Vol. 5, Issue 4, October 1997

Well, it is hard to know where to start first, so many things are happening. We're upgrading our computers, we've created a new web site, the ministry just purchased a scanner which means the next volume will have pictures and everything (that is assuming we figure out how to work it!)

We will have the new video teachings of all ten chapters of Breaking the Power available for shipping before Christmas! There is still some space for those of you who would like to attend the video taping in Orlando FL November 13-15th. A registration form is enclosed, but don't delay. We need to hear from you right away. Also, we're launching out with a proposed program of donating sets of the new videos to Third-World nations as the first phase of our "Spread the SYS/BTP Message" outreach. (I'm believing that we will even be able to donate combination tv/vcr sets where the church ministries in these countries have nothing to play the videos with.

We have begun to form a "working alliance" with Mike Barber Ministries in Texas who are supplying Shattering Your Strongholds to inmates on death row. LSM will also be traveling during October and November to nine (9!) different states to take this message into new areas. Name number 1444 gets a gift album set of Jubilee '96 tapes. Testimonies and endorsements are pouring in from other countries and all over the United States. People everywhere are using the binding and loosing principles of prayer, dismantling the control centers of the unsundered souls that have been holding them back—and miracles are happening.

So much to tell you, whew! We're bringing up a new section in the newsletter (as well as on the new web site) on questions that we are getting. We will be featuring certain questions and providing answers to questions that keep coming up over and over. We are also going to be highlighting important points of this message that bear repeating. So, let's get on with the details.

Oh yes. One more thing. This month we're having a special blessing giveaway to just a whole bunch of people. Check your mailing label and read the number to the right of your name. If you find your number anywhere in this newsletter, just send your name and number into our office by fax or letter and we will mail you a special gift. Don't miss out! For example, name number 1010 gets a gift album set of Breaking the Chains. See how easy that is? No one here has checked the numbers against the master list yet, so we don't even know who you are!

Testimonies

(All testimonies here are on file in offices of LSM)

I want to thank you, first of all for your generosity in helping provide your book Shattering Your Strongholds to some of the inmates on Death Row. It is difficult to put in words the impact your teaching has had, not only on my life, but on the lives of the women with whom we have shared it. The principles you have outlined in the book are timeless truths from the Bible that we have not fully comprehended until now. We are so grateful to you for obeying the Lord and putting His revelation into book form.

Many prisons have video libraries, where the inmates can come together in small groups and watch education and spiritual videos. With the upcoming release of your new video series, the possibility of reaching many more prisoners is exciting.

MIKE BARBER PRISON MINISTRIES, Texas

I have spent almost a year teaching a Woman's Sunday School class on Shattering Your Strongholds. Absolutely life-changing for all of us! The prayers in Breaking the Power are super. I'm also teaching these principles to women in prison with wonderful results. Praise God! Blessings on your ministry and especially to you personally. Our intercessory prayer group will pray for you as the Holy Spirit leads. PB Williamsport MD.

Dear L. Savard: I can't begin to tell you just how much your two books have helped me. I found out about them from an inmate I write to who is on death row in prison here in Alabama. Your books have been a life saver for me. I just want to know when is your next book coming out? C.S. Birmingham AL

Dear Liberty: Shattering Your Strongholds has taught me to recognize how my past hurts were preventing God from doing a quick work in my healing. Breaking the Power taught me how to pray to get my soul to relinquish control of my life and let God do the "controlling." Name number 1332 gets a free Soul Ties tape. So many miracles have come into my life since reading those books, it would take all day long to tell you! I pray that God continues to use you to teach His children how to recognize what is from Him and what isn't. I'm just one who has been blessed immeasurably! C.A.

Dear Rev. Savard: Since my first letter to you after reading your book Shattering Your Strongholds, the Lord has truly blessed my family. My husband and I both were using the prayers for our children . . . well, hold on! THEY WERE BOTH SAVED AND BAPTIZED IN CHURCH LAST WEEK!

