What a wild and crazy 4 weeks I have just had. I finally managed to arrange for a shipment/donation (that arrived here) from my publisher of 722 original SYS and BTP Workbooks to go to a prison in Texas, a 719 pound/shrink-wrapped pallet!

The truck kept trying to deliver them to me, but refused to break them down and then bring them inside.

So, I have been working frantically on a Teacher’s Manual for the inmate’s instructors. The inmates are very excited about it. Me, too!

I am glad the Election is over. I am so sorry that so many Christians have confused the Kingdom of God with the United States of America. So many agreed with things they shouldn’t have. So many crossed the line into wrong agreement. God is still in control. God is still on the throne. We just need to be ready to go with His next move.

We must not be careless with words or deeds of wrong agreement and wrong actions and think we can ignore their consequences. We are better off to be silent and inactive than to create danger with our words and our actions.

The newly elected government officials will not be able to do one thing that will have God wringing His hands, unsure of what to do. He knows exactly where every player is on the board and what is happening behind the closed doors around the world. He is completely in control!

There are over 60 usages (by GOD to His people) of the phrase “fear not” in the Bible. Look them up, reread them, and be at peace.

An October/November newsletter alert went out about 3 weeks ago with incorrect information, also going to an incomplete mail list! I then sent out another erroneous newsletter alert, hoping to correct what I had done. Arghhhhhhh. I was ready to hide out in Mexico or Canada after that. Please forgive me for all the mistakes that came to your e-mail boxes. Forgive me, those of you who received part of this newsletter already.

Now back to agreement. Agreement seems to be a natural law, a spiritual law, and a force of its own. Gravity is a natural law that God uses to accomplish His spiritual purposes. When we play games with other natural laws, such as motion and friction, we need to understand that we will rarely win in the end.

When we dance off the edge of a dangerous cliff because of carelessness—frantic prayer will not stop us from being smashed into oblivion at the foot of that cliff. We ignored the obvious natural consequences of the law of gravity.

Gravity holds us firmly on the ground and also keeps the earth circling the sun. It draws rain from the sky and causes the tides. This mysterious gravity force continues to puzzle scientists even as it gives stability to the universe.

How is gravity able to act across empty space, and why does it exist in the first place? Science has never been very successful in explaining gravity. After all, it did not slowly arise by mutation or natural selection; it has been here since the very beginning. Gravity began at Creation.

God rarely withholds (for very long) the natural consequences of deliberate carelessness or disregard for a natural (or spiritual) law, regardless of how spiritual, sweet, rich, or powerful the person is who is abusing the law.
Recently, I was exposed to some very fast and careless driving of an otherwise very nice Christian. When I called this person’s attention to their bad driving, they replied blithely, “Well, by the grace of God, I’ve never hit anybody.” I was speechless. This person was expecting God’s grace to cover them while they were dangerously doing wrong.

Jesus said in Matthew 12:34-37 (NKJ), “Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth (speaks) good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth (speaks) evil things. But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

Right action involving spiritual laws always bring blessing, even if not always apparent at first. In Acts 4:3, Peter and John were arrested by the temple officials and Sadducees for preaching the resurrection of Christ from the dead. They were kept in prison overnight and then brought before magistrates, elders, and scribes and questioned harshly as to whose power and authority they used to heal.

The same Peter who was terribly frightened by a slave girl in the courtyard when Jesus was taken prisoner now boldly spoke forth. He said they healed through the power and authority of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom the Jews had crucified, yet God raised Him up from the dead! After much private discussion, the temple officials were at a loss as to what to do with Peter and John, so they threatened them and forbid them to speak any more of the name of Jesus and sent them away.

After they were allowed to go, Peter and John returned to their own company and told them everything that had happened. In verse 24 (Acts 4, AMP), having heard all, the believers lifted their voices together with one united mind to happened. In verse 24 (Acts 4, AMP), having heard all, the believers lifted their voices together with one united mind to Jesus Christ, and great grace rested richly upon everyone in this company of believers.

Verse 34 tells us that there was not one destitute or needy person among them. Those who had land or houses sold them and brought the proceeds and laid it at the feet of the Apostles who caused distribution to be made according to whoever had true need. This is a great example of the power of right agreement, agreement with the leading of the Holy Ghost.

