Time to say goodbye to Apples of Gold in Baskets of Silver

Hardback Gift Book

I would like to say goodbye to Apples of Gold in Baskets of Silver in this newsletter with the first five Devotional Studies in this hardback book. Because this has always been a book that has been close to my heart, it seemed fitting to share a few of the Golden Apples and their study pages—Tasting the Truth—with you out of the first Silver Basket.

When I was woven together in the depths of the earth, your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. (Psalm 139:14-16, NIV)

Each one of us was born into a different set of family dynamics and circumstances. Some were born to parents who did not know how to love or nurture. Some were born into discouraged families, some into performance-oriented families, and some into wildly dysfunctional families. When you are living in the world without Jesus, these generational liabilities can shred your soul, eating away at your sense of worth and identity.

Non-believers often spend their entire lives trying to overcome this generational lack. The Good News is that when you became a Christian, you were born into a new family with a new spiritual parent and bloodline! You can now discard the effects and influences of all of your unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved questions and receive God’s perfected plans for your life. No longer do you have to live under any liabilities.

God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to give you everything you need to become a new creature—love, joy, hope, wholeness, and purpose. You can receive them today.

Father God, thank you for watching over me when I did not know or even care who you were. I bind my will to your will, Lord, and my mind to the mind of Christ. I loose all of the former patterns of thinking and wrong beliefs I have ever had. I am ready to live with a new bloodline and with new attitudes towards life and others. Thank you. In Jesus’ Name, Amen

Golden Apple One – Tasting the Truth

What can happen to non-believers who came from families with generational liabilities?

Golden Apple One

Praise Him for Your Spiritual Blood Transfusion!

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place.
What is different between the non-believers above and the Christian believers who came out of the same kinds of family dynamics?

Do you need to forgive someone in your family? If so, write a short note to God about why you haven’t done that yet.

What effects and influences of your past hurts still bother you today? Are you willing to ask God for grace and mercy and healing so you can open them up to His healing? If so, stop and ask Him right now. Then write down what He says.

I bind my will to your will, Father. I bind my mind to your mind, Jesus. I bind myself to the truth of your Word and all it tells me about how much you love me. Help me recognize where I have not yet let Jesus Christ’s blood transfusion enter, all of the places where I still feel scorched and raw. I want to be whole and ready to tell others why I praise you, why I love you, and why I need you so much. Blessings and honor to you, Lord. Amen.

Golden Apple Two - Tasting the Truth

What can you thank Him for and praise Him for today?

Each new day God gives you is a what?

What have you been doing about overcoming anxiety? Do you feel it has been productive?

The next time you wake up at night feeling anxious, pray and bind your mind to the mind of Christ and loose all wrong patterns of thinking. Remind yourself that He is in control. Do this as often as you need to until you fall asleep. Then write in here how you felt.

Lord, you deserve all glory and honor. I lift my heart up to you in worship and adoration. There is no one else like you. This is the day that you have made—all 24 hours of it. I cannot always seem to fend off the thoughts that come when I am under pressure or it is dark and cold outside, but I can reaffirm my trust and confidence that you are with me every minute. I can trust every detail of my life to you. How incredible that you have found it in your heart to choose me for your family and honor me with your love. Thank you for your faithfulness towards me, my Lord. Amen.

From Liberty: I just have to stick my thoughts in here after I re-read this paragraph:

When my days are so difficult that they bleed over into my nights, then I will choose (at 2:00 a.m. or whenever I’m awakened by feelings of anxiety or impending doom) to tell myself that my God is in control. Because I have chosen to bind myself to His will, I have committed my life to His control as well. I’m always grateful for the binding and loosing prayers when these ragged moments tear into my sleep or prevent it. I am reminded that I’m the apple of His eye.

After singing This is the day . . . I often sing the Happy Song. If you have not heard this song, then look it up on the Internet or ask your Christian book store to order it for you. There are many people out there in the world, and even in the Church, who believe that God really does want to punish people until they submit to His attempts to make them into perfect little replicas of Jesus. If you don’t fit the mold, then you get punished some more! I remember feeling like that. The words of the Happy Song excite and comfort me at the same time:

I could sing unending songs
Of how you saved my soul,
AND I could dance a thousand miles
Because of your great love.

My heart is bursting, Lord, to
To tell of all you’ve done,
Of how’ve you changed my life
And wiped away the past.

Well, I want to shout it out
From every roof top sing!
For now I know
That God is for me, not against me.