It is amazing how these prayers work . . . I use them all the time on everyone I know, and on those I don't know, too. When I pray them for someone, I just get a tickle inside, thinking to myself, "Now these people are going to start thinking about Jesus, and Jesus is going to make himself known to them. And they are not going to have a clue why." How fun that is! C.L. Daytona Beach FL

This is a first for me. Never have I wanted to write to an author of a book before. But please be encouraged by knowing that Breaking the Power has had such a tremendous impact on my praying, that I had to write and tell you so. It is not that different from your first book Shattering Your Strongholds, but I was not prepared for the impact of the new book. It seems more "usable." The fruit of my prayers over these past two weeks has been immediate and dramatic. A friend asked for prayers for her family. There were serious "seemingly" irreconcilable differences and relationships were fracturing. Both sides were brought into grace and peace through these prayers. Only the Lord can accomplish such reconciliation when we make it possible for Him to do so.

That brings me to what I see in this truth of prayer. First, I see that this truth really does glorify the Lord and only the Lord! All other ways of prayer still depend on the "pray-er" more than necessary. Praying "this" way requires total humility on our part and declares the Lord to be Lord. It confirms His place of authority in every situation. The second idea that comes to mind surrounds the idea of praying for those we do not know. For years I have been puzzled by the Scripture in Joel 3:14 that reads: "Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision." Well, how can people make a true decision unless they have had all their "stuff" loosed from them so they know what their options are? When people see this clearly, they have no place to hide. They must make a choice.

The third blessing that I can see coming from this truth is unity in the Body of Christ. If the picture of this family I mentioned is any indication of what the Lord is accomplishing in these days, then truly we can look for great things to be happening in the Church. My heartfelt thanks for your obedience and submission to the Lord in this. May He continue to bless you and your family with grace and peace. Name number 736 gets a gift album set of Breaking the Chains. J.G.G. Houston TX.

Dear Liberty Savard: We read your book Shattering Your Strongholds. We would like to order tapes and workbook about this subject. Please, Holland needs this, too! God bless you. Y.M. Spykenisse, Holland

I hope this is how it is supposed to be, but the things that have been brought to mind! Little strongholds and areas of inferiority have come up that I never knew were there! Of course, I know how to deal with them now and I'm beginning to feel free indeed. Thanks for everything, for being faithful to God's call and to share His end time revelation. T.H. Dayton OH

(FIRST LETTER excerpts) Dear Rev. Savard: My name is Debra Adams. I am in a Pre-Parde facility located outside of Dallas TX. I am scheduled for release in November of 1997. A dear friend mailed me Shattering Your Strongholds and Breaking the Power. These books have had a major impact on my life. For the past 7-8 years, I have used a childhood sexual abuse issue to justify drug abuse, crime and unhealthy relationships. Not anymore! I thank and praise God for my dear friend who realized through the working of the Holy Spirit that there were some strongholds in my life that needed tearing down so I may walk victoriously and live abundantly. I am still a "baby" in binding and loosing prayers, but I am working to grasp this prayer concept and am becoming comfortable with the keys. Please send me any other information you have. Thank you so much.

(SECOND LETTER excerpts) Dear Rev. Savard: Thank you so much for answering my letter personally. I cried in the mail line and then shared it with other ladies here that I have shared your books with. The copy of Shattering Your Strongholds is worn out and I love it. One reads it and then passes it on. I am to be released December 1, but have bound my timing to God's perfect timing. I would be proud to have my testimony published in your newsletter, but it does not have to be anonymous. Please pray for me for an early release, and I am also praying the training wheel prayers for a right "mate." I have been binding and loosing all over the place! Thank you for your encouraging words. Debra Allen

Questions & Answers

Q: Dear Liberty, Our ladies prayer/study group is about to begin using Shattering Your Strongholds, and I had a few questions about the injunction against participation in other counseling or self-help groups during this period. One of our members is working in a well-known Christian weight loss program. Do you see any major conflict here?

