1998 Update On Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc.

Jesus said, "I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Mat. 16:19, KJV). Many ask if Shattering Your Strongholds is a book on spiritual warfare. I say that this is the book you need to read before you attempt any spiritual warfare, so you might save yourself a lot of pain!

We've wasted far too much time trying to bind the devil and trying to loose the Holy Spirit and ministering spirits into situations. This is an attempt to "fight" fights we don't need to fight, while trying to send the Holy Spirit and angels to do what we think they should. The most powerful use you will ever employ of the spiritual keys of binding and loosing is to turn them inward and expose hidden areas of wounded vulnerability being fiercely guarded and protected by your own unsundered soul.

Self-defended inner areas of wounded vulnerability and need, until exposed to God's healing grace and mercy, are capable of repeatedly tripping up the most educated and dedicated Christian.

Jesus gave the keys of binding and loosing to His Church to show believers how to step out of the bondage of their pasts into cooperating with God in the present that they would be able to embrace their futures. Yet so few seem to know how to use them effectively. This lack of understanding severely impairs Christians' ability to move past their religious understanding to enter into their end-time destiny ministries.

My second book, Breaking the Power, attempts to reveal that the "control structure" of the unsundered soul is far more powerful in controlling our thoughts, actions, and personal agendas than many Christians are willing to believe. Every area of inner soul-control is protected by self-constructed strongholds which must be pulled down. These personal, inner strongholds consist of the finite human logic, reasoning, justifications, rationalizations, and denial that struggling believers (and non-believers as well) use to try to excuse an inability to overcome their pasts. But the Kingdom keys of binding and loosing are more than adequate for the job. Making a choice to use them is the hardest thing about using them.

“For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds; casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ” (2 Cor. 10:4-5, KJV). The dismantling of these "high things" is accomplished through the "loosing" of self-protective layers of self-denial, self-reliance, self-deception, and soul-control guarding the unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved issues that bind so many Christians.

These areas of wounded vulnerability are frantically covered over by self-willed, self-protective layers (just like burying toxic waste in your basement). Then the unsundered soul puts finite justifications, reasoning, logic, and arguments (personal strongholds) in place to defend why we are just "the way we are." All of these inner self-defense systems keep our pain and deception locked in and God's healing and truth locked out.

An unsundered soul (unrenewed mind, unsundered will, and unhealed emotions) that is fearful of relinquishing the control it has garnered throughout a lifetime will do almost anything to protect its position of control in a person's life. If you have struggled with trying to walk in the Spirit in truth and reality, experiencing little victory and joy and peace, you are trapped within your unsundered soul's own self-constructed prisons. Your answer is not to keep begging God to set you free, for He's been holding out the "keys of the Kingdom" for your freedom since you became aware He existed. The answer is to know what the keys are, how to use them to walk free and stay free.

God will not push down the strongholds of your unsundered soul's free-will choices. Nor will He pour authority into an unsundered soul which will misappropriate it for personal gain. But binding and loosing can bring your stubborn, stiff-necked, unsundered soul into alignment with God's original purposes for it and bless you.

Jesus Christ always seeks an invitation to enter in and do renewal work within our lives. Jesus said and still says, “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me” (Rev. 3:20, KJV). The teaching message of Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc. is an ongoing attempt to reveal the simplicity of letting Him in: by binding one's own will to God's will while loosing the strongholds and self-protective layers out of one's own soul to make room to receive His great ability to meet, heal, and resolve all inner needs, hurts, and issues.

If you were experiencing difficulty trying to walk naturally and you saw that the hindrance was a great number of leeches clinging to your legs and ankles, what would be your immediate natural response? Would you seek counseling and prayer for leech removal? Would you buy books, attend conferences, and listen to tapes on leech deliverance? Or, would you immediately begin to strip the leeches off yourself?

This is exactly the same situation many find themselves in, with soulish "leeches" (traumatic memories and wrong beliefs from decades earlier, roots of bitterness, unforgiveness, fear, etc.) sapping their life from them. Rather than using the keys of the Kingdom to strip off the grip of these soulish leeches, Christians have sought deliverance, counseling, support groups, 12-step programs, psychiatric help, spiritual warfare training, books, tapes, videos, etc., to get free. Often, they haven't even known what they were trying to be free from.

What have others said about this message and ministry? "As a pastor, I have been blessed by reading your book. It forcefully puts needed emphasis on a part of our inheritance that most of us do not claim or have forgotten. I am grateful to you" (AL).