For some reason, those lines just thrill me and I want to share them with everyone; because now I know:

GOD IS FOR ME, NOT AGAINST ME.

These words remind me that every day is a new day, a gift from God. This is a choice I need to make each day. Our days can be rough when we don’t see that God is every area of them.

I don’t always remember to pray right away when I’m tossing and turning in bed, but eventually it always gets through to me. When your night is long and you struggle to rest, it helps to start thanking God for what He has done for you, as well as the monkeys He has taken off your back. If you begin to do that, you will realize that with what He has already done for you, He loves you too much to leave you all alone on your own now.

Remember that the next time you wake up at night feeling anxious. Remember to pray and bind your mind to the mind of Christ and loose all wrong patterns of thinking. Remind yourself that He is in control. Do this as often as you need to until you fall asleep.

Remind yourself that the Word says that you are the apple of His eye. The original meaning of this phrase refers to the pupil of the eye—the round black spot in the exact middle of the eye. It is as if your reflection can be seen in the pupil of God’s eye because you are so important to Him. As David sought God’s help, he beseeched him to keep him as the apple of His eye, and to hide him under the shadow of His wings.

In The Message, Psalm 17:8 tells us David implored God to help him as bullies and enemies were chasing him, translating his words as, “Keep your eye on me.” Barnes Notes believes that in this verse David implored God, “Preserve me; guard me; defend me, as one defends that which is to him most precious and valuable.”

There is one particularly beautiful Scripture about being the apple of God’s eye in Deuteronomy 32:10-11 (NIV):

In a desert land he found him, in a barren and howling waste. He shielded him and cared for him; he guarded him as the apple of his eye, like an eagle that stirs up its nest and hovers over its young, that spreads its wings to catch them and carries them on its pinions.

Deuteronomy 32:10-11 (The Message) says this:

He found him out in the wilderness, in an empty, windswept wasteland. He threw his arms around him, lavished attention on him, guarding him as the apple of his eye. He was like an eagle hovering over its nest, overshadowing its young, then spreading its wings, lifting them into the air, teaching them to fly.

It is a wonderful and special thing to be the apple of God’s eye!

I remember well-meaning older Christians telling me that I couldn’t claim this Scripture because it was for Israel. Or, other verses were just for the New Testament Church members, or for the Romans, or whoever—but not me. I finally decided if a Scripture made me feel comforted, strengthened, and encouraged about my God, I was going to claim regardless of what anyone else said.
Lord, this is the day that you have made—all 24 hours of it. I cannot always seem to fend off the thoughts that come when I am under pressure or it is dark and cold outside, but I reaffirm my trust and confidence that you are with me every minute. I trust every detail of my life to you. Thank you that I am the Apple of Your Eye.

Golden Apple Three
Praise Him in the Morning

“Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice . . . Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

(Philippians 4:4-7, NKJV)

Thank the Lord God Almighty for this morning. Thank Him for His majesty and creative power. He is in control and He is good. He loves you and is watching over you, so declare that this day is going to be a worry-free zone! Hallelujah! Today is the day the Lord hath made; let us rejoice and be glad in it (Psalms 118:24, KJV).

Lift up your praises to Him. If God is for you, who can be against you? Regardless of the troubles you went to bed with last night, God is still in charge of your life if you let Him be. He is entirely capable of making this day worry free for you. He reigns in the big things and He wants to reign in the smallest details of your life. He is your strength and salvation in the good times and in the dark times.

His peace will settle into your soul if you make room for it. Peace is a gentle gift that will not fight the fears of your soul for position within you. Prepare a place within yourself to receive it. Be still before Him and pray Revelation 5:12-13:

You are worthy, Jesus; you are the Lamb who was slain for the sins of the world. My Savior, you are worthy to receive power and praise and wisdom and strength and honor and glory! To Almighty God who sits on the throne and to the Lamb ever beside Him be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever! Amen

Golden Apple Three – Tasting the Truth

What do I need to loose from my soul to make today a worry-free zone?

What can I rejoice about right now, this very day?

What has the noonday sun revealed in my soul?

Do you really believe He reigns in all things? If you do, then do you wonder why your life can seem to slide sideways at times?

What can you say right now to honor Jesus?