A: I have reviewed this group's material on a surface level and it seems pretty good to me. I would have one reservation about it and that is that it seems to reinforce the idea that you must continue to work the "program" to overcome eating problems. I do not believe that. Name number 512 gets a free gift tape on Soul Ties. Overeating (as well as some drug use, alcoholism, fornication, wrong relationships, compulsive shopping, etc.) usually comes from self-attempts to feed, pacify, drug or quiet the painful pressure of unmet needs deep in the unsundered soul. These inner drives and pressures can be devastatingly powerful in someone who has many unhealed hurts and unresolved issues "buried" in their unsundered souls as well. To work a program is not sin, of course, but it is still the soul trying to stay involved in controlling its own pain and need.

Of course I would not suggest that you bar this person from your SYS group. But I would recommend that she read the follow-up book to Shattering Your Strongholds, which is called Breaking the Power, to get a deeper understanding of unmet needs in the soul. Name number 111 gets a gift tape on Soul Ties. There is only one real way to get unmet needs and unhealed hurts "fixed." That is to learn how to strip away all self-protection, self-medication attempts, self-defense mechanisms, etc., and let Jesus Christ get His mercy and grace and healing power into the unmet needs and unhealed hurts. That is permanent. Working a program is temporary, because you have to keep doing it.

Q: A woman I've been ministering to has begun receiving counseling in a secular setting. Would this exclude her for the time being from a group study using Shattering Your Strongholds?

A: No, it would not. But it could bring up some situations in discussion where you would be faced with needing to deal with wrong teaching she might be getting through secular counseling. This could create conflict in her soul and bring confusion if not handled gently. You could give her some very basic binding and loosing precepts to practice on her own. Particularly binding her mind to the mind of Christ and loosing wrong patterns of thinking, the influences and effects of wrong agreements she has entered into and the ensuing soul ties that are created by wrong agreements (there is more understanding of this in Breaking the Power).

It could be done with great grace and patience, but you would need to be always praying for the Lord to show you how to gently turn her secular counseling into positive paths to God's truth (rather than directly confronting what her counselor says, with the exception of anti-God, anti-Christian statements, of course).

Q: My marriage partner does not want to work on or get counseling to save our marriage.

We're both Christians, but what can I do if I'm the only one who wants to fight for the relationship? How should I pray to find out what God wants me to do? Help!

A: You did not say if you are familiar with this ministry's message or not, but I would recommend the prayer principles in the books Shattering Your Strongholds and Breaking the Power. Simply and quickly put, they work like this:

We are each made up of body, soul and spirit. For far too long, we have been taught that the devil causes all of the problems we have with trying to walk in spiritual victory. This is not true, for he only can access our lives when we give him open doors. These doors of wrong spiritual access come into being through disobedience to God—disobedience justified and rationalized, rather than repented of and turned away from. This happens in our souls (which are the mind, will and emotions).

It is our unsundered soul that is giving us all our trouble. Salvation through the shed blood of Jesus Christ comes instantly to the spirit, reuniting the human spirit in perfect communion with God's Spirit. The working out of the salvation and restoration and renewal of the soul can take a long time if you don't know what you are dealing with. Binding and loosing principles of prayer are the best keys you can ever use to effect the surrender of the soul to allow God to bring renewing of the mind, will and emotions.

Bind your will and your mate's will to the will of God. Bind your mind and your mate's mind to the mind of Christ. Bind your emotions and his/her emotions to the control and balancing of the Holy Spirit. Bind yourself and him/her to the truth of God's Word. Bind your feet and his/her feet to the paths God has always chosen for you to walk. Do NOT bind your selves to each other, but instead bind each of you individually to the attributes of God's nature, to the fruit of the Holy Spirit.

