit, is the incorruptible Seed of life. His full spiritual structure/stature is within that Seed placed into the born again spirits of all Christians. Get your soul's excuses out of the way and let that Seed grow, Christian!

PTP Chapter 5 – It's Not About You Anymore

The Message gives us a wonderful expanded understanding of the fruit of the Spirit in our lives (Galatians 5:22-26). "What happens when we live God's way? He brings gifts into our lives, much the same way that fruit appears in an orchard—things like affection for others, exuberance about life, serenity. We develop a willingness to stick with things, a sense of compassion in the heart, and a conviction that a basic holiness permeates things and people. We find ourselves involved in loyal commitments, not needing to force our way in life, able to marshal and direct our energies wisely. Legalism is helpless in bringing this about; it only gets in the way. Among those who belong to Christ, everything connected with getting our own way and mindlessly responding to what everyone else calls necessities is killed off for good—crucified. Since this is the kind of life we have chosen, the life of the Spirit, let us make sure that we do not just hold it as an idea in our heads or a sentiment in our hearts, but work out its implications in every detail of our lives. This means we will not compare ourselves with each other as if one of us were better and another worse. We have far more interesting things to do with our lives."

Yes, we do! Like walking, stomping, marching, and dancing forth on our destiny paths right here on earth. We have a destiny promise within us that is going to burst forth even if it has to break the vessel it is planted in. God's plans are so much higher above our finite and often petty little plans. His plans for us must burst apart our boundaries, our preconceived ideas, our comfort zones, or we will be miserable. Totally miserable, just like an elephant with a breech birth blockage of overdue quadruplets! Oooooouch! (I know elephants don't have quadruplets, but I'm trying to convey the concept of serious consequences here.) . . . God has always known what He wants to happen in our lives and in the lives of others that He expects us to pray right prayers for. We come into alignment with this through the dismantling of our surrendered souls' agendas by binding and loosing prayers. Or, we can cross our legs and try not to birth those elephant quadruplets as God breaks up the breech defense our souls are trying to keep in place.

PTP Chapter 9 - Warfare in the Heavens

As I travel across America, I have been in direct confrontation with territorial spirits on different occasions. The details of these confrontations are not important here, for the answers do not lie in focusing upon warfare with these demonic strongholds directly, as much as they do with shattering and breaking up the effects and influences of the corporate wrong agreements that are empowering the demonic princes to sit on their thrones. There are powerful demonic strongholds over Sacramento, CA where I live. I am never quite as aware of them as I am when I return from speaking engagements and step off the airplane in the Sacramento airport. From that moment on, through the next 12 to 24 hours, I battle discouragement, depression, and darkness.

The territorial spirits over my city have been feeding off of the corporate wrong agreements of many different groups for a long time. These spirits breathe down darkness, distrust, fear, confusion, and misunderstanding upon the people of the area. More wrong agreements are entered into corporately by groups, and more darkness, distrust, fear, confusion, and misunderstanding is breathed down. More wrong agreements follow, and it becomes an almost self-perpetuating cycle.

Many cultural groups, racial groups, tribal groups, and others were betrayed and taken advantage of by those who first came to the Sacramento area. I have studied some of these groups, yet God has not encouraged me to continue to do this. I did not understand why until I ran into other demonic strongholds in other states, and I began to see that these territorial strongholds were symptoms of something else that needed to be confronted. God has told me to preach about what must be dismantled and broken to unseat these spirits. He almost seems to be saying what I remember saying to my squabbling children when they were engaged in battling with each other. I usually told them, "I don't care who started it, I'm finishing it. I want this ended right now!" God is saying that it doesn't matter who started it, He wants it ended.

He does not look down upon us and see any as having a favorite son or daughter status. He does not see us according to nationality, gender, wealth, education, race, or any other classification that man has come up with. He looks down and sees wounded, hurting, defensive, angry people jockeying for power and protection of their self-perceived rights. One group's rights are almost always promoted at the expense of some other group's rights.

I have preached this message in one church that stands on the very grounds of a former African slave holding pen in Alabama and felt the hatred of the territorial forces. It is not hard to imagine the corporate wrong agreements made here out of great fear, pain, grief, loss, anger, and hopelessness.

I preached this message in a hotel in Texas where something terrible had to have happened to cause great fear, pain, grief, loss, and anger among the Hispanics, for I actually saw that territorial spirit manifest. Contemplate the corporate wrong agreements made here out of great fear, pain, grief, loss, anger, and hopelessness.