I will rejoice in you always, Lord. I will rejoice in your mighty works and your creation. I will rejoice in your faithfulness. I will rejoice in this day because I have nothing to be anxious about when you are with me. I will therefore thank you for what you know I need because I do not need to tell you. I am grateful that you are in control of the world without and of my soul within to the degree that I have surrendered it to you. I am grateful for your peace that you have sent to guard my heart and mind. I am grateful for the air I can breathe and for the strength you have given to me. Praise your name, Amen.

Golden Apple Four
Praise Him at Noon Time

“But as for me, I will always have hope; I will praise you more and more. My mouth will tell of your righteousness, of your salvation all day long, though I know not its measure. I will come and proclaim your mighty acts, O Sovereign LORD; I will proclaim your righteousness, yours alone.”

(Psalm 71:14-16, NIV)

Stand up at noontime with the sun over your head, and raise your smiling face and outstretched arms to Him. Lift up your voice to Him with words of honor and love and adoration. He has made you for himself, you are the workmanship of His hands—created to love and adore Him. Tell Him that you love Him with all the love you know how to give.

“Whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things” (Philippians 4:8, NKJV). Meditating on His goodness and power and love in the middle of the day is a good way to focus your mind on things above.

“Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him and he will do this: He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun” (Psalm 37:5-6, NIV). The sun shines brightest right above us when it is noon. There is no darkness to be seen, no hidden things in the light of the noonday sun. Thank Him for the light to walk in as you follow the paths He’s planned beforehand for you.

Praise you, gracious Lord, and all thanksgiving and honor to you who has set the sun in the sky and the Son in my heart. Thank you for your wondrous plans and your mighty purposes. Thank you for allowing me to be in your family. Amen

Golden Apple Four – Tasting the Truth
What can you tell the Lord you love about Him today?

What things of good report can you meditate on today?

Is there something you can commit to Him today and believe that He will change the outcome of for the better?

What things has He shined His light on in your life that used to be dark and frightening?

What helps you to focus your mind on things above?

You are my Shepherd and my Savior, and you lead me in paths of light. Thank you for lighting my way in a world that has so much darkness. Today I will focus on thinking on things that are noble, just, pure, lovely, and of good report. I will meditate on your virtue and I will praise you for being an example to me so I can run the race to become more like you. I need you to make my righteousness shine like the noonday sun today. I need your light so I can see that you have truly chosen me and have made paths for me to follow for you. Amen.

Golden Apple Five
Praise Him in the Evening

From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets, the name of the LORD is to be praised. The LORD is exalted over all the nations, his glory above the heavens. Who is like the LORD our God, the One who sits enthroned on high, who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth? He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap; he seats them with princes, with the princes of their people. (Psalm 113:3-8, NIV)

The evening is a time of twilight and dusky shadows, not day, not fully night. It is a time to consider one’s life that lies ahead and the day that has just finished. God came and walked in the cool of the evening in the Garden of Eden looking for Adam. Evening is a good time to let God find you. Slow down and walk and talk with Him.

It is good to sit and meditate on the ways of God, to ask Him to search your heart. Every day I review the ways he works; I try not to miss a trick. I feel put back together, and I’m watching my step. God rewrote the text of my life when I opened the book of my heart to his eyes (Psalm 18:22-24, The Message).

In the evening, thank the Lord that another day is drawing to a close but you have this time to spend with Him. Rest in Him and do not fret that you did not get everything done. Perhaps you finished just what He wanted, and now He wants a part of your day just for himself. Give it to Him and be honored He cares enough to want that time with you. The Word says that you are the apple of His eye and He guards you (Deuteronomy 32:10). He keeps you safe through the day and the night.

As I contemplate the end of this day, I will choose to spend time with you. What do you want to speak to me about today? I want to learn to listen, Father. I want to hear your voice. Amen

Golden Apple Five - Tasting the Truth
How do you feel about the fact that the Lord of all things would stoop down to look on the earth and find you? Why?
As your day begins to end, can you imagine God coming down to meet with you? What would you say to Him if He walked up to you right now?

Review some of the works and ways of God that you know.

Can you believe that God doesn’t really care about what you didn’t get done today, that He only wants part of what’s left in the day? Explain your answer.

Commit yourself right here on paper that you will never let undone tasks keep you from spending time with Him.

Precious Lord, I want to give you the rest of my day. I am amazed that you would care. You must be very, very busy running the whole earth. What have you wanted to tell me today? Holy Spirit, teach me how to hear my Father’s voice by showing me how to shut out the clamor of the world around me. Dear Father, I am so grateful for your love. Amen.