"As a member of the Wycliffe Bible Translators, I felt such heavy oppression that I could not concentrate clearly to carry on my work in Bible translation. Since I began reading your book and praying the prayers, the Lord has freed me from that oppression" (ASIA).

This is an opportunity to understand the missing pieces of your Christian victory. This is one teaching you will not walk away from without fullness of understanding of the simple steps you need to take to cooperate with God's principles of freedom from your own soul's sabotage.

Going On Assignments For God 30 Days at a Time!

I am still praying about the "30-Day Assignments for God" I believe I am to undertake over the next two years. I have been praying for God's direction and guidance on how to implement such an extended prayer invasion of a city. I feel these "assignments" will be a combination of:

Teaching

about Jesus' instructions on keys of the Kingdom prayer

Preaching

about producing the promises of God by prayer

Practicing

the spiritual birthing of God's will through prayer.

While speaking at the Christian Believers United/Iverna Tompkins Ministries Women of the Word Conference in North Carolina this past weekend, I heard one speaker spoke of her daughter's request that she be in the delivery room during the daughter's cesarean birth. The speaker had a severe problem with the sight of blood, invariably fainting. The daughter said to her mother, "But I thought you were always preaching about how you can do all things through Christ Jesus. Why can't you do this?"

So the mother prepared, studied, attended pre-natal classes, prayed, read the Bible, and went into the delivery room to fulfill her purpose for the moment. Just prior to her daughter's delivery of the baby, the mother fainted dead away. She awoke on a gurney next to her daughter.

The speaker's point was this: she managed to make it through the entire process and then fainted just seconds before the birth, the whole reason for the process! The parallel she drew was extremely clear. How many Christians prepare, study, attend classes, pray, read the Bible, and make it through the entire "process" of preparing for the birthing of God's will in their end-time destinies only to faint before the actual birth occurs!

“Mentoring the Unknown Messengers of The End Times Conference” Sacramento CA Oct. 29-31, 1998

We are very excited about the Mentoring the Unknown Messengers of the End Times Conference being so near! We have had some very exciting times of first holding our breaths and then having breakthroughs as we have continued the plans for the Conference.

First, we were “bumped” from our original hotel setting by remodeling plans that were running months over their originally projected completion date.

The LSM staff went into intense prayer that God would give us favor to find another location, quickly! We felt led to ask the initial hotel for favor in helping us find that setting and we were helped to transfer to another hotel.

Then a couple of months later, after further advertising had been printed and sent out, we were handed a “bombshell” by the new hotel! We were informed that our signed contract was “wrong” with regard to the meeting rooms we would be using and we were going to have to give up our ballroom setting on the final night of the Conference. We are believing for 300 to attend and this was definitely going to be difficult for us.

The hotel had somehow “forgotten” that they would be having their 8th Annual Halloween Costume Ball on Halloween night (the final night of our Conference) in the ballroom we were promised.

We were being told we would have to go into a smaller meeting room for our big final meeting and special last night “Keys of the Kingdom Commissioning Service.” The LSM staff went into intense prayer again. We had a signed contract with the hotel for the ballroom, but our 21-day Prayer Invasion had taught us one thing.

We don't always know what God is doing.

So, we bound everyone involved to God's will, purposes, and timing. We loosed the effects and influences of all wrong agreements and prayed that God's will alone would be done in every aspect of the situation. NOT the legal will of our contract; NOT our wills; NOT the hotel management personnel's wills; BUT God's will be done!

We received a phone call the following day and were informed the hotel was canceling their 8th Annual Halloween Costume Ball (500 average attendance) and giving us the ballroom. This was accomplished without our ever having to demand our rights, fight for what we believed we needed to have, or pressure the hotel to do what we felt was “the right thing.” God convinced them to do the “right thing” all on His own once we determined to get out of His way. This is a key point we will reiterate over and over at the Mentoring the Unknown Messengers Conference.

Even in the believer who loves Jesus very much, the unsundered soul wants to show forth its authority, prove its ability to project its rights, and display its strength of taking a stand and refusing to move. All of which I was formerly very adept at doing. God really does it all so much better!

We are thrilled that we are now able to continue our plans for a classroom teaching setting (half-tables for taking notes) in the big ballroom. We have some great meals planned, some wonderful music, awesome speakers, and best of all: We believe that God is fully prepared to show up and show off (or "show out" if you're Southern!) all of His glory!

Rev. Irma Diaz, Rev. Carolyn Driver, Evangelist Sean Smith, Pastor Diane Gardner, Missionary Roland Ashby and Rev. Liberty Savard are all prepared and expressing great excitement about the messages they are preparing for the Conference! These dynamic speakers will all be speaking on how you can recognize and cooperate with God's will in every aspect of your foreordained end-times ministry. Regardless of any negative words spoken to or about you, regardless of a lack of recognition of the calling of God on your life, regardless of your own doubts and fears:

You have an end-time destiny to fulfill and you already have everything you need to step into it!