There lies the main point. What was decided and agreed upon was with the leading of the Holy Ghost. Once every person in this group came into one heart, one soul, one united mind, God caused power and ability to flow through the Apostles to preach of Christ’s resurrection and great grace rested richly upon them.

I pray often for the homeless, for shelter and safety and food, particularly for the women and children and seniors. They are the weakest, although I do pray for the homeless men, too. I often pray about what could ever be the practical, daily, answer to homelessness.

Acts 4:31-37 says that “when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness. And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power gave the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the Apostles’ feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. And Joses, who by the Apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the Apostles’ feet” (KJV).

Can you honestly think of a church today in America where the individual members would give up all of their possessions to be used by everyone? Probably not, for only the cults of these days are doing that. In fact, if a mainline church did that today, they would more than likely be branded a religious cult and suffer all kinds of wrong things said about them.

Powerful right agreement of what to do, regardless of the individual cost, was enacted that day. Powerful blessing followed. Acts 4:33 (AMP) tells us that the Apostles had great strength and ability and power to preach of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, and great grace rested richly upon everyone in this company of believers.

Ananias and Sapphira

At this time there was a certain man named Ananias and his wife Sapphira who sold a piece of their land and prepared to donate to the communal resources. Rather than choose to give only what they wanted to give, as they had the right to do, they hid part of the proceeds of the sale for their own use. Then Ananias took the rest and lay it at the Apostles’ feet saying it was their all for the proceeds of the sale.

Peter was anointed of the Holy Ghost to recognize what they had done and was quite angry with Ananias for lying. Ananias was obviously trying to present himself as having given everything he had, as others were doing to help with the common cause of all. In presenting his land sale as such, he implied he was under the influence of the Holy Spirit. He was trying to use the Holy Spirit as part of his wrong agreement. Bad choice!

Truth is a spiritual law that carries the same powerful consequences when misused. You must not play games with it, for the consequences will come due sooner or later. How could Ananias believe that the Holy Spirit would allow himself to be misrepresented in such a wrong agreement? How was Ananias so deceived, especially in the presence of the divine power and anointing of so many who were in right agreement? Wrong agreement can subtly grow darkness in the midst of good unless it is broken.

Acts 5:2-5 tell us, “With his wife’s full knowledge he kept back part of the money for himself, but brought the rest and put it at the Apostles’ feet. Then Peter said, ‘Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land? Didn’t it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn’t the money at your disposal? What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to men but to God.’ When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. And great fear seized all who heard what had happened” (NIV).

We begin to read of Sapphira’s part in this in Acts 5:7-11: About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. Peter asked her, Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land? Yes, she said, that is the price. Peter said to her, How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also. At that moment she fell down at his feet and died. Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband. Great fear seized the whole church and all who heard about these events (NIV).

Ananias and Sapphira agreed to not tell the truth about the sale of the land. Because they were in perfect wrong agreement (sumphomeo), they were both equally guilty of the same crime. You can soulishly agree with others who are wrong in an action and be equally guilty of the error (crime, lie, dishonesty) they have committed. Both naturally anōd spiritually!

In those times, wives were hardly ever given a chance to speak on such things. They were more or less considered property of their husbands. As such, they would quite likely suffer their husbands’ negative fate without even being asked about their part in such a circumstance. But we see Peter here asking Sapphira to tell him if the amount of money given was the complete price of the house. Peter actually seems to have given Sapphira a chance to come clean and disassociate herself from the wrong agreement she had entered into with her husband.

What if Sapphira had confessed and repented? She might have escaped the judgment of the wrong agreement that had just caused her husband to lose his life. Wrong agreement between this husband and wife brought about both their deaths.

Wrong agreement never brings forth good results, even if the wrong agreement is entered into in the name of a wife’s submission to her husband. Those who have ears to hear, let them hear.

We must learn to commit ourselves to praying in agreement with the Word, laying aside all personal feelings and opinions about what we think God does or does not want. I have prayed with people and bound their will to the will of God, desiring that His will would be done. I’ve seen fear and doubt in their expressions as I said amen. I knew they were thinking, “But what if it isn’t His will to—heal me—get me out of debt—save my relationship—get me that job I want, etc.?” This is always a sign of a much deeper problem, its source being that this person has never learned that God can be trusted to always do the right thing.