Loose wrong beliefs, wrong ideas, wrong patterns of thinking, wrong attitudes and strongholds in both of your souls. Loose wrong agreements and soul ties. Your mate should do this for him/her self for the most effective severing of wrong agreements and soul ties he/she has formed to others. If he/she won't, then you can still impact him/her by your prayers. It just might take longer. There is no such thing as a good soul tie (explanation in Breaking the Power) and they only result in human influence and manipulation of others—even in husbands and wives!

Finally, loose every "layer" of self-esteem, self-defense, self-reliance, soul-preservation "instincts," self-centeredness and self-will off of both of your souls. Then ask God to pour grace and mercy beneath, around, past and over the walls being torn down in the hidden parts of your unsundered souls. We each self-construct these walls and strongholds for self-protection from what we fear the most, i.e., abandonment, betrayal, rejection, deception, pain, neediness, etc. Your soul attempts to bury your unmet needs, unhealed hurts and unresolved issues, which turns these three sources (of ALL of your problems, wrong behaviors and wrong reactions) into "hidden" toxic waste dumps.

They may be out of sight, but the toxic emissions from them are impacting both of your lives every day. Long-standing unmet needs, unhealed hurts and unresolved issues become like toxic chemicals, eating away at the infrastructure of everything that makes you "you," even to destroying your own sense of caring if you live or not. God and God alone can "fix" these three holes in your soul, no human being or material possession ever can. But you must dismantle all of your self-constructed strongholds and walls to let Him get in and do it. He won't override the choices of your wills that erected these defense systems.

Q: A baby has been born to a lesbian in our family. What can we do to help that baby?

A: I believe that you need to definitely pray certain prayers for this baby, but you must also pray them for the mother. Let me first give you just a few thoughts on the mother being a lesbian. There is no question that she is in a wrong lifestyle with wrong behaviors involved. I believe that most, if not all wrong behaviors have their beginnings when people are overwhelmed with unmet needs in their souls and began to desperately seek some kind of relief.

Unmet needs occur when something right and strong should have happened in a life—but did not—as a person's character and personality was beginning to be formed. I don't know if you've read Breaking the Power yet. Name number 245 gets a free Healing Packet. It would really give you some additional insight on unmet needs, unhealed hurts and unresolved issues in the soul.

Deep, unmet needs of long standing in a life cannot be met by any human being or fixed by any material possession. God alone can meet them and heal the vulnerability they have brought into a life. But Satan is very capable of maneuvering people (who are in bondage to wrong behaviors) into the paths of those who are overwhelmed with need. Someone can step up and temporarily meet their needs, distracting them from their pain and fear. The needy person then returns to that temporary fix whenever the inner pressure gets too strong until it finally becomes a habit or a lifestyle, just like alcohol or drugs.

Then the person must begin to rationalize that wrong behavior, habit or lifestyle in order to alleviate worrying and feeling guilty as they continue seeking its temporary solutions to their problems. That is the beginning of building a personal, inner stronghold to justify the lifestyle and protect the wrong beliefs. I do not believe that wrong behaviors begin from satanic sources, but once in place, rationalizing and justifying them to avoid accountability for them begins to place the person in direct defiance and disobedience to God. This opens up doors of access for evil spirits to begin to harass and attack, thereby compounding and intensifying the need, the pain and the fear. The person returns to the temporary relief offered by the wrong behavior more and more, sliding deeper and deeper into the patterns involved. The habit become entrenched and the person seems to be trapped in it.

This person also enters into wrong agreements with others in the same wrong behavior patterns which leads to the development of soul ties. Soul ties open up new avenues of manipulation and influence from other souls as well as wrong spirits. Everything just keep spiraling downward until it seems useless to try to change.

That mother needs to be free from the wrong beliefs she has locked in place within her unsundered soul—her damaged emotions, unsundered will and wrong mind sets and patterns of thinking. She needs to loose (crush, shatter, smash and tear apart) the strongholds, the influences and effects of the wrong agreements and the soul ties. If she is not in a place where she will do this, then you can start the process of getting her free through your "righteous" prayers. Righteous prayers are prayers in accordance with God's will for a righteous resolution—they are never prayers that condemn, judge or moralize.