Hudson Taylor said it so simply: "Doing God's work God's way means you will always have everything you need." This Conference will be a time of learning how to get rid of all of your half-truths, wrong teachings, and preconceived ideas about what you think you have figured out or been taught about what God wants you to do and where His doors of opportunity lie. This Conference will be a time of learning how to be flexible and able to move in whatever way God points you at any time. This Conference will be a time of learning how to fully commit to the two things that will bring victory and success every time: Surrender and Obey.

Can you get excited about finally stepping into your end-times destiny? God is waiting for you to do just that so He can catapult you into your future. We believe we can help you find the easiest and best way to get there!

Testimonies

I've been attending conferences for 20 years, but what I've heard in these last three days makes more sense and will be more useful to me than all of those conferences of the past 20 years put together. (Minnesota)

I've been a Christian for years, and I've prayed and prayed and prayed and didn't seem to get many answers. I finally decided that this was just how life was going to be here on earth. It would be better in heaven. But, now I have hope! I feel that my prayers are going to be more effective and answers are going to come. (Minnesota)

Liberty, your teaching make so much sense! I've been blaming so many others and the devil. And all this time, it's been me. I'm going to pray these prayers and expect things to finally happen. (Minnesota)

What a joy it is to finally find your web site!!! Shattering Your Strongholds is life-changing "stuff"!!!! Praise God!! I am currently enrolled in the NCCA's licensing program through Jacksonville Theological Seminary and I would love to do a bible study using references from your book. As a future Christian Counselor, I pray I will be alive on this earth for some time so I may reach many hurting people (Rev. M., FL)

I believe I would literally be dead if you had not been obedient to learn these keys and get them out there. I have only read Shattering Your Strongholds, but plan to get Breaking the Power as soon as I can. When your book finally came to me, I was on the brink of suicide. I was so tired of fighting a foe I KNEW Jesus had defeated. But no one would listen or help me when I told them I thought I was the problem. They would only "minister" to me and tell me I was listening to lies. Your book showed me how I WAS the problem and now I am free, after 18 years of struggles! May God truly bless you and those in your ministry. (Brandy C.)

Praise The Lord!! Just wanted to let you know that I just finished reading your book Shattering Your Strongholds. I also started reading your new book Breaking the Power. I never knew that I could pray the prayer of binding and loosening the way you say. I'm expecting good results. I am an assistant Pastor in my full Gospel church. God has done great things in my life and in my wife's lives. (Pastor)

Questions and Answers

Q: I just finished reading your book this weekend, Breaking the Power, and I have been thoroughly changed. I prayed all of the prayers and am continuing to pray the first one on page 30 daily. How often should I pray the Training-Wheel prayers? I truly want to be totally set free and will do whatever God wants to get me there. Before I started reading the book, as I was sleeping I could tell that I was crying. but I couldn't wake up. The night after I began praying the binding and loosing prayers, I had the most peaceful night's sleep in a long time. Thank you so much for making this so simple to use!

A: Bless your heart! This is a question many people ask me. Some people tell me that they prayed the prayers a couple of times and waited and nothing happened. Some have said that they have prayed every prayer for themselves and every member of their family every day and it took hours! Perhaps this is a case of too little and too much.

I pray some form of the binding and loosing prayers every day for myself and for others that the Lord brings to my thoughts. I prayed all of the principles quite a bit at first until they became second nature to me. Now I pray them easily and often whenever I feel my soul trying to get its "back" up, whenever I think about needs, and always as circumstances needing prayer begin to arise.

I encourage you to pray them at least daily, in some form or another. Just don't get in bondage to them. The Holy Ghost will guide you because you are trying to get into perfect alignment with God's will!

Q: Some things have been happening lately that haven't been too much fun. Some "survival" patterns I have used all my life don't fit any more. It has been kind of like putting on a retainer that you haven't worn in years. The teeth have shifted slightly and it doesn't work any more. Skin seems a little thinner, too, and I just seem to get off balance easier. It's kind of like having an ear infection and feeling slightly dizzy. We get so used to our own pseudo-balancing supports. We think they are safe and secure, but they aren't. They're a sham.

A: You are getting into some deep excavating, aren't you? I'm so proud of you as I know that it has not been easy to follow through with these prayers. You have an excellent way of expressing what you and I know others feel when they begin to pray the binding and loosing prayers. I still think you could be a great writer. See you at the Conference!