Too many think that God did say a good thing to Jeremiah (29:11), but it doesn’t necessarily apply to them personally: “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future” (NIV). When we connect this to 2 Timothy 3:16-17, we read, “All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work” (NIV).

These two verses are proof needed to settle doubt and fear about the goodness of God. They should comfort us, and if not, we come back to the bottom line problem of not really trusting God to always act towards us in goodness (even if we don’t immediately understand it).

I remember when I first began to read the Bible, I would pull things terribly out of context and claim all sorts of promises, and fear all sorts of judgments. More mature believers were constantly trying to tell me that I couldn’t claim this (it was for the Israelites in the Old Testament and, no, that judgment on the Pharaoh of Egypt of the Old Testament wasn’t mine, either), and so on. I became really confused for a while. Gradually I realized that there were principles involved in all Scripture that I could learn from, without being under condemnation from them or being promised a sea would part for me either.

Right or wrong, I decided that I was just going to believe every single Scripture in the Bible and expect it to strengthen my faith and belief that God loved me—Romans, Ephesians, Corinthians, Timothy, Psalms, Proverbs, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob! Mine, all mine!
We must all come to a place where we are seeking how to pray in accordance with the will of God. The personal filters of individual unsurrendered souls will always try to soulishly tweak the goal of agreeing with His will alone. As Christians, we exalt ourselves far above our actual position with God when we think or say that we know exactly what His will is in this situation or that problem. We can all look back on so many of the characters in the Bible and see the outcome of God’s will with such anointed hindsight. Unfortunately, we often believe we have an overly anointed foresight on what God can, can’t, or might do as well.

Fall Specials

BIG PDF SPECIAL – THROUGH END OF 2012!

BUY ONE PDF eBook – AND RECEIVE A PDF eBook FREE! (Equal or lesser price.)

Order and pay for one PDF, and it will be sent by an email attachment. Your BONUS PDF will be sent to you at NO CHARGE!

CLICK HERE to Order

Breaking the Power II

Beautiful soft-cover, coil-bound edition. Original price - $18.95 (including shipping)

Sale!!! Until Christmas $12.95 (including shipping)

Matching 8x11
2012 BTP II Workbook

Soft cover, coil-bound workbook

Shattering Your Strongholds

Beautiful soft-cover, coil-bound edition. Original price - $18.95 (including shipping)

Sale!!! Until Christmas $12.95 (including shipping)

Matching 8x11
2011 SYS Workbook

Soft cover, coil-bound workbook
Use as a self-guide for individual study or as a discussion guide for group study.

Original $48.95 (including shipping)

Christmas $12.95 Sale!!!

SPECIAL COMBO BTP

Get both BTP II and Workbook
Original price - $33.95! Includes Shipping

Sale!!! Until Christmas $22.95
Includes Shipping

CLICK HERE to Order

SPECIAL COMBO SYS

Get both
Original price - $33.95! Includes shipping

Sale!!! Until Christmas $22.95

CLICK HERE to Order
Questions and Answers

QUESTION: Hi Liberty, I bought some of your eBooks and so far so good. I had told the Lord Jesus that I didn’t understand “Binding and Loosing Keys” and then a friend showed me your books.

I have a question that I have wondered for some time about: “birthing in the spiritual in order for some event to happen?” Like my friend believes she is pregnant in the spirit and in order for this event/unclaimed land to happen, she has to give birth to it. Does that sound right? I haven’t come across anything in the Bible about birthing in the spiritual? Thanks if you have any information for me and have the time to answer. Have a good day. Ezra

ANSWER: This is really only meant as a metaphor that means faith and prayer to pray through and wait for something to happen. It is not meant to be a literal meaning.

QUESTION: Without having read your books and praying binding and loosing prayers daily, I would probably be on some serious anti-depressants. I am grateful for what He has taught you & for you passing it on to the Body of Christ. I’ve had a lot of garbage in my mind for a long time. I am 70. And I am recently divorced. My mind has a difficult time staying out of turmoil, but is greatly improved. Thank you sooooo very much. ROBERT Any new advice??

ANSWER: Robert, what a great report! You sound like you’re doing just fine. Don’t give up the prayers daily and read the Word daily. Remember that the future is what God wants you focused on now, I have prayed for you.