I have preached this message in Canada, Washington, and upper Oregon and felt the incredible force of territorial forces over the Pacific Northwest from many different sources. Contemplate the corporate wrong agreements made here out of the great fear, pain, grief, loss, anger, and hopelessness. I have preached this message in Montana and seen powerful breakthrough in the territorial darkness.

In different areas there have been demonic principalities empowered by wrong agreements spoken into place by political groups, philosophical groups, economic groups, gender specific groups, wrong lifestyle groups, and many other people groups. Yet, all of the teaching, preaching, and breakthrough this message has brought has come without ever binding or rebuking any evil spirits. It has been accomplished through corporate prayer by all in attendance at meetings, prayers prayed out loud in one accord against the effects and influences of the wrong agreements of all of the people of the area, as well as former wrong generational agreements.

If Daniel's prayers that unseated the prince of Persia are a valid pattern for future generations to use to unseat demonic princes over their cities, then let us follow their powerful pattern! Daniel's 21 days of power prayers contained no declaration of authority, no commanding, no rebuking, nor casting down of satanic powers—all actions the unsundered soul loves to invoke. His power praying contained only humble confession, repentance, and pleas for mercy regarding the sinfulness of those who had spoken the corporate wrong agreements which drew the prince of Persia into power over Babylon. Daniel prayed for 21 days. If church bodies and groups across our nation would consider just 21 hours of continuous corporate praying in right agreement after Daniel's fashion, what might happen? I know what I would do. I would ask God to send me to join at least one group's 21-hour session in every state of our nation.

Prayer Chart Excerpts

Prayer Chart Excerpt: Grief

Jesus, I have lost someone (or something) very dear to me. I feel such pain and grief in my soul right now. I also feel overwhelming anger, confusion, and fear. Anger because my loss is not fair. Confusion because I do not understand why. Fear because I don't know what else I might lose. You have said that all things work together for good for those who know and love you, but I do not know what possible good lies in this loss. But I know I must trust you to work it to good. Help me to surrender my questions and this unresolved issue to you and make room to receive your grace and comfort.

Prayer Chart Excerpt:Encouraging Yourself In the Lord

Thank you, Lord, for recording in your Word that you did not turn Thomas away from you when he struggled with doubt. Nor did you turn Peter away when he struggled with fear of being aligned with knowing you. I'm struggling and I'm fearful now, and I come to you for encouragement, strength, and assurance. I bind myself to your truth with all its promises, blessings, hope, faith, and covenants. I loose all of my worries and anxieties over what has happened before and what will happen next. I thank you for this moment of rest in the present tense of your love today. Right now, the past is gone and the present is not yet, and I bind myself to your timing for all things. I loose all thought patterns and old mind sets that cause me to be preoccupied with either the past or the future, and I will enjoy this very present time with you.

Prayer Chart Excerpt: Wrong Thought Life

Jesus, the more I bind my mind to your mind, the more acutely aware I become of my critical and judgmental thoughts about others. I will tell my soul as often as I need to that I choose to recognize this and loose those wrong thoughts. I will refuse to allow my soul to feed upon wrong thoughts to try to overcome its feelings of inadequacy and neediness. God's healing and help will cleanse those feelings.

My will sometimes seems to push so hard towards acting upon the ungodly thoughts in my mind. I bind my will to your will, Father. I bind my mind to your mind, Jesus. I still struggle with wanting to see others pay for the painful memories that keep going around and around in my mind. It is your will that my mind, memory, and emotions would be free of anger, wrath, bitterness, and complaining. I loose all wrong thoughts, all wrong beliefs, and the effects and influences of all wrong agreements I have entered into over what I have perceived as cruel injustices towards me. I loose the strongholds that my mind has built to justify and rationalize "my" right to be bitter. I refuse to try and seek out others to agree with my wrong thoughts.

Prayer Chart Excerpt: For Marriages

Help me realize that I am not strong enough, smart enough, or brave enough in my own power to properly deal with any of the unresolved issues of my marriage. Let me not try to draw upon my meager storehouse or my mate's meager storehouse of love and mercy, for they may only fill a teap cup at best. I want to draw upon your love and mercy, which are like a huge reservoir and are limited by nothing except the space I've created within myself to receive them.

Whether or not I feel I have not been understood and appreciated is not the issue if I want to stop the enemy from making everything worse. And I do, Lord, I do!