Q: I can't seem to stop going on the Internet and looking at pornography. I don't think I like women much, but I really want to have a right Christian relationship with a woman. Can you help me?

A: Here is the ministry response I gave to another man who e-mailed me yesterday with exactly the same problem. Please know that you're not alone. There are others who do not understand the drives that push them to do things they don't want to do. I hope this will help you understand your situation.

If you want to be free, you need to understand certain facts about yourself so you will know how to allow God to help you. Every human being is created body, soul, and spirit. Your body is the natural part of you that relates to the natural world around you through your five senses of taste, touch, smell, sight, and hearing. Your body is incapable of making intellectual and/or moral decisions, it only "follows" what appears to be in control of your entire makeup. When there is constant conflict between your soul and spirit, your body will also look for external forms of temptation and stimulation.

If you are a born-again Christian, your human spirit has been reunited with the Holy Spirit of Christ and the Father. The God-intended human spirit/Holy Spirit union for mankind was broken when Adam and Eve first sinned in the Garden of Eden. Every human born since then was birthed with a spirit basically "orphaned" from the Spirit of the God. Everything that Jesus Christ wants you to know--all guidance, revelation, direction, help, empowerment--needs to be communicated through your spirit. The human spirit then attempts to communicate this information into and through your soul.

Your soul (your mind, will, and emotions) is what makes you uniquely you. From your natural birth on, certain things were supposed to be imparted to you by your human parents: love, nurturing, security, acceptance, mercy, grace, teaching, gender identity, concepts, principles, etc.

When any of these Divinely-planned human impartations do not occur (like building blocks going into creating a "whole" you), a "hole" occurs in the forming of the foundation of your character and personality.

You, then, are left to face life with a weakened sense of identity, security, and sense of strength to face life's situations. These "holes" become the unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved issues eating away at the deepest recesses of your soul. They are like toxic waste pits that hold corrosive, toxic thinking such as unforgiveness, anger, self-hatred, bitterness, fear, etc.

God never intended for us to blame our parents or other authority figures who did not impart these perfect building blocks to us as we were growing up. Our imperfect parents and other imperfect authority figures who have passed through our lives at various times of our growth, have also been the "victims" of their own imperfect parents and imperfect authority figures who passed through their lives. And imperfect people passed through those imperfect people's lives.

To try to find out who we should be able to blame for why we are the way we are would mean that we needed to go clear back to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden and place the blame where it originally started. That is not very effective in helping you and me today. So, finding someone to blame for our wounds and needs is not the answer. The world thinks it is, but God says it isn't. Who are you going to choose to believe?

As we try to cope with life, we learn (through various means) that there are certain ungodly, even destructive behaviors that can seem to "take away" the pain, the neediness, the pressure, the fear, temporarily.

Even potentially destructive temporary relief can seem preferable to the pain and terror that comes when you fear there is no relief at all.

This is why some people turn to alcohol, drugs, homosexual lifestyles, and other behaviors that they know may ultimately destroy them. They learn that these behaviors at least dull the frightening needs and drives within them for a short while.

Why doesn't God fix these areas? Especially when you ask for His help? Because during your life you have learned to protect your self-protective devices that you think are your only defense against further pain in your soul. Even though these self-defended wrong behaviors don't permanently fix your inner turmoil, they can appear to help you cope momentarily with your pain and your need.

These self-protections you put into place are the mental rationalizations and justifications you think of to excuse the things you find yourself doing that you know are self-destructive.

God wants to help you tear all of that down and then come in and help you be completely healed and delivered and freed. But He will not force His way into the defenses that you have built up to try to protect yourself. You must dismantle those self-constructed defenses which are called "strongholds."

Ask God to pour grace and mercy and healing into every area of vulnerability that you expose with your prayers. It would also be a very helpful thing for you to purchase a copy of Shattering Your Strongholds and read it to understand exactly what you are doing. We do care and obviously you care, too, or you would not have written to us. God bless you, we're praying for you. Let us know how you are doing.

Who and What is LSM

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President, an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915), has served as a singles pastor, associate pastor, and Bible teacher. She is a Senior Editor for Bridge-Logos Publishing (New Jersey) and the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.) and Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.) with her 3rd book, Producing the Promise!, coming out in 1999.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry purposes to teach God's people how to tear down their own (self-constructed) strongholds by using the keys of the Kingdom found in Matthew 16:19 (binding and loosing) to strip their old natures' (soul) power over their lives and make room within themselves to receive all God has promised!