I attended one of your live seminars many years ago and use and even promote the principles you teach. Thank you so much. I find your Praying for the Children section of particular interest. The horrible issue of child trafficking (including young, vulnerable women) has recently come onto my “radar” and in fact I plan to attend an awareness event this week, “In your Backyard.” I was told that Pennsylvania has some pending legislation in the works on this. I’m thinking that your prayers would be a helpful resource for those involved in this issue. If you have anything else you could send me, I will share it. Thank you! Karen

QUESTION: Hi Liberty, I bought some of your eBooks and so far so good. I had told the Lord Jesus that I didn’t understand “Binding and Loosing Keys” and then a friend showed me your books.

I have a question that I have wondered for some time about: “birthing in the spiritual in order for some event to happen?” Like my friend believes she is pregnant in the spirit and in order for this event/unclaimed land to happen, she has to give birth to it. Does that sound right? I haven’t come across anything in the Bible about birthing in the spiritual? Thanks if you have any information for me and have the time to answer. Have a good day. Ezra

ANSWER: This is really only meant as a metaphor that means faith and prayer to pray through and wait for something to happen. It is not meant to be a literal meaning.

QUESTION: Without having read your books and praying binding and loosing prayers daily, I would probably be on some serious anti-depressants. I am grateful for what He has taught you & for you passing it on to the Body of Christ. I’ve had a lot of garbage in my mind for a long time. I am 70. And I am recently divorced. My mind has a difficult time staying out of turmoil, but is greatly improved. Thank you sooooo very much. ROBERT Any new advice??

ANSWER: Robert, what a great report! You sound like you’re doing just fine. Don’t give up the prayers daily and read the Word daily. Remember that the future is what God wants you focused on now, I have prayed for you.

I attended one of your live seminars many years ago and use and even promote the principles you teach. Thank you so much. I find your Praying for the Children section of particular interest. The horrible issue of child trafficking (including young, vulnerable women) has recently come onto my “radar” and in fact I plan to attend an awareness event this week, “In your Backyard.” I was told that Pennsylvania has some pending legislation in the works on this. I’m thinking that your prayers would be a helpful resource for those involved in this issue. If you have anything else you could send me, I will share it. Thank you! Karen

I needed you to be quiet and learn to focus, says the Lord. Stress comes from a wandering mind and being too scattered. Take the time necessary to deal with or dismiss thoughts that are unproductive and that take you away from your obedience to Me. It is time to clean up your thought process and at the same time clean up your spiritual atmosphere in order to gain greater clarity of purpose. You will be delighted with the results.

QUESTION: A friend of mine recently told me to buy your books and I have been glued to them. I have been doing daily binding and attempting the loosing. The one thing I am praying for the most is for my unsurrendered soul to become surrendered. I am currently separated from my wife and going through great spiritual warfare and great pain. The more she has done to inflict hurt, the more now I bind myself to the truth, the will of God and the mind of Christ. For a moment I feel peace and then my soul aches again.

I know you must be very busy, but I would like your advice on how to deal with unresolved issues that create a battle in your present day life? I desire peace with this no matter how much more pain comes my way. I had thought I was dealing with a jezebel spirit, and then read about your views on evil spirits and realized I’m dealing with a soul of my wife that is controlling, malicious and strong-willed. I love her very much, but she is pushing for divorce and I keep telling myself God has a better plan. T

ANSWER: Right now you need to press into the Word and seek God through your prayers. It is important that you focus on your relationship with God and spend less time praying for her. You would do well to commit her to God, for He loves her more than you do, and then seek God for yourself. It is important for you to combine reading the Word with praying the Binding and Loosing prayers as they reinforce the truth of each other. Keep pressing forward and God will give you encouragement and direction.

Remember that anything negative, anger or grief, is NEVER from God. I’m praying for you. Also remember that the past is past. It is over. It only exists in your memory banks. Position yourself to look forward towards the future.

Liberty: I picked up your Breaking the Power some time back, read it and re-read it and prayed the prayers many times. It has brought me into a place of freedom like I have never experienced or even thought I could be. Then the book vanished and I just found it the other day.

The Lord was dealing with me about some things and the enemy was also harrassing me and, well, I picked up the book again and reread it. I prayed the prayers again and it is like a refreshing rain flowing again. I just keep getting peeled like an onion. God keeps meeting me right where I am and when the time comes when I can deal and handle something, the book keeps reappearing instead of all the other books I buy to read. Of all the books I have gotten, the Lord has used this as a wonderful instrument in continuing to set me free in every area of my life as I allow the Lord and join with the Holy Spirit to accomplish this freedom in me. Thank you so much.