The enemy's involvement will only be intensified and perpetuated by wrong agreements I make with others of how I'm disappointed, or how disappointed my spouse seems to be with me. Seeking wrong agreements to comfort my soul will give me a much harder time of moving towards being made whole by you. Never let me forget that agreement with my belief of being the wounded one of a wrong circumstance (no matter how real that status actually is) will never de-victimize me. It will only keep me from going beyond my own strongholds to you.

Prayer Chart Excerpt: Prayers for Babies

If a baby is born from a forced conception through violation, conceived through ignorance, or conceived through promiscuity, NO BABY is ever illegitimate or unwanted in your eyes! Every tiny life that enters this harsh world is born with a body, a soul, and a spirit prepared to know a destiny in your will. We loose and eradicate the lie that any child is ever born of Satan. We loose and eradicate the lie that any child is ever born of Satan. Satan is incapable of giving life. Help us to thank you and bless you for life, however it arrives among us. Help us to never blame any tiny one who is filled with your life, whether he or she is planned, hoped for, or unplanned and thought to be unwanted. Lord, teach us how to see all life as you do. Teach us to stand up for the beginnings of all life, to protect, respect, treasure, and nurture it once born into this world.

Prayer Chart Excerpt: Finances

Regardless of all the prosperity Scriptures I have learned to quote, you are under no obligation to provide funding and resources so I can pursue my will, or so I can pursue what I have decided must be your will. But you have promised that you will always provide for those who are walking as fully as they know how in order to see that your will would be done in their own sphere of influence and in all of the earth. Lord, you say in Isaiah (58:7) that we are to share our food with the hungry, we are to provide the poor wanderer with shelter, we are to clothe the naked when we see them, and we are not to turn away from our own flesh and blood in their needs of any kind. We are not called to judge how people came upon hard times, we are to give out of whatever we have and alleviate their suffering. I believe you will provide all I need as I pursue your will as purely as I know how.

Testimonies

Dear Rev. Savard: You may remember the man in the wheelchair while you were with us in Billings, Montana. Walter is his name. He has been unable to get around without a wheelchair or crutches clamped to his arms for years. At the Tuesday night meeting, you autographed his copy of SYS and this is what you wrote: "Walter, God will complete the good work that he has begun. Will go for a walk with you when I come back. Rev. Liberty" The next weekend the men of our church had their retreat at the same camp where you ministered at our women's retreat the previous weekend. This is what Walter related happened three days after you signed his book at the Shriner's Auditorium meetings in Billings:

Walter's Story: While in bed Saturday a.m. before breakfast, I started doing the normal grasping of my legs to lift them out of bed . . . when I heard the word 'Get up.' I turned to my roommate and asked, 'What did you say?' 'I didn't say anything!' was his reply.

I scooted to the edge of the bed and again heard, 'Get up!' So I said to my friend, 'I am going to try something - will you catch me?' He emphatically replied NO. When I asked him why not, he said he didn't know, but just NO!

Again, I heard, 'GET UP!' We were the only two in the room - no one else was there. And I stood - without the crutches. It is important to know that I haven't had balance in more than five (5) years. I've had no feeling in the lower half of my body. But I stood! I wanted to SHOUT at this point, but didn't want to attract attention to myself for God impressed upon me to wait as He had more to show me. By lunch time I was walking without crutches. About 1:30 p.m. I was playing a few games of horseshoes. The Lord had totally restored the use of my legs. My legs have had 'grooves' from muscle atrophy. God totally restored those muscles and filled the indentations. I found myself running up the hill. First time I did it, had to stop about three (3) times, but by end of day on Saturday, was running up the hill NONSTOP.

On Sunday, coming back from retreat, I realized I had my color-vision restored. I had only been able to see things in 'black and white.' By Sunday evening the feeling was back in my legs. They were even sore, possibly from the over-exertion, but that was to be expected. (Pastor Havig's note: I asked Walter how he got into the condition that created this disability. Walter proceeded to tell me more . . .)

In 1987, while in the military, I was injured in my right knee and had several surgeries. They told me at that time that the cartilage was destroyed, 'You will never run again. (Pastor Havig's note: Walter was a runner previously.) You will be in a wheel chair before you reach the age of 30.' This was followed by numerous falls - with injuries to my left knee and my back after falling down some stairs in 1993. On July 25, 1994 - I had my back injured again. They told me I had DJD (Degenerated Joint Disease) and damage to several discs. They proceeded to tell me, 'You will never get out of a wheelchair for the rest of your life.'