I am so excited! Kristine and Richard Cotterman of Exodus Design.com have finally put most of my ideas, changes, revisions, more revisions, etc. online in my new website. LS2U is still evolving and growing under the creative direction of Kristine and Richard. Please come and visit and listen to and check out all the new things—each one of these has a sample audio or pages for you to check out and enjoy:

- Deluxe eBooks
- Enhanced PDF eBooks
- Enhanced PDF Believers’ Enrichment Manuals
- Enhanced Believers’ Enrichment Teaching CDs
- eBook Excerpts
- My Blog (that I’m determined that I’m going to learn to use)
- Inspirational page to be updated weekly
- Lots of pictures

I am in the process of writing brand new versions of all of my books to be uploaded on the site for instant downloads. You will not be able to get these new versions anywhere else until they are printed next year. Karen Failor of ccawebs.net has been formatting all of the new versions of my books into these beautiful Deluxe eBooks and Enhanced PDF eBooks. Brian Martin has handled the technical side of all of the audio and video clips. So, I’m really not being too self-absorbed when I say that you just have to come and visit because it is beautiful!

I am trying to learn how to use my new Blog and also upload to my new Inspirational Page. I specifically said I wanted to be able to do it myself (I can do it myself, Mother!), and now I’m stuck with having to learn to do it myself. If you have visited my Blog and commented and I didn’t return the comment, please forgive me. I’m still trying to learn how.

You can come and see my whole family and other members of my Prayer Team, my Board, and my friends.

My next two new books, Soulish Deception or Demonic Illusion and Keys to Understanding Prayer, will be featured first on libertysavard2u.com. They will be launched in print next year. I am also working on finishing two brand new children’s books (with illustrations) to put on this new website, too. So much happening, so much fun, and so many deadlines!

Somebody tell me again, please—what is this thing they talk about called retirement? I just turned 67 on August 30th and I’m not seeing any room in my future to retire.

Special Note to My Long Distance Training Students
For those of you who have been waiting for the rest of your manuals, please forgive the delay. All of the heart problems I went through the last few months has really slowed me down. But I’ve been waking up in the night thinking about the missing manuals and if I don’t somehow fit them into the production line, I’m never going to get any sleep! Please pray and hold on!

Liberty LIVE Internet Radio Show
Due to health issues again, I have had to temporarily stop the LibertyLive Internet Radio Show broadcasts. I miss them, but there are only so many days and so many hours. Again I miss the shows, and I miss all of you. Perhaps we can reconnect again in the next year.

LSM Partners – This is a test!!!!
How much we love our faithful partners who contribute to the work of the ministry and who faithfully pray for us. We pray every week for our LSM Partners, too. Okay, Partners, let’s see how many of you are paying attention.

All LSM Partners who are registered as of 9/5/08 can receive an additional 20% discount off our already deeply discounted books that are on sale. Remember, some of them are being discontinued and some of them going straight to electronic online status. All you have to do is decide what you want from the resource list in your personal eNewsletter that you receive by snail mail and then you must call Linda at 916-721-7770 and place your order in person.

Remember, this is for currently registered LSM Partners only.

Questions and Answers
Question: My sister’s church invited a speaker who said that if born-again Christians backslide, when they die they will go to heaven because their name is already written in the Book of Life and it can’t change. Is this true? CH

Liberty’s Answer: A backslider certainly can go to heaven, but not because their name is “written in the Book of Life.” Whether or not the backslider goes to heaven depends upon what happens in the backslider’s final second of their life before they slipped into eternity. I do not believe that any person who cries out to God during that last second here on earth goes unheard. We cannot judge who will go and who won’t because we don’t know what transpired between them and God in those final seconds. But this is not something to count upon so you can ignore God and go merrily on in your backslidden state. That would be presumption and God is very opposed to presumptive behavior. Liberty

Hello, Liberty: Your book has been such a blessing to me and I want to thank you again and again. I need some advice and wisdom on a matter. I recently was in Toronto visiting a church and we were invited out to lunch by a Pastor and his wife. Sitting at the table, I sensed the Holy Spirit wanted to minister to the Pastor. One of the things that God was revealing was that we all need to live a holy life. The pastor confessed at that time that he had been smoking for a very long time and never has had the victory. His belief is this: “I am waiting on God to give me a strategy to quit.”