JG in the Military

Rev. Liberty Savard,
I wanted you to know the e-mail attachments have been received now. As I was looking at the material, do you realize how special you are? You are such a special gift to the Body of Christ! This material is awesome! I am so thankful for this material. Hebrews 6:10 says, “For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shown toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.” May He bless your socks off for all that you do for others! In Christ, Linda

Dear Rev. Liberty: Thank you so much for your Ministry, for the revelation of the Keys of the Kingdom that has changed and continues changing my life and the lives of the people in our church and around. I am so grateful to the Lord that you are ministering to so many people. May the Lord bless you very richly.

Maybe it would be good to advertise the Russian download on your site on CNN TV channel. It’s a Christian international channel. Maxim Maximov is in charge. Maybe then more Russian-speaking people will find out about this life-changing teaching.

One of the ladies of my church who has read your SYS has said to me that she saw and heard a foreign preacher on TV speaking on the Binding and Loosing Prayer principles and telling Sarah’s story. It’s amazing. Rich blessings to you from our Lord. With love, Zoya (Ukraine)

I am just rereading Shattering your Strongholds, which I had to purchase again, my first copy being out on loan somewhere. In chapter 4, on Binding, I was most interested to see a truth stand out boldly, in light of the present rage for the book Fifty Shades of Gray: You said, “Deception rarely comes at the child of God in pure black. More often than not, it comes in degrees of off-white and pale gray...” (I thought, yes, at least 50 shades of pale gray!). Marie

Hello Rev. Savard: During our annual church Prayer School we used the Shattering Your Strongholds materials. It was a tremendous blessing to the group. Thanks for all your assistance in helping us get the materials in a timely manner. We have a very diverse congregation. Being able to obtain the materials in Spanish was truly a blessing. Pastor Rose

PRAYING FOR THE CHILDREN

Every Monday through Friday, I pray with 70 LSM International Intercessors around the world for children who are in situations of all forms of abuse, hunger, sickness, poverty, and even child slavery. I pray that angels, authorities, and strong adults can give help to them at the right time it is needed. Second Chronicles 7:14 tells us:

If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land (NKJV).

I cannot help but wonder if some of our wicked ways are that we do not pray enough for those who need help so badly, those not in a position to help themselves. This speaks of the power of our prayers for our nations and those in them if we will humble ourselves, stop following our own wills and our own agendas, and pray with all the focus and determination that we can for what is right.

What might be considered another one of our wicked ways as spoken of here? Could it not be that we have not cried out for others, especially the children of the world everywhere, every day! Please join with me and others in praying for the children of the world who desperately need us to agree that God’s will shall be done in their lives and quickly.

Lord, I come to you with pain in my heart asking that you forgive me for not daily remembering and praying for those who cannot help themselves. I bind every child in the world to your will. I bind their minds to your mind, Jesus, and I bind their wounded and ragged emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Please speak words of strength, encouragement, and hope to them. Please send help to rescue them quickly.

I loose the enemy’s influence from all adults who are using and abusing so many children in the world today. Please heal them from whatever has driven them to such behaviors. People are not born knowing how to abuse; they learn from being abused themselves. Please break this evil cycle in their lives.

I loose, smash, crush, and destroy the enemy’s works that are coming against these children. You have said that if we would humble ourselves, pray, seek your face, and turn from our wicked ways, then you would heal our land. Please show us all that we need to do to work with you to see our lands and the children in them become safe and healed and filled with hope. Thank you, Father God. Amen
Always remember James 4:17 (NIV):

Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn’t do it, sins.
Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES?

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ’s shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

Liberty teaches Christians how to cause their unsurrendered souls (old natures) to surrender to the will and purposes of God. She also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage and toxic waste from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them for today. This allows believers to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! The message of binding and loosing and the Unsurrendered Soul teaches God’s people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19) to impact things on earth so they come into alignment with God’s already established will in heaven. Liberty also teaches Christians how to pray purely without “want lists” and soulish instruction manuals for God (so He will know how best to answer their prayers!). Effective prayers always have pure motives, never soulish motives. Binding and loosing Keys of the Kingdom can always expose hidden motives in a believer’s soul.