The ultimate choice will have to be hers, for the choices she has made that have brought to where she is today have been choices of her own free will. God will not force her to do anything against her free will. But you can loose and strip away the grave clothes of her lifestyle to enable her to recognize, clearly hear and respond to the voice of Jesus Christ who calls to her every time someone prays and asks Him to help.

The baby is being harassed by the same influences and effects that the mother is because of the close relational intimacy with her. I do not believe a "deliverance" for the baby would have any lasting effect, because of the reintroduction of the spiritual harassment impacting the mother through the open doors of access in her soul. Those doors need to be closed. Name number 1552 gets a free Soul Ties tape. Here is how I would pray for the mother and the baby:

Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, I bring this mother and this baby before you. You have said in your Word (Matt. 16:19) that whatsoever we would bind and loose on earth, would be bound and loosed in heaven.

Lord, the original manuscripts of your holy Scriptures tell us that the exact wording of this Scripture says that whatsoever we would bind and loose on earth WOULD BE, HAVING BEEN BOUND AND LOOSED IN HEAVEN (already).

Your perfect will and plans for this mother and this baby have already been established in heaven. Now, Lord, I am praying and binding this mother and child to your will, that your established plan for their lives shall be done on earth as it is in heaven.

I bind this mother's will and the will of this baby to your will. I bind this mother's mind and the mind of this baby to the mind of Christ. I bind the mother's emotions and the baby's emotions to the peace and the balance of the Holy Spirit. I bind this mother to the truth of your love and your grace and your mercy. I bind her feet to the paths you have always ordained for her to walk.

I loose wrong beliefs, wrong ideas, wrong patterns of thinking, wrong attitudes and wrong motives from this mother. I loose deception, denial and hopelessness from her. I loose the influences and effects of wrong agreements and soul ties from her. I loose the influences and effects of any and all wrong agreements and soul ties of the mother that are impacting the soul of this baby.

I loose all the layers of self-reliance, self-denial, self-protection, self-defense and self-preservation from this mother, the very layers that her unsundered soul has used to try to cover over her unmet needs, unhealed hurts and unresolved issues. Lord, this mother has been running from her fear and her pain and from you for a long time. She has built tremendous strongholds, walls and self-protective defenses. She has sought relief from her neediness, her pain and her confusion in wrong places. You will not push down her walls, but you will cause your mercy and grace to flow into any openings we can effect by our prayers of stripping away and tearing at her self-constructed walls.

Lord, please move with great grace, mercy, healing and power in the life of this mother and child. Bring understanding and forgiveness and cleansing to her deepest areas of vulnerability and wounding. Bring peace to the baby. Help us, through our prayers, to begin to close the doors of wrong spiritual access in this mother's soul.

By righteous, non-judgmental, loving prayers, we can cooperate with and be a part of praying into being an earthly manifestation of your answers already established in heaven. Please bring your anointing into every area of this situation and upon everyone involved. Thank you, thank you, thank you for doing this. We ask these things in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Q: What right do we have to bind someone else's will to the will of God? Or to bind their mind to the mind of Christ? Isn't that like witchcraft?

A: No, binding someone's will to your will or their mind to your mind would be like witchcraft. When you bind someone else's free will to the will of God, you are not attempting to render them "will-less." You are bringing their will into a closeness with the will of the Father that has always been established in heaven for them—should they choose to accept it. They will always be in conflict and tension if they are pursuing their free will's desire to live a natural lifestyle and rejecting their spirit's desire to live a godly, spiritual life. This is the battle that we all fight, the natural versus the spiritual. Name number 392 gets a free Soul Ties tape.