I may be totally wrong in saying this, but we can wait ‘til the cows come home because God has given us a will and His Word for the victory. The Pastor is born again and spirit filled and I sensed that he has many worries about his ministry. He has smoked for a very long time. I sent him some wonderful info and a beautiful testimony of victory (I was once a smoker) concerning this addiction and mind set, but his reply was, “I know that you are not condemning me and I will print out what you gave me and take a look at it.” Is there anything you can help me with concerning this man of God? Kendra Liberty’s Answer: Kendra, the best thing you can do now is to pray the binding and loosing prayers for him.

Pray them without any self-agenda or motive on your part. Pray them purely and allow God to decide which way to bring His will for this man to pass. I think you have done what you can with the Pastor; now just pray for him. Bless you for caring about him.

Here is a sample prayer for you to pray for him: Lord, I feel you have placed this person upon my heart. I spoke to him as I felt led, and now I know I need to turn him over to you. I bind this man's will to your will, Lord. I bind his mind to the mind of Christ. I bind his emotions to the healing balance of the Holy Spirit. I loose wrong beliefs and the effects and influences of wrong agreements from him. I loose the influence of the world and I loose and destroy the works of the enemy from him.

Father, I know that nicotine is very addictive and that it is easy to come dependent upon it. Please pour out your mercy and your grace upon this man. I loose all patterns of addictive thinking from him. I lose the deceptions and lies that he has believed about having to comfort himself with nicotine. I loose all stronghold thinking he is using as he rationalizes and justifies that what he is doing to his body won't hurt him. Lord, let him know how much you love him and what you have planned for him. He needs to know that. In Jesus' Name, Amen

Hi Liberty! I am currently leading two classes through Shattering Your Strongholds with the workbook. Each class is in a different place. One group is on page 28 of Shattering Your Strongholds, updated and expanded version. You made the statement on this page that Satan cannot read our minds. Can you tell us what you base that statement on and if there is a Bible reference?

In the other group, we are on page 64 of the same book. Here, you stated that there is no scriptural reference to Jesus or any of His disciples instructing us to name, speak to, or bind evil spirits. What about Mark 5:1-20 where Jesus asked the demon what his name was and he answered, Legion, for we are many. Can you help us with these? Thank you, and may God bless you! Ruby Liberty's Answer: Ruby, One Scripture I believe relates to Satan not being able to read our minds is Ecclesiastes 10:20: Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice. There is another verse about two soldiers in a tent at night planning battle strategies who did not speak out their plans because the enemy might hear them. In other words, the enemy could not read their minds.

I find it very difficult to believe that God would give Satan a means of reading our minds. There is actually no reason for him to have to read your mind. He sets up certain things around you or certain things against you and then just watches your reactions to them. Your reactions reveal what is in your soul.

The word legion is not actually a name; it is a confession (or some have suggested it is meant as a threat) of the great number of demons that had entered into this man. Roman legions of soldier were usually 6,000. Others were sometimes 12,000. In Luke 8:30-31 Jesus asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion, because many demons had entered him (NKJV). The demon was warning that they were very great in number, perhaps to warn Jesus to back off.

Jesus and His disciples and Apostles did not ask demons for their names, nor hold conversations with them. I hope this helps. Liberty

Liberty: I have read that you bind the spirit of anger, etc and loose the spirit of peace, etc. Does that fit in with what you teach? James

James: No, it does not. There is no place in the Bible where you can read about a spirit of anger. There are angry people, however, people who have had their hot buttons hit hard and set on fire. Once they lose control of their anger, they are fair game for the enemy to make their situation worse.

Anger is a negative emotion that comes from unhealed hurts, unresolved issues, and unmet needs. The human soul tries to cope with these vulnerabilities by burying or denying them. The anger just seethes and bubbles until something sets it off: Defense systems in the soul prevents God's healing from getting to the unhealed hurts, unmet needs, and unresolved issues.

To deal with anger, pray and bind yourself to the will of God, bind your mind to the mind of Christ, and bind your emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Then loose wrong beliefs, wrong patterns of thinking, wrong mind sets, the effects and influences of wrong agreements you have been a part of, the wrong thinking that made you get involved with soul ties with other people, word curses and wrong prayers, and then do what Jesus came to earth to do: loose (destroy) the works of the enemy (1 John 3:8).