I was determined to walk again. I thought I was living right, but found out I wasn't. My mother said I would be healed when I got it right with God. I thought I had my life right with Him. At the meetings Liberty Savard held in Billings, I was able to understand and saw I had things to make right. It was Tuesday night. The blanket prayer Liberty prayed for healing ministered to me, and it was then that I began to experience the beginning of the healing process. ALL pain left my body - including the pain from carpal tunnel in my hands. This was just the beginning and prepared the way for what God did the following Saturday at retreat. GOD IS SO GOOD!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"

(New Beginnings Ministry Center Associate Pastor Carol Havig: Thank you Father, for putting all these events together, for allowing Rev. Savard to join us and bring the NOW WORD OF THE LORD - to set captives free - and to not only give us the 'cake,' but you sure put the 'frosting' on it, too, Father. We praise You for the transformation that has taken place in the lives of the people. We bless You! Thank you, Rev. Savard (may I just say Liberty?) for being the vessel to release new, fresh freedom to His people. And to you, Evelyn, for your support. How my heart has longed for your entire staff to have been able to be here in person and see first hand what God has done - is doing - and we know will do! Thanks all! God bless! Your labors are not in vain. Love from all your brothers and sisters here in the Billings area.

Questions & Answers

Question: Dear Liberty, I saw the response on your website in regards to fear and anxiety, but I need to know. I just started binding, and loosing, and I am experiencing anger like I have never felt before.

Answer: Yes, the anger has always been buried in your soul. You are loosing and stripping away the safeguards and the defense systems your soul has managed to use to hold it in place. But your anger will poison you if you do not let it surface. Just pray that God will cover those around you with grace and mercy, and you as well. Don't try to cover it up again, but let God show you the true source of it and heal you.

Question Continued: Also, when you start binding and loosing, is it normal for things from your past to come up, things you never even remembered?

Answer: Absolutely, for the same reason as stated above. Be sure, however, to bind yourself to the truth, so that your soul will not be able to sneak manufactured memories into your thought processes. Your soul will do that if it fears you are about to uncover things that have previously terrified you. You're breaking apart the defense system of your soul and the things it has buried are coming to the surface. This might be a little frightening, but it is a good sign. God wants to get your healing on the road and soon. Rev. Liberty Savard

Question: Your book should come with a free box of tissue as I have been weeping with joy while reading it. It has provided a deeper understanding of Scripture which has finally allowed God to liberate me from 30 years of struggle and pain. I have built behaviors and strongholds which I thought I would never be rid of. Particularly beautiful was the experience of praying with my wife to forgive me and to loose the power of the curse words and put downs that I had inflicted on her because of my own problems. Now, a question. The following is a quote from one of your answers appearing on your site. "This is why some people turn to alcohol, drugs, homosexual behavior, and behaviors that they know may ultimately destroy them. They learn that these behaviors at least dull the "frightening needs" (my quotes) and drives within them at least for a short while."

Liverty, have you been able to discern or have you had disclosed to you the patterns of needs/trauma that can lead to homosexual behaviour? Many today believe or are teaching that this is innate behavior and not learned behavior. I have heard that some homosexuals have changed their behavior with God's help and understand that Scripture condemns homosexual lust and practices. Do you have training wheel prayers in this area?

Answer: Usually I tell people that the basic binding and loosing Training Wheel prayers in SYS, along with other ones in BTP about wrong behaviors, will be a good place to start. The Holy Spirit will guide and lead beyond that. I absolutely believe that homosexuality is not a spirit, nor is it innate behavior, but it is a learned behavior to try to meet deep unmet needs for acceptance, love, affirmation. Someone in a wrong lifestyle was the one who stepped up and offered a temporary "fix" for those unmet needs when no one else seemed to understand.

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES, INC.

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President, an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915), has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (New Jersey) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.) with her 3rd book, Producing the Promise!, being released mid-1999.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to tear down their own (self-constructed) inner strongholds by using the keys of the Kingdom found in Matthew 16:19 (binding and loosing) to strip their old natures' (soul) power over their lives and make room within themselves to receive all God has promised! Also, 1) To loose, shatter, crush, and break the power and effects and influences of all wrong agreements made over lives, geographic territories, and circumstances, 2) And to occupy and hold the territories taken for the Kingdom for God.