Binding their will to the will of God (which was predetermined for them before the beginning of time as we know it) places them in an immediate proximity to His will that they have not experienced before. They can still choose to reject it, but they will be very aware of it. They will no longer be able to reject His will out of so-called "ignorance," through self-denial, self-deception and self-rationalization. They will be forced to face the reality of the choices they are making.

Binding someone's mind to the mind of Christ is the most blessed thing I can imagine to do for someone who is confused, lost, struggling, frightened, and soulishly rebelling against the one totally loving and true Friend they could have. Your prayers of binding their mind to the mind of Christ mean that they will hear the voice of "both" sides of the human story, not just what they feed into their minds from media sources, conventional wisdom of the world, confused and struggling friends, humanistic philosophers or new age gurus.

One final thought: If you should ever find me standing on the ledge of the fifteenth story of a building, declaring that I am in my right mind and am making a free will choice to dive off the window ledge head first onto the pavement below, do me a favor! Bind and/or cross my will any way you can, or hit me with a brick and render me mindless. Just don't let me exercise my free will and free thinking at that particular moment, OK?

Nuggets to "Chew" On

- If you get all of your areas of vulnerability open to God's grace and mercy, you won't have anything left to react to any more. You'll find yourself with more hours in each day than you have ever had. These hours have been freed up by not having to clean up the fall out of your "core reactor."

- Know how to get all of your prayers answered all of the time, every time? Pray right prayers. These are righteous prayers that have only ONE answer in mind: God's will being done. They are not reasonable, logical and rational prayers that make sense to the soul.
- You're not a human being having a little spiritual experience here on earth. You're an eternal spiritual being who just happens to be having a little human experience here on earth.
- Don't get all worked up over the wrong behaviors of those you are praying for—they are SYMPTOMS. Know that the symptoms will go away as you pray for the SOURCES causing them.
- Splinter Principle: When you have a splinter or shard of glass in your finger, do you remove (loose) your finger from the splinter? Or, do you remove (loose) the splinter from your finger? Remember this next time when you are "loosing" yourself or others from wrong things—loose the wrong things from the person instead.
- Wrong behaviors almost always have unmet needs, unhealed hurts and unresolved issues as their source. You need to shatter and open up strongholds and walls that have kept God from getting into those sources. Once this is accomplished, the wrong behaviors will disappear.

Healing Packet Excerpt

You are made up of body, soul and spirit. And, it's your unsundered soul that has been causing all of the trouble in your Christian walk! Your unsundered soul:

1. Has been creating conflict with your regenerated spirit's desire to believe and act upon everything God has promised to you in His Word,
2. Has been creating open doors for the devil's attacks upon you,
3. Has been protecting the sources of your infirmities,
4. Has been protecting your wrong patterns of thinking, wrong beliefs, half-truths and generational-bondage thinking about your physical health.

Understanding and implementing the power of the principles of binding and loosing prayers will enable you to break through your soul's strongholds, walls, deceptions, mind sets and mental databases of wrong beliefs acquired throughout your entire life. This must be accomplished in order to make room to receive the fullness of God's miracle-working truth in and through your spirit.

Understanding and implementing the power of the principles of binding and loosing praying will enable you to strip away all of the clutter and "stuff" you have been accumulating all your life about your physical health. These principles of prayer, when applied, will also close doors in your soul (accessible by Satan and wrong spirits) that you have not even been aware of being open! If you are born again, washed in the blood and forgiven by God's grace, but have remained unable to receive the goodness and fullness of God's blessings promised to all of His children, then two things are at work in your life:

1. You have more old, wrong "stuff" from your past stored in your unsundered soul than you have good and godly knowledge stored in your born-again, new-creation, blood-washed spirit.
2. Through ignorance or rebellion, you have created open doorways of access in your soul for the devil and his spirits to attack your physical being.