As you begin to pray this way and as you read the Word of God, you create space for peace to come into your heart/soul. Peace is not a spirit you can loose upon yourself. Peace is not a spirit that you can command to come to you. Peace will not override fear and anger existing in your mind. One commentator said that peace is a lack of agitating passions. Peace will not cohabit with negative thoughts, anger, hate, and bitterness. I strongly suggest that you read some of my books, particularly Shattering Your Strongholds Revised. God bless, Liberty

I am a senior pastor of a church on the West Coast. I was adopted as a young child, and grew up in a wonderful Christian home. But I was an angry child. I became quite rebellious and entangled in the drug culture of the 80’s and on into the 90’s. I married a wonderful woman in the early 90’s and now have three wonderful children. At a very low point in my life in the early 90’s, I finally cried out to God and He healed me and delivered me and set me free. Jesus was no longer just the Lord of my parents, and that was the day I truly became born again.

I went into the ministry, and I am still learning and growing. Your teachings and keen insights have been tools that God used to set me free and that He continues to use as He brings me from glory to glory. That is why I began teaching these truths to my congregation so quickly.

My wife and I want a church where people are free to be a work in progress, free from religious condemnation and unreal religious expectations. I want the people in our church to put their masks at the altar and leave them there and take up the life of abundance. Thank you for all you have made available to this pastor, and thank you for letting me share this abbreviated version of how God radically changed a desperate young man. In Christ, Pastor Dave

Testimonies

A friend gave me your book Shattering Your Strongholds. IT IS THE BEST BOOK I HAVE EVER READ IN MY LIFE. I want to give your book to everyone. What book should I be reading next? I heard that you spoke at my church years ago, and I wish I could have seen you. You have straightened everything out in my mind and life and I want to do the same for everyone I know by giving them your books. You are the first person to ever make sense to me. Janie

Your teachings have blessed us all and many of us, including our pastor, are currently undergoing heart and soul healing. Praise God for your insights and that you faithfully carried these words of healing to fulfillment. I have been praying these prayers daily for myself and my family. I have really noticed a settling and a depth of God coming forth in our home and in all my other relationships.

Similar to your story in Shattering Your Strongholds, I have recently acquired a new job which has pushed on every wrong area within my soul. I have found myself completely overwhelmed, but determined to be free of any strongholds keeping me bound up. Your prayer strategies have helped me stay steady and not run away screaming. I do believe I am on my way to being healed. I can feel freedom coming around the corner! Thank you very much for helping us all to receive and believe in who our Father God created us to be. Leslie

I cannot begin to tell you what your ministry has meant to me and those the Lord puts in my path that I am to minister to. When counseling or I have speaking engagements, I find time and time again that it is your books that I use as powerful ammunition for those who are broken so they can come to a place of peace. The process of examining the motives of one’s heart is a slippery slope, and emotions are a powerful force. When they are not surrendered to Jesus, they can bring about great pain and unhealthy relationships.

A teachable heart opens areas of great opportunity and healthy relationships, not to mention the ability to set the baggage down and walk in great freedom. It all centers on Jesus, every aspect of growth and maturity is steeped in adversity that gives us the opportunity to yield to His path and not ours. What a wonder He is. I am amazed at how your personal notes and the retreat has pulled so many areas of confusion into the light in my life. Not always easy to look at but nothing like truth to propel us into our hearts desire of serving Him.

You are a joy Liberty. Although you may not remember me, I remember you and the touch that came to me from above through your ministry. Seriously, you will never know how much a part of my life you have become. Joey

Liberty is speaking in some meetings later this year at private conventions.

Christian Retreat Conference Center in Bradenton FL in February 2009

Liberty is also wanting to go to Scotland, perhaps with a side trip to Ireland. Please pray for an invitation or a Scottish team and an Irish team to work with.
Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES?

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President of Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc. (a non-profit corporation), was born again in 1972. She is an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915). Rev. Savard has served as a singles director, associate pastor, speaker, and Bible teacher. She is the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Producing the Promise (1999 Bridge-Logos Pub.), and several mini-books and workbooks. With The Unsurrendered Soul (2002 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Apples of Gold in Baskets of Silver (2003 Bridge-Logos Pub.), and BEYOND Shattered Strongholds (2005 Bridge-Logos Pub.), she now has 14 books in print around the world.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ’s shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry teaches Christians how to cause their unsurrendered souls (old natures) to surrender to the will and purposes of God. LSM also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them for today. This allows believers to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! This ministry also teaches God’s people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19) to impact things on earth so they come into alignment with God’s already established will in heaven. This ministry is also dedicated to training Christians how to pray purely without “want lists” and instruction manuals for God (so He will know how best to answer their prayers!). Effective prayers with pure motives declare that God’s will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