Understanding and acting upon the incredible keys of the Kingdom, binding and loosing, is the basic bottom line of all you need to know about getting free, being strong, receiving healing and becoming totally useful to the Kingdom of God in these final days of the Church age. Name number 20 gets a gift tape on Soul Ties. It all begins with the words of Jesus Christ himself:

*"I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven:
and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth
shall be bound in heaven:
and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven"
(Matt. 16:19, KJV).*

Jesus Christ was not talking just to Peter here, He was talking to His Church which was yet to be birthed. I believe He was telling all who would follow Him that there were specific "keys" of binding and loosing that would cut through the bondages, burdens and baggage they had accumulated throughout their human lives.

He knew we would come to Him one day in a flawed human condition. He knew exactly what humans would have to walk through on this earth, for He began His human existence at exactly the same the same point we did: as a baby with a body, soul and spirit.

Jesus Christ walked this earth in total humanity, facing and overcoming all of the frailties of human flesh and the temptations of the human soul, just as all believers have had to do for the past 2,000 years.

He walked in human form upon this earth in such victory, yet we seem to face such struggle to just hang on and "survive" the workings of our souls and our flesh, the devil and the world. Aren't you glad that He did not walk in victory just by calling upon His divinity, an action we mere humans could never duplicate? He walked in victory in the exact same way that we can walk victoriously.

He simply believed that whatever
His Father spoke to Him, by the Holy Spirit communicating through His "human" spirit, was absolute, completely final, forever settled
TRUTH. That's all we're asked to do.

Strongholds Exposed

*By the light of God's Word I searched my heart,
In the night that was dreary and long.
Oppression had encased me in its vice of despair,
And had robbed me of joy and my song.*

*As I opened God's Word with a yearning soul,
There the depth of my heart was revealed.
My night had been long for the lies I'd believed,
And the stronghold from my youth I'd concealed.*

*I'd built up a wall of protection to self,
And had shut in the wounds of my past.
Deception had cursed me through ignorance and doubt,
While anxiety had portrayed me bedfast.*

*The reason I pained was my rejection of grace,
And the healing I could have received.
But my mind had been set with indifference to God,
'Gainst the promises I could have believed.*

*No matter the past with its curses imposed,
And the hurts that remained still intact—
As I studied God's Word I saw healing for me, Though the issues I'd faced were a fact.*

*I had accessed sin and justified my old self,
I'd harbored my vices of anger and pride.
But now my decision is to crush my dark past,
And expose all my deception and lies.*

The healing this choice has brought to my life,

*Is a miracle of mercy revealed.
Though my past still remains, its sting is removed,
And in Christ's love I'm complete and I'm healed.*

PLEASE HELP US PRAY ABOUT MOVING INTO A "CENTER" and getting more staff. We're drowning in paper work, details, orders and production. New books need to be written, more trips need to be taken and we're already all pretending to be twins.

Sherry Johnson (my office assistant) and Evelyn Christian (my traveling assistant) both remember all of you in prayer, both those we just know are "out there," and those who write us, call us and e-mail us.

Who and What is Liberty Savard Ministries?

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President, an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915), has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor and Bible teacher. She is the West Coast Field Editor for Bridge-Logos Pub. (New Jersey) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds© (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Breaking the Power© (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.).

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to tear down their own (self-constructed) strongholds by using the keys of the Kingdom found in Matthew 16:19 (binding and loosing) to strip their old natures' (soul) power over their lives and make room within themselves to receive all God has promised!

Don't miss the new web site coming up this week. It is still under construction on some of the pages, but we're really excited about it! Some of the new features are as follows;

- A guest book where you can leave comments and see other comments.
- A Q&A Page for your most confidential questions for Liberty Savard's eyes only. You will be answered privately (within 24-hours unless LS is "on the road.") There will be many of the most "frequently asked questions and answers" listed for all to see. We're planning on working out a live, on-line Q&A chat room set-up once a week.
- A "Retreat Page" with beautiful pictures, soft music and inspirational sayings and comforting Scriptures. Stop by for a moment of quiet.

- And more, as we manage to think it up!